We could also sue Bob for all the $ that we've spent trying to get the PAA enforced. Margaret already said that she wouldn't represent us in a suit against Bob because they are friends, but that

Thanks for the information. Not that it matters at this point but I definitely didn't "come to her for a buyout." I received the same emails as the rest of you and when I asked her to clarify a few things she basically told me I had jeopardized my loft and continues to tell me how vulnerable my situation is every time we speak. Im ok pursuing a buyout and moving on from the building but she really didn't advise me about any other way forward.

On Sun, Jul 17, 2022 at 11:45 PM Kathryn Downie <downiekathryn@hotmail.com> wrote:

Hey everyone,

I had a long talk with Margret, here is the gist and important points. We can talk about everything in more detail when we get together. I mostly passing on what she said as best I can.

It's in Margret's retainer that she gets 10% if she negotiates a buy out.

I really pressed her about why she is pushing us to sell.

She said she has done everything she can do to get the PAAs passed and she doesn't know what else to do. She said if Lisa was still alive it would have passed, if a couple other things had happened it would have passed.

She said she is worried that Marty's new lawyers are vicious and it makes her worried.

She said if the building gets demolished we only get what the city says which won't be much.

I asked about if Marty just sells, and the new owners have to buy us out? I'm not really sure how she answered that.

She went into a lengthy explanation about the joys of home ownership. That the the buy out should only be large enough to put a down payment on a house. I explained I wanted to stay in Greenpoint and I couldn't do that in GP.

I explained I was happy at my apartment so why would I sell to move somewhere smaller in a neighborhood I don't want to live when I can just stay here. She started pushing Hudson Valley and giving lots of examples of how her other clients use there buy out to buy property other places.

I told her I would be fine with the PAA as is. I would like to change it. Everyone agreed to have it my way at the NS at the Loft Board and then it just didn't end up in the plans. But I could take it as it is.

She said she mostly started pushing the buyouts because she doesn't know how else to get the PAAs through and David and Phil came to her asking her to negotiate a buyout so she thought it would be best for everyone especially because of Marty's new lawyers.

She asked why we didn't fill out the right paper work in the 45 days. I said Petrucci and Arthur were supposed to. She said P told her he wasn't hired to do that.

She talked at length about how much she likes Petrucci.

She said that just because something didn't go the way we want doesn't mean someone did something wrong.

She said Christain should only be asking for 1M. She said he would need all kind of proof about how he lost recordings and stuff like that for more.

She said Erez was in the best position - He is happy with his PAA, he has been there with no issue proving it and Marty wouldn't make him try.

We talke at length about my situation - that I thought it was crazy that I would loose everythign because during 2020 I might only be able to prove I spent 5 month there instead of 6. She said it would depend on the judge. She said it was fine if I was away for work if I could prove it. She said I might have to involve my work, that was fine I told he. She said I wouldn't just have to prove it. She said I would have to show every single bank statement, every debit

card transaction. I'll admitt I don't like the sound of that. I don't want every single thing I have done, every single thing I bought, every single thing I have been paid for scrutinized by multiply people .

I said I didn't understand why Iwas a target. She said she has no reason but what other people have said about me. I said I will scream if I hear that again. She said she knows I've been away, so I have been away,

Marty will do that then we should just move forward like everything is fine since it is. She said if I ask for a big buyout it could give him reason to target me. I'll admit she made me nervous. I can't handle a big court case I can't handle showing everything I've purchased to a judge. I'll have to look into that and see if she's right about that. She said it happened to another client, and the court saw everything she bought and it was really embarrassing.

She said Christain should ask for 1M, Erez $750, and me David, and Phil should split 1M. Sorry gang but I'm not walking away with $330. It would have to be my only option. My apartment is huge. I'm on the corner.

Marty can't build anything next to it either. I can sign off on the PAAs as is if need be. And I can live happily in my apartment in GP for many years. I can't handle a discovery from Marty - that's the only thing against me. I have to do some research.

She talked about other people in the building that aren't part of our FTA but I can't remember what she said.

She said yes we should ask higher but not too much higher or everything could get screwed.

Anyway - let's talk soon.

Yes, let's get a debit card issued for the TA bank account and have it on file at Margaret's office. That's the arrangement I have with them for my personal account. They ask for permission to bill the card or I just give them permission when I get a bill and it's done.

We should definitely make a list of questions and have a meeting as a group before our meeting with Margaret. Margaret tends not to answer questions directly a lot of the time. We should be explicit that she need to answer the questions directly before

we move on the the next question and wrap the meeting only when all of our questions are answered. It will be good to do it as a group so there is accountability. Margaret flip flops a lot. She wrote in an email that the harassment case is weak and not to

ask her to represent us in it. She explicitly told me that I especially have a strong case that would most likely win in court, now she is changing her tune, because in my opinion, she wants to cash out on the buyouts.

I, to my knowledge, never agreed to, nor signed anything defining what Margaret's cut of the buyout would be. I never hired her to negotiate any buyouts, nor was this agreed to when we discussed her taking over Petrucci's position. We need to review the contract. Has anyone else signed or discussed this with Margaret? She tried to say the Golden Drum would have to pay her a percentage of their buyout after they fired her and went with a different lawyer. We should all be on the same page about this. We need to review the contract that we signed as a group.

Thanks.

Thank you for spelling all this out, all good things to consider!

Sounds like we should schedule a group call with Margaret. In our last call we had talked about delegating one of us to do the talking while the rest of us listen in and chime in if there's something worth clarifying. Happy to be that person, but if someone feels strongly about it, happy to let them take the lead.

I'm going to reach out to Margaret to get some times that work for her and then we can all pick one that works best for us.

Also, who is responsible for paying Margaret for our group cost (700$)? Do we need to put more money into that pot? Please let us know what you need from us to get our balance paid.

Is there a good time we could meet in the near future before talking to Margaret so we can collect our thoughts / streamline our questions for when we do all have a call with her?

I'm available pretty much anytime over the next few days. Would be great to have this initial meeting by end of this weekend so we can get on a call w her first thing next week.

Greetings TA,

The main obstacle in the way of Marty filing for a demo permit and demolishing the building is the fact that we have loft law and he needs to bring the whole building up to code and signed off on by DOB before he can file for a demo permit. It makes sense

that Marty would want to demo the building. There are major structural issues that need to be dealt with on top of bringing the rest of the building up to code. It would be cheaper and much quicker to buy us out, not renew the 1-year long leases that the rest of the tenants who aren't covered by loft law, and clear the building. He could develop it himself or sell to a developer for a much higher price, if the building was empty. The Colbs said they wouldn't leave for less than a $1M buyout.

The harassment suit is dire for Marty if he has any intention of developing the building himself, as he cannot buy us out. It would also take the value of the building down if he were to sell to a developer.

Its my opinion that Marty intends to demolish the building. The mysterious flyer claims that that's what his plan is too. We should use this to get very high buyouts. Has anyone reached out to the email address on the flyer?

I don't particularly want to move out. I would like to get the PAA signed off on. That was the whole point of the harassment suite to begin with. That being said, if the buyout was high I would seriously consider it.

Marty doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us out so he can move along with his plan. Nothing can stop him, to my knowledge, once all of the Loft-law covered tenants are out. This position and the fact that his potential plans get derailed

if he gets hit with a harassment conviction, puts us in a very strong position. Marty's is playing chicken with the harassment suite, but he also doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us leave. It's seems to me that this would be an ideal situation

to get a very high buyout. Otherwise he's stuck with us, potentially not paying rent, unable to buy us out, with severe consequences if he gets hit with another harassment suite and loses.

Did anyone talk with Margaret?

Did anyone give numbers?

Here's info from two real-estate professionals:

Our price per square foot can range from $1,300 to $1,600.

My unit is @ 1,700 sq.ft

@ $1,300 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.21M

@ $1,400 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.38M

@ $1,500 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.55M

@ $1,600 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.72M

That's market rate right now in our area.

Even if Marty bought us out for 1M a piece he'd be making out, especially considering that if the harassment suite goes through, which Margaret said that it will, especially with my case, his position is seriously compromised. Marty will spend exponentially

more just bringing the building up to code, not to mention the amount of time that the whole process would take...many years, it will take years to get the demo permit and evict us after getting the DOB to sign off on the legalization. As many have already said,

Marty has no intention once legalizing the building, but I think that he would like to demo it asap.

Also Margaret needs to subpoena the Narrative Conference record where everyone agreed to the PAA. We should figure out a time when we can all meet with her so we can all get on the same page.

Please update the group with where you're at with your number, what communication you've had with Margaret, and how you think we should move forward.

Thanks,

Christian

Discussed subpoenaing Loft Board meeting where everyone agreed on the PAAs. Can only do that through some kind of case.

Is there another way Marty can demo the building that we don't know about? One where we wouldn't get as much for our rights?

Is the DOB fining Marty for putting the steel polls up on Green St?

Is Marty's daughter taking over APC?

Point - Marty can't get hit with harassment.

Point - Kate, Erez, Christain would be fine with keeping the PAAs as is just not preferable.

Find out about subletting for Loft Board tenants.

We don't have to pay rent, but that's asking for trouble.

Look into how discovery works. Would have have to show every single this we spent money on and received money for?

What would out number be as a group if we took the buyout? Can we all have a different number? Erez $750, Kate $750 (maybe a little lower), David $100 ?, Phil / Theo ?, Christain ?

Anyone else besides the Kolb's and Aaron (Margret told me Aaron will get covered)

What right do we have if city says building has to come down?

We need to start looking into other representation? Kozack?

Will getting PAAs give us leverage and increase value?

Does there need to be a certain number of units for units to remain under loft law protection?

Thanks for the information. Not that it matters at this point but I definitely didn't "come to her for a buyout." I received the same emails as the rest of you and when I asked her to clarify a few things she basically told me I had jeopardized my loft and continues to tell me how vulnerable my situation is every time we speak. Im ok pursuing a buyout and moving on from the building but she really didn't advise me about any other way forward.

Hey everyone,

I had a long talk with Margret, here is the gist and important points. We can talk about everything in more detail when we get together. I mostly passing on what she said as best I can.

It's in Margret's retainer that she gets 10% if she negotiates a buy out.

I really pressed her about why she is pushing us to sell.

She said she has done everything she can do to get the PAAs passed and she doesn't know what else to do. She said if Lisa was still alive it would have passed, if a couple other things had happened it would have passed.

She said she is worried that Marty's new layers are vicious and it makes her worried.

She said if the building gets demolished we only get what the city says which won't be much.

I asked about if Marty just sells, and the new owners have to buy us out? I'm not really sure how she answered that.

She went into a lengthy explanation about the joys of home ownership. That the the buy out should only be large enough to put a down payment on a house. I explained I wanted to stay in Greenpoint and I couldn't do that in GP.

I explained I was happy at my apartment so why would I sell to move somewhere smaller in a neighborhood I don't want to live when I can just stay here. She started pushing Hudson Valley and giving lots of examples of how her other clients use there buy out to buy property other places.

I told her I would be fine with the PAA as is. I would like to change it. Everyone agreed to have it my way at the NS at the Loft Board and then it just didn't end up in the plans. But I could take it as it is.

She said she mostly started pushing the buyouts because she doesn't know how else to get the PAAs through and David and Phil came to her asking her to negotiate a buyout so she thought it would be best for everyone especially because of Marty's new lawyers.

She asked why we didn't fill out the right paper work in the 45 days. I said Petrucci and Arthur were supposed to. She said P told her he wasn't hired to do that.

She talked at length about how much she likes Petrucci.

She said that just because something didn't go the way we want doesn't mean someone did something wrong.

She said Christain should only be asking for 1M. She said he would need all kind of proof about how he lost recordings and stuff like that for more.

She said Erez was in the best position - He is happy with his PAA, he has been there with no issue proving it and Marty wouldn't make him try.

We talke at length about my situation - that I thought it was crazy that I would loose everythign because during 2020 I might only be able to prove I spent 5 month there instead of 6. She said it would depend on the judge. She said it was fine if I was away for work if I could prove it. She said I might have to involve my work, that was fine I told he. She said I wouldn't just have to prove it. She said I would have to show every single bank statement, every debit

card transaction. I'll admitt I don't like the sound of that. I don't want every single thing I have done, every single thing I bought, every single thing I have been paid for scrutinized by multiply people .

I said I didn't understand why Iwas a target. She said she has no reason but what other people have said about me. I said I will scream if I hear that again. She said she knows I've been away, so I have been away,

and if Marty's lawyers ask me for a discovery I would have to prove it by showing every single thing I bought with my debit card. I said if we don't have a reason to think that Marty will do that then we should just move forward like everything is fine since it is. She said if I ask for a big buyout it could give him reason to target me. I'll admit she made me nervous. I can't handle a big court case I can't handle showing everything I've purchased to a judge. I'll have to look into that and see if she's right about that. She said it happened to another client, and the court saw everythign she bought and it was really embarrassing.

She said Christain should ask for 1M, Erez $750, and me David, and Phil should split 1M. Sorry gang but I'm not walking away with $330. It would have to be my only option. My apartment is huge. I'm on the corner.

Marty can't build anything next to it either. I can sign off on the PAAs as is if need be. And I can live happily in my apartment in GP for many years. I can't handle a discovery from Marty - that's the only thing against me. I have to do some research.

She talked about other people in the building that aren't part of our FTA but I can't remember what she said.

She said yes we should ask higher but not too much higher or everything could get screwed.

Anyway - let's talk soon.

Yes, let's get a debit card issued for the TA bank account and have it on file at Margaret's office. That's the arrangement I have with them for my personal account. They ask for permission to bill the card or I just give them permission when I get a bill and it's done.

We should definitely make a list of questions and have a meeting as a group before our meeting with Margaret. Margaret tends not to answer questions directly a lot of the time. We should be explicit that she need to answer the questions directly before

we move on the the next question and wrap the meeting only when all of our questions are answered. It will be good to do it as a group so there is accountability. Margaret flip flops a lot. She wrote in an email that the harassment case is weak and not to

ask her to represent us in it. She explicitly told me that I especially have a strong case that would most likely win in court, now she is changing her tune, because in my opinion, she wants to cash out on the buyouts.

I, to my knowledge, never agreed to, nor signed anything defining what Margaret's cut of the buyout would be. I never hired her to negotiate any buyouts, nor was this agreed to when we discussed her taking over Petrucci's position. We need to review the

to review the contract that we signed as a group.

Thanks.

Peace,

Christian

Also, we should figure out a time to meet this weekend as a group before then to put together a master list of questions for Margeret so we're not wasting time (money).

As I said before, I'd like to get the PAA signed off on and rebuild my place and move back in but if the buyout were high enough, I'd consider leaving.

Thank you for spelling all this out, all good things to consider!

Sounds like we should schedule a group call with Margaret. In our last call we had talked about delegating one of us to do the talking while the rest of us listen in and chime in if there's something worth clarifying. Happy to be that person, but if someone feels strongly about it, happy to let them take the lead.

I'm going to reach out to Margaret to get some times that work for her and then we can all pick one that works best for us.

Also, who is responsible for paying Margaret for our group cost (700$)? Do we need to put more money into that pot? Please let us know what you need from us to get our balance paid.

Is there a good time we could meet in the near future before talking to Margaret so we can collect our thoughts / streamline our questions for when we do all have a call with her?

I'm available pretty much anytime over the next few days. Would be great to have this initial meeting by end of this weekend so we can get on a call w her first thing next week.

Greetings TA,

The main obstacle in the way of Marty filing for a demo permit and demolishing the building is the fact that we have loft law and he needs to bring the whole building up to code and signed off on by DOB before he can file for a demo permit. It makes sense

that Marty would want to demo the building. There are major structural issues that need to be dealt with on top of bringing the rest of the building up to code. It would be cheaper and much quicker to buy us out, not renew the 1-year long leases that the rest of the tenants who aren't covered by loft law, and clear the building. He could develop it himself or sell to a developer for a much higher price, if the building was empty. The Colbs said they wouldn't leave for less than a $1M buyout.

The harassment suit is dire for Marty if he has any intention of developing the building himself, as he cannot buy us out. It would also take the value of the building down if he were to sell to a developer.

Its my opinion that Marty intends to demolish the building. The mysterious flyer claims that that's what his plan is too. We should use this to get very high buyouts. Has anyone reached out to the email address on the flyer?

I don't particularly want to move out. I would like to get the PAA signed off on. That was the whole point of the harassment suite to begin with. That being said, if the buyout was high I would seriously consider it.

Marty doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us out so he can move along with his plan. Nothing can stop him, to my knowledge, once all of the Loft-law covered tenants are out. This position and the fact that his potential plans get derailed

if he gets hit with a harassment conviction, puts us in a very strong position. Marty's is playing chicken with the harassment suite, but he also doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us leave. It's seems to me that this would be an ideal situation

to get a very high buyout. Otherwise he's stuck with us, potentially not paying rent, unable to buy us out, with severe consequences if he gets hit with another harassment suite and loses.

Did anyone talk with Margaret?

Did anyone give numbers?

Here's info from two real-estate professionals:

Our price per square foot can range from $1,300 to $1,600.

My unit is @ 1,700 sq.ft

@ $1,300 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.21M

@ $1,400 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.38M

@ $1,500 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.55M

@ $1,600 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.72M

That's market rate right now in our area.

Even if Marty bought us out for 1M a piece he'd be making out, especially considering that if the harassment suite goes through, which Margaret said that it will, especially with my case, his position is seriously compromised. Marty will spend exponentially

more just bringing the building up to code, not to mention the amount of time that the whole process would take...many years, it will take years to get the demo permit and evict us after getting the DOB to sign off on the legalization. As many have already said,

Marty has no intention once legalizing the building, but I think that he would like to demo it asap.

Also Margaret needs to subpoena the Narrative Conference record where everyone agreed to the PAA. We should figure out a time when we can all meet with her so we can all get on the same page.

Please update the group with where you're at with your number, what communication you've had with Margaret, and how you think we should move forward.

Thanks,

Christian

Discussed subpoenaing Loft Board meeting where everyone agreed on the PAAs. Can only do that through some kind of case.

Is there another way Marty can demo the building that we don't know about? One where we wouldn't get as much for our rights?

Is the DOB fining Marty for putting the steel polls up on Green St?

Is Marty's daughter taking over APC?

Point - Marty can't get hit with harassment.

Point - Kate, Erez, Christain would be fine with keeping the PAAs as is just not preferable.

Find out about subletting for Loft Board tenants.

We don't have to pay rent, but that's asking for trouble.

What would our number be as a group if we took the buyout? Can we all have a different number? Erez $750, Kate $750 (maybe a little lower), David $100 ?, Phil / Theo ?, Christain ?

Anyone else besides the Kolb's and Aaron (Margret told me Aaron will get covered)

What right do we have if city says building has to come down?

We need to start looking into other representation? Kozack?

Will getting PAAs give us leverage and increase value?

Does there need to be a certain number of units for units to remain under loft law protection?

I had a long talk with Margret, here is the gist and important points. We can talk about everything in more detail when we get together. I mostly passing on what she said as best I can.

It's in Margret's retainer that she gets 10% if she negotiates a buy out.

I really pressed her about why she is pushing us to sell.

She said she has done everything she can do to get the PAAs passed and she doesn't know what else to do. She said if Lisa was still alive it would have passed, if a couple other things had happened it would have passed.

She said she is worried that Marty's new layers are vicious and it makes her worried.

She said if the building gets demolished we only get what the city says which won't be much.

I asked about if Marty just sells, and the new owners have to buy us out? I'm not really sure how she answered that.

She went into a lengthy explanation about the joys of home ownership. That the the buy out should only be large enough to put a down payment on a house. I explained I wanted to stay in Greenpoint and I couldn't do that in GP.

I explained I was happy at my apartment so why would I sell to move somewhere smaller in a neighborhood I don't want to live when I can just stay here. She started pushing Hudson Valley and giving lots of examples of how her other clients use there buy out to buy property other places.

I told her I would be fine with the PAA as is. I would like to change it. Everyone agreed to have it my way at the NS at the Loft Board and then it just didn't end up in the plans. But I could take it as it is.

She said she mostly started pushing the buyouts because she doesn't know how else to get the PAAs through and David and Phil came to her asking her to negotiate a buyout so she thought it would be best for everyone especially because of Marty's new lawyers.

She asked why we didn't fill out the right paper work in the 45 days. I said Petrucci and Arthur were supposed to. She said P told her he wasn't hired to do that.

She talked at length about how much she likes Petrucci.

She said that just because something didn't go the way we want doesn't mean someone did something wrong.

She said Christain should only be asking for 1M. She said he would need all kind of proof about how he lost recordings and stuff like that for more.

She said Erez was in the best position - He is happy with his PAA, he has been there with no issue proving it and Marty wouldn't make him try.

We talke at length about my situation - that I thought it was crazy that I would loose everythign because during 2020 I might only be able to prove I spent 5 month there instead of 6. She said it would depend on the judge. She said it was fine if I was away for work if I could prove it. She said I might have to involve my work, that was fine I told he. She said I wouldn't just have to prove it. She said I would have to show every single bank statement, every debit

card transaction. I'll admitt I don't like the sound of that. I don't want every single thing I have done, every single thing I bought, every single thing I have been paid for scrutinized by multiply people .

I said I didn't understand why Iwas a target. She said she has no reason but what other people have said about me. I said I will scream if I hear that again. She said she knows I've been away, so I have been away,

and if Marty's lawyers ask me for a discovery I would have to prove it by showing every single thing I bought with my debit card. I said if we don't have a reason to think that Marty will do that then we should just move forward like everything is fine since

it is. She said if I ask for a big buyout it could give him reason to target me. I'll admit she made me nervous. I can't handle a big court case I can't handle showing everything I've purchased to a judge. I'll have to look into that and see if she's right about that. She said it happened to another client, and the court saw everythign she bought and it was really embarrassing.

She said Christain should ask for 1M, Erez $750, and me David, and Phil should split 1M. Sorry gang but I'm not walking away with $330. It would have to be my only option. My apartment is huge. I'm on the corner.

Marty can't build anythign next to it either. I can sign off on the PAAs as is if need be. And I can live happily in my apartment in GP for many years. I can't handle a discovery from Marty - that's the only thing against me. I have to do some research.

She talked about other people in the building that aren't part of our FTA but I can't remember what she said.

She said yes we should ask higher but not too much higher or everthing could get screwed.

Anyway - let's talk soon.

Yes, let's get a debit card issued for the TA bank account and have it on file at Margaret's office. That's the arrangement I have with them for my personal account. They ask for permission to bill the card or I just give them permission when I get a bill and it's done.

We should definitely make a list of questions and have a meeting as a group before our meeting with Margaret. Margaret tends not to answer questions directly a lot of the time. We should be explicit that she need to answer the questions directly before

we move on the the next question and wrap the meeting only when all of our questions are answered. It will be good to do it as a group so there is accountability. Margaret flip flops a lot. She wrote in an email that the harassment case is weak and not to

I, to my knowledge, never agreed to, nor signed anything defining what Margaret's cut of the buyout would be. I never hired her to negotiate any buyouts, nor was this agreed to when we discussed her taking over Petrucci's position. We need to review the contract. Has anyone else signed or discussed this with Margaret? She tried to say the Golden Drum would have to pay her a percentage of their buyout after they fired her and went with a different lawyer. We should all be on the same page about this. We need to review the contract that we signed as a group.

Thanks.

Peace,

Christian

Also, we should figure out a time to meet this weekend as a group before then to put together a master list of questions for Margeret so we're not wasting time (money).

Remember that Margaret can subpoena the Narrative Conference record that clearly has all parties agreeing to the PAA and also agreeing to put it in writing. I was sitting there and witnessed the whole thing.

I think if we got that evidence it would obviously make our case for the PAA but could also strengthen our position for negotiating higher buyouts.

As I said before, I'd like to get the PAA signed off on and rebuild my place and move back in but if the buyout were high enough, I'd consider leaving.

Thank you for spelling all this out, all good things to consider!

Sounds like we should schedule a group call with Margaret. In our last call we had talked about delegating one of us to do the talking while the rest of us listen in and chime in if there's something worth clarifying. Happy to be that person,

but if someone feels strongly about it, happy to let them take the lead.

I'm going to reach out to Margaret to get some times that work for her and then we can all pick one that works best for us.

Also, who is responsible for paying Margaret for our group cost (700$)? Do we need to put more money into that pot? Please let us know what you need from us to get our balance paid.

Is there a good time we could meet in the near future before talking to Margaret so we can collect our thoughts / streamline our questions for when we do all have a call with her?

I'm available pretty much anytime over the next few days. Would be great to have this initial meeting by end of this weekend so we can get on a call w her first thing next week.

Greetings TA,

The main obstacle in the way of Marty filing for a demo permit and demolishing the building is the fact that we have loft law and he needs to bring the whole building up to code and signed off on by DOB before he can file for a demo permit. It makes sense

of the tenants who aren't covered by loft law, and clear the building. He could develop it himself or sell to a developer for a much higher price, if the building was empty. The Colbs said they wouldn't leave for less than a $1M buyout.

The harassment suit is dire for Marty if he has any intention of developing the building himself, as he cannot buy us out. It would also take the value of the building down if he were to sell to a developer.

Its my opinion that Marty intends to demolish the building. The mysterious flyer claims that that's what his plan is too. We should use this to get very high buyouts. Has anyone reached out to the email address on the flyer?

I don't particularly want to move out. I would like to get the PAA signed off on. That was the whole point of the harassment suite to begin with. That being said, if the buyout was high I would seriously consider it.

Marty doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us out so he can move along with his plan. Nothing can stop him, to my knowledge, once all of the Loft-law covered tenants are out. This position and the fact that his potential plans get derailed

to get a very high buyout. Otherwise he's stuck with us, potentially not paying rent, unable to buy us out, with severe consequences if he gets hit with another harassment suite and loses.

Did anyone talk with Margaret?

Did anyone give numbers?

Here's info from two real-estate professionals:

Our price per square foot can range from $1,300 to $1,600.

My unit is @ 1,700 sq.ft

@ $1,300 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.21M

@ $1,400 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.38M

@ $1,500 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.55M

@ $1,600 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.72M

That's market rate right now in our area.

Even if Marty bought us out for 1M a piece he'd be making out, especially considering that if the harassment suite goes through, which Margaret said that it will, especially with my case, his position is seriously compromised. Marty will spend exponentially

more just bringing the building up to code, not to mention the amount of time that the whole process would take...many years, it will take years to get the demo permit and evict us after getting the DOB to sign off on the legalization. As many have already said,

Marty has no intention once legalizing the building, but I think that he would like to demo it asap.

Please update the group with where you're at with your number, what communication you've had with Margaret, and how you think we should move forward.

Thanks,

Christian

Is there another way Marty can demo the building that we don't know about? One where we wouldn't get as much for our rights?

Is the DOB fining Marty for putting the steel polls up on Green St?

Is Marty's daughter taking over APC?

Point - Marty can't get hit with harassment.

Point - Kate, Erez, Christain would be fine with keeping the PAAs as is just not preferable.

Find out about subletting for Loft Board tenants.

We don't have to pay rent, but that's asking for trouble.

What would out number be as a group if we took the buyout? Can we all have a different number? Erez $750, Kate $750 (maybe a little lower), David $100 ?, Phil / Theo ?, Christain ?

Anyone else besides the Kolb's and Aaron (Margret told me Aaron will get covered)

What right do we have if city says building has to come down?

We need to start looking into other representation? Kozack?

Will getting PAAs give us leverage and increase value?

Does there need to be a certain number of units for units to remain under loft law protection?

She went into a lengthy explanation about the joys of home ownership. That the the buy out should only be large enough to put a down payment on a house. I explained I wanted to stay in Greenpoint and I couldn't do that in GP.

I explained I was happy at my apartment so why would I sell to move somewhere smaller in a neighborhood I don't want to live when I can just stay here. She started pushing Hudson Valley and giving lots of examples of how her other clients use there buy out to buy property other places.

I told her I would be fine with the PAA as is. I would like to change it. Everyone agreed to have it my way at the NS at the Loft Board and then it just didn't end up in the plans. But I could take it as it is.

She said she mostly started pushing the buyouts because she doesn't know how else to get the PAAs through and David and Phil came to her asking her to negotiate a buyout so she thought it would be best for everyone especially because of Marty's new lawyers.

She asked why we didn't fill out the right paper work in the 45 days. I said Petrucci and Arthur were supposed to. She said P told her he wasn't hired to do that.

She talked at length about how much she likes Petrucci.

She said that just because something didn't go the way we want doesn't mean someone did something wrong.

She said Christain should only be asking for 1M. She said he would need all kind of proof about how he lost recordings and stuff like that for more.

She said Erez was in the best position - He is happy with his PAA, he has been there with no issue proving it and Marty wouldn't make him try.

We talke at length about my situation - that I thought it was crazy that I would loose everythign because during 2020 I might only be able to prove I spent 5 month there instead of 6. She said it would depend on the judge. She said it was fine if I was away for work if I could prove it. She said I might have to involve my work, that was fine I told he. She said I wouldn't just have to prove it. She said I would have to show every single bank statement, every debit

card transaction. I'll admitt I don't like the sound of that. I don't want every single thing I have done, every single thing I bought, every single thing I have been paid for scrutinized by multiply people .

I said I didn't understand why Iwas a target. She said she has no reason but what other people have said about me. I said I will scream if I hear that again. She said she knows I've been away, so I have been away,

and if Marty's lawyers ask me for a discovery I would have to prove it by showing every single thing I bought with my debit card. I said if we don't have a reason to think that Marty will do that then we should just move forward like everything is fine since

it is. She said if I ask for a big buyout it could give him reason to target me. I'll admit she made me nervous. I can't handle a big court case I can't handle showing everything I've purchased to a judge. I'll have to look into that and see if she's right about that. She said it happened to another client, and the court saw everythign she bought and it was really embarrassing.

She said Christain should ask for 1M, Erez $750, and me David, and Phil should split 1M. Sorry gang but I'm not walking away with $330. It would have to be my only option. My apartment is huge. I'm on the corner.

Marty can't build anything next to it either. I can sign off on the PAAs as is if need be. And I can live happily in my apartment in GP for many years. I can't handle a discovery from Marty - that's the only thing against me. I have to do some research.

She talked about other people in the building that aren't part of our FTA but I can't remember what she said.

She said yes we should ask higher but not too much higher or everything could get screwed.

Anyway - let's talk soon.

Yes, let's get a debit card issued for the TA bank account and have it on file at Margaret's office. That's the arrangement I have with them for my personal account. They ask for permission to bill the card or I just give them permission when I get a bill and it's done.

We should definitely make a list of questions and have a meeting as a group before our meeting with Margaret. Margaret tends not to answer questions directly a lot of the time. We should be explicit that she need to answer the questions directly before

we move on the the next question and wrap the meeting only when all of our questions are answered. It will be good to do it as a group so there is accountability. Margaret flip flops a lot. She wrote in an email that the harassment case is weak and not to

I, to my knowledge, never agreed to, nor signed anything defining what Margaret's cut of the buyout would be. I never hired her to negotiate any buyouts, nor was this agreed to when we discussed her taking over Petrucci's position. We need to review the

to review the contract that we signed as a group.

Thanks.

Peace,

Christian

Also, we should figure out a time to meet this weekend as a group before then to put together a master list of questions for Margeret so we're not wasting time (money).

I think if we got that evidence it would obviously make our case for the PAA but could also strengthen our position for negotiating higher buyouts.

As I said before, I'd like to get the PAA signed off on and rebuild my place and move back in but if the buyout were high enough, I'd consider leaving.

Thank you for spelling all this out, all good things to consider!

Sounds like we should schedule a group call with Margaret. In our last call we had talked about delegating one of us to do the talking while the rest of us listen in and chime in if there's something worth clarifying. Happy to be that person, but if someone feels strongly about it, happy to let them take the lead.

I'm going to reach out to Margaret to get some times that work for her and then we can all pick one that works best for us.

Also, who is responsible for paying Margaret for our group cost (700$)? Do we need to put more money into that pot? Please let us know what you need from us to get our balance paid.

Is there a good time we could meet in the near future before talking to Margaret so we can collect our thoughts / streamline our questions for when we do all have a call with her?

I'm available pretty much anytime over the next few days. Would be great to have this initial meeting by end of this weekend so we can get on a call w her first thing next week.

Greetings TA,

The main obstacle in the way of Marty filing for a demo permit and demolishing the building is the fact that we have loft law and he needs to bring the whole building up to code and signed off on by DOB before he can file for a demo permit. It makes sense

that Marty would want to demo the building. There are major structural issues that need to be dealt with on top of bringing the rest of the building up to code. It would be cheaper and much quicker to buy us out, not renew the 1-year long leases that the rest of the tenants who aren't covered by loft law, and clear the building. He could develop it himself or sell to a developer for a much higher price, if the building was empty. The Colbs said they wouldn't leave for less than a $1M buyout.

The harassment suit is dire for Marty if he has any intention of developing the building himself, as he cannot buy us out. It would also take the value of the building down if he were to sell to a developer.

Its my opinion that Marty intends to demolish the building. The mysterious flyer claims that that's what his plan is too. We should use this to get very high buyouts. Has anyone reached out to the email address on the flyer?

I don't particularly want to move out. I would like to get the PAA signed off on. That was the whole point of the harassment suite to begin with. That being said, if the buyout was high I would seriously consider it.

Marty doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us out so he can move along with his plan. Nothing can stop him, to my knowledge, once all of the Loft-law covered tenants are out. This position and the fact that his potential plans get derailed

if he gets hit with a harassment conviction, puts us in a very strong position. Marty's is playing chicken with the harassment suite, but he also doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us leave. It's seems to me that this would be an ideal situation

to get a very high buyout. Otherwise he's stuck with us, potentially not paying rent, unable to buy us out, with severe consequences if he gets hit with another harassment suite and loses.

Did anyone talk with Margaret?

Did anyone give numbers?

Here's info from two real-estate professionals:

Our price per square foot can range from $1,300 to $1,600.

My unit is @ 1,700 sq.ft

@ $1,300 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.21M

@ $1,400 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.38M

@ $1,500 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.55M

@ $1,600 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.72M

That's market rate right now in our area.

Even if Marty bought us out for 1M a piece he'd be making out, especially considering that if the harassment suite goes through, which Margaret said that it will, especially with my case, his position is seriously compromised. Marty will spend exponentially

more just bringing the building up to code, not to mention the amount of time that the whole process would take...many years, it will take years to get the demo permit and evict us after getting the DOB to sign off on the legalization. As many have already said,

Marty has no intention once legalizing the building, but I think that he would like to demo it asap.

Also Margaret needs to subpoena the Narrative Conference record where everyone agreed to the PAA. We should figure out a time when we can all meet with her so we can all get on the same page.

Please update the group with where you're at with your number, what communication you've had with Margaret, and how you think we should move forward.

Thanks,

Christian

Is there another way Marty can demo the building that we don't know about? One where we wouldn't get as much for our rights?

Is the DOB fining Marty for putting the steel polls up on Green St?

Is Marty's daughter taking over APC?

Point - Marty can't get hit with harassment.

Point - Kate, Erez, Christain would be fine with keeping the PAAs as is just not preferable.

Find out about subletting for Loft Board tenants.

We don't have to pay rent, but that's asking for trouble.

What would out number be as a group if we took the buyout? Can we all have a different number? Erez $750, Kate $750 (maybe a little lower), David $100 ?, Phil / Theo ?, Christain ?

Anyone else besides the Kolb's and Aaron (Margret told me Aaron will get covered)

What right do we have if city says building has to come down?

We need to start looking into other representation? Kozack?

Will getting PAAs give us leverage and increase value?

Does there need to be a certain number of units for units to remain under loft law protection?

I really pressed her about why she is pushing us to sell.

She said she has done everything she can do to get the PAAs passed and she doesn't know what else to do. She said if Lisa was still alive it would have passed, if a couple other things had happened it would have passed.

She said she is worried that Marty's new lawyers are vicious and it makes her worried.

I told her I would be fine with the PAA as is. I would like to change it. Everyone agreed to have it my way at the NS at the Loft Board and then it just didn't end up in the plans. But I could take it as it is.

She said she mostly started pushing the buyouts because she doesn't know how else to get the PAAs through and David and Phil came to her asking her to negotiate a buyout so she thought it would be best for everyone especially because of Marty's new lawyers.

She asked why we didn't fill out the right paper work in the 45 days. I said Petrucci and Arthur were supposed to. She said P told her he wasn't hired to do that.

She talked at length about how much she likes Petrucci.

She said that just because something didn't go the way we want doesn't mean someone did something wrong.

She said Christain should only be asking for 1M. She said he would need all kind of proof about how he lost recordings and stuff like that for more.

She said Erez was in the best position - He is happy with his PAA, he has been there with no issue proving it and Marty wouldn't make him try.

We talke at length about my situation - that I thought it was crazy that I would loose everythign because during 2020 I might only be able to prove I spent 5 month there instead of 6. She said it would depend on the judge. She said it was fine if I was away for work if I could prove it. She said I might have to involve my work, that was fine I told he. She said I wouldn't just have to prove it. She said I would have to show every single bank statement, every debit

card transaction. I'll admitt I don't like the sound of that. I don't want every single thing I have done, every single thing I bought, every single thing I have been paid for scrutinized by multiply people .

I said I didn't understand why Iwas a target. She said she has no reason but what other people have said about me. I said I will scream if I hear that again. She said she knows

I've been away, so I have been away,

and if Marty's lawyers ask me for a discovery I would have to prove it by showing every single thing I bought with my debit card. I said if we don't have a reason to think that Marty will do that then we should just move forward like everything is fine since it is. She said if I ask for a big buyout it could give him reason to target me. I'll admit she made me nervous. I can't handle a big court case I can't handle showing everything I've purchased to a judge. I'll have to look into that and see if she's right about that. She said it happened to another client, and the court saw everything she bought and it was really embarrassing.

She said Christain should ask for 1M, Erez $750, and me David, and Phil should split 1M. Sorry gang but I'm not walking away with $330. It would have to be my only option. My apartment is huge. I'm on the corner.

Marty can't build anything next to it either. I can sign off on the PAAs as is if need be. And I can live happily in my apartment in GP for many years. I can't handle a discovery from Marty - that's the only thing against me. I have to do some research.

She talked about other people in the building that aren't part of our FTA but I can't remember what she said.

She said yes we should ask higher but not too much higher or everything could get screwed.

Anyway - let's talk soon.

Yes, let's get a debit card issued for the TA bank account and have it on file at Margaret's office. That's the arrangement I have with them for my personal account. They ask for permission to bill the card or I just give them permission when I get a bill and it's done.

We should definitely make a list of questions and have a meeting as a group before our meeting with Margaret. Margaret tends not to answer questions directly a lot of the time. We should be explicit that she need to answer the questions directly before

we move on the the next question and wrap the meeting only when all of our questions are answered. It will be good to do it as a group so there is accountability. Margaret flip flops a lot. She wrote in an email that the harassment case is weak and not to

ask her to represent us in it. She explicitly told me that I especially have a strong case that would most likely win in court, now she is changing her tune, because in my opinion, she wants to cash out on the buyouts.

I, to my knowledge, never agreed to, nor signed anything defining what Margaret's cut of the buyout would be. I never hired her to negotiate any buyouts, nor was this agreed to when we discussed her taking over Petrucci's position. We need to review the

to review the contract that we signed as a group.

Thanks.

Peace,

Christian

Also, we should figure out a time to meet this weekend as a group before then to put together a master list of questions for Margeret so we're not wasting time (money).

Remember that Margaret can subpoena the Narrative Conference record that clearly has all parties agreeing to the PAA and also agreeing to put it in writing. I was sitting there and witnessed the whole thing.

I think if we got that evidence it would obviously make our case for the PAA but could also strengthen our position for negotiating higher buyouts.

As I said before, I'd like to get the PAA signed off on and rebuild my place and move back in but if the buyout were high enough, I'd consider leaving.

Thank you for spelling all this out, all good things to consider!

Sounds like we should schedule a group call with Margaret. In our last call we had talked about delegating one of us to do the talking while the rest of us listen in and chime in if there's something worth clarifying. Happy to be that person,

but if someone feels strongly about it, happy to let them take the lead.

I'm going to reach out to Margaret to get some times that work for her and then we can all pick one that works best for us.

Also, who is responsible for paying Margaret for our group cost (700$)? Do we need to put more money into that pot? Please let us know what you need from us to get our balance paid.

Is there a good time we could meet in the near future before talking to Margaret so we can collect our thoughts / streamline our questions for when we do all have a call with her?

I'm available pretty much anytime over the next few days. Would be great to have this initial meeting by end of this weekend so we can get on a call w her first thing next week.

Greetings TA,

The main obstacle in the way of Marty filing for a demo permit and demolishing the building is the fact that we have loft law and he needs to bring the whole building up to code and signed off on by DOB before he can file for a demo permit. It makes sense

that Marty would want to demo the building. There are major structural issues that need to be dealt with on top of bringing the rest of the building up to code. It would be cheaper and much quicker to buy us out, not renew the 1-year long leases that the rest of the tenants who aren't covered by loft law, and clear the building. He could develop it himself or sell to a developer for a much higher price, if the building was empty. The Colbs said they wouldn't leave for less than a $1M buyout.

The harassment suit is dire for Marty if he has any intention of developing the building himself, as he cannot buy us out. It would also take the value of the building down if he were to sell to a developer.

It's my opinion that Marty intends to demolish the building. The mysterious flyer claims that that's what his plan is too. We should use this to get very high buyouts. Has anyone reached out to the email address on the flyer?

I don't particularly want to move out. I would like to get the PAA signed off on. That was the whole point of the harassment suite to begin with. That being said, if the buyout was high I would seriously consider it.

Marty doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us out so he can move along with his plan. Nothing can stop him, to my knowledge, once all of the Loft-law covered tenants are out. This position and the fact that his potential plans get derailed

if he gets hit with a harassment conviction, puts us in a very strong position. Marty's is playing chicken with the harassment suite, but he also doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us leave. It seems to me that this would be an ideal situation

to get a very high buyout. Otherwise he's stuck with us, potentially not paying rent, unable to buy us out, with severe consequences if he gets hit with another harassment suite and loses.

Did anyone talk with Margaret?

Did anyone give numbers?

Here's info from two real-estate professionals:

Our price per square foot can range from $1,300 to $1,600.

My unit is @ 1,700 sq.ft

@ $1,300 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.21M

@ $1,400 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.38M

@ $1,500 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.55M

@ $1,600 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.72M

That's market rate right now in our area.

Even if Marty bought us out for 1M a piece he'd be making out, especially considering that if the harassment suite goes through, which Margaret said that it will, especially with my case, his position is seriously compromised. Marty will spend exponentially

more just bringing the building up to code, not to mention the amount of time that the whole process would take...many years, it will take years to get the demo permit and evict us after getting the DOB to sign off on the legalization. As many have already said,

Marty has no intention once legalizing the building, but I think that he would like to demo it asap.

Also Margaret needs to subpoena the Narrative Conference record where everyone agreed to the PAA. We should figure out a time when we can all meet with her so we can all get on the same page.

Please update the group with where you're at with your number, what communication you've had with Margaret, and how you think we should move forward.

Thanks,

Christian

Is there another way Marty can demo the building that we don't know about? One where we wouldn't get as much for our rights?

Is the DOB fining Marty for putting the steel polls up on Green St?

Is Marty's daughter taking over APC?

Point - Marty can't get hit with harassment.

Point - Kate, Erez, Christain would be fine with keeping the PAAs as is just not preferable.

Find out about subletting for Loft Board tenants.

We don't have to pay rent, but that's asking for trouble.

What would out number be as a group if we took the buyout? Can we all have a different number? Erez $750, Kate $750 (maybe a little lower), David $100 ?, Phil / Theo ?, Christain ?

Anyone else besides the Kolb's and Aaron (Margret told me Aaron will get covered)

What right do we have if city says building has to come down?

We need to start looking into other representation? Kozack?

Will getting PAAs give us leverage and increase value?

Does there need to be a certain number of units for units to remain under loft law protection?

I don't disagree with you but in my case she has pointed out some problems that are valid and could end up screwing me if I continue with the same attitude I had a few months ago. I agree with her that I should negotiate a buyout if possible.

Thanks for the information. Not that it matters at this point but I definitely didn't "come to her for a buyout." I received the same emails as the rest of you and when I asked her to clarify a few things she basically told me I had jeopardized

Hey everyone,

I had a long talk with Margret, here is the gist and important points. We can talk about everything in more detail when we get together. I mostly passing on what she said as best I can.

It's in Margret's retainer that she gets 10% if she negotiates a buy out.

I really pressed her about why she is pushing us to sell.

She said she has done everything she can do to get the PAAs passed and she doesn't know what else to do. She said if Lisa was still alive it would have passed, if a couple other things had happened it would have passed.

She said she is worried that Marty's new layers are vicious and it makes her worried.

She said if the building gets demolished we only get what the city says which won't be much.

I asked about if Marty just sells, and the new owners have to buy us out? I'm not really sure how she answered that.

She went into a lengthy explanation about the joys of home ownership. That the the buy out should only be large enough to put a down payment on a house. I explained I wanted to stay in Greenpoint and I couldn't do that in GP.

I explained I was happy at my apartment so why would I sell to move somewhere smaller in a neighborhood I don't want to live when I can just stay here. She started pushing Hudson Valley and giving lots of examples of how her other clients use there buy out to buy property other places.

I told her I would be fine with the PAA as is. I would like to change it. Everyone agreed to have it my way at the NS at the Loft Board and then it just didn't end up in the plans. But I could take it as it is.

She said she mostly started pushing the buyouts because she doesn't know how else to get the PAAs through and David and Phil came to her asking her to negotiate a buyout so she thought it would be best for everyone especially

because of Marty's new lawyers.

She asked why we didn't fill out the right paper work in the 45 days. I said Petrucci and Arthur were supposed to. She said P told her he wasn't hired to do that.

She talked at length about how much she likes Petrucci.

She said that just because something didn't go the way we want doesn't mean someone did something wrong.

She said Christain should only be asking for 1M. She said he would need all kind of proof about how he lost recordings and stuff like that for more.

She said Erez was in the best position - He is happy with his PAA, he has been there with no issue proving it and Marty wouldn't make him try.

We talke at length about my situation - that I thought it was crazy that I would loose everythign because during 2020 I might only be able to prove I spent 5 month there instead of 6. She said it would depend on the judge. She said it was fine if I was away for work if I could prove it. She said I might have to involve my work, that was fine I told he. She said I wouldn't just have to prove it. She said I would have to show every single bank statement, every debit

card transaction. I'll admitt I don't like the sound of that. I don't want every single thing I have done, every single thing I bought, every single thing I have been paid for scrutinized by multiply people .

I said I didn't understand why I was a target. She said she has no reason but what other people have said about me. I said I will scream if I hear that again. She said she knows I've been away, so I have been away,

and if Marty's lawyers ask me for a discovery I would have to prove it by showing every single thing I bought with my debit card. I said if we don't have a reason to think that Marty will do that then we should just move forward like everything is fine since

it is. She said if I ask for a big buyout it could give him reason to target me. I'll admit she made me nervous. I can't handle a big court case I can't handle showing everything I've purchased to a judge. I'll have to look into that and see if she's right about that. She said it happened to another client, and the court saw everythign she bought and it was really embarrassing.

She said Christain should ask for 1M, Erez $750, and me David, and Phil should split 1M. Sorry gang but I'm not walking away with $330. It would have to be my only option. My apartment is huge. I'm on the corner.

Marty can't build anythign next to it either. I can sign off on the PAAs as is if need be. And I can live happily in my apartment in GP for many years. I can't handle a discovery from Marty - that's the only thing against me. I have to do some research.

She talked about other people in the building that aren't part of our FTA but I can't remember what she said.

She said yes we should ask higher but not too much higher or everthing could get screwed.

Anyway - let's talk soon.

Yes, let's get a debit card issued for the TA bank account and have it on file at Margaret's office. That's the arrangement I have with them for my personal account. They ask for permission to bill the card or I just give them permission when I get a bill and it's done.

We should definitely make a list of questions and have a meeting as a group before our meeting with Margaret. Margaret tends not to answer questions directly a lot of the time. We should be explicit that she need to answer the questions directly before

we move on the the next question and wrap the meeting only when all of our questions are answered. It will be good to do it as a group so there is accountability. Margaret flip flops a lot. She wrote in an email that the harassment case is weak and not to

ask her to represent us in it. She explicitly told me that I especially have a strong case that would most likely win in court, now she is changing her tune, because in my opinion, she wants to cash out on the buyouts.

I, to my knowledge, never agreed to, nor signed anything defining what Margaret's cut of the buyout would be. I never hired her to negotiate any buyouts, nor was this agreed to when we discussed her taking over Petrucci's position. We need to review the

to review the contract that we signed as a group.

Thanks.

Peace,

Christian

Also, we should figure out a time to meet this weekend as a group before then to put together a master list of questions for Margeret so we're not wasting time (money).

I think if we got that evidence it would obviously make our case for the PAA but could also strengthen our position for negotiating higher buyouts.

As I said before, I'd like to get the PAA signed off on and rebuild my place and move back in but if the buyout were high enough, I'd consider leaving.

Thank you for spelling all this out, all good things to consider!

Sounds like we should schedule a group call with Margaret. In our last call we had talked about delegating one of us to do the talking while the rest of us listen in and chime in if there's something worth clarifying. Happy to be that person,

but if someone feels strongly about it, happy to let them take the lead.

I'm going to reach out to Margaret to get some times that work for her and then we can all pick one that works best for us.

Also, who is responsible for paying Margaret for our group cost (700$)? Do we need to put more money into that pot? Please let us know what you need from us to get our balance paid.

Is there a good time we could meet in the near future before talking to Margaret so we can collect our thoughts / streamline our questions for when we do all have a call with her?

I'm available pretty much anytime over the next few days. Would be great to have this initial meeting by end of this weekend so we can get on a call w her first thing next week.

Greetings TA,

The main obstacle in the way of Marty filing for a demo permit and demolishing the building is the fact that we have loft law and he needs to bring the whole building up to code and signed off on by DOB before he can file for a demo permit. It makes sense

that Marty would want to demo the building. There are major structural issues that need to be dealt with on top of bringing the rest of the building up to code. It would be cheaper and much quicker to buy us out, not renew the 1-year long leases that the rest of the tenants who aren't covered by loft law, and clear the building. He could develop it himself or sell to a developer for a much higher price, if the building was empty. The Colbs said they wouldn't leave for less than a $1M buyout.

The harassment suit is dire for Marty if he has any intention of developing the building himself, as he cannot buy us out. It would also take the value of the building down if he were to sell to a developer.

Its my opinion that Marty intends to demolish the building. The mysterious flyer claims that that's what his plan is too. We should use this to get very high buyouts. Has anyone reached out to the email address on the flyer?

I don't particularly want to move out. I would like to get the PAA signed off on. That was the whole point of the harassment suite to begin with. That being said, if the buyout was high I would seriously consider it.

Marty doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us out so he can move along with his plan. Nothing can stop him, to my knowledge, once all of the Loft-law covered tenants are out. This position and the fact that his potential plans get derailed

if he gets hit with a harassment conviction, puts us in a very strong position. Marty's is playing chicken with the harassment suite, but he also doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us leave. It's seems to me that this would be an ideal situation

to get a very high buyout. Otherwise he's stuck with us, potentially not paying rent, unable to buy us out, with severe consequences if he gets hit with another harassment suite and loses.

Did anyone talk with Margaret?

Did anyone give numbers?

Here's info from two real-estate professionals:

Our price per square foot can range from $1,300 to $1,600.

My unit is @ 1,700 sq.ft

@ $1,300 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.21M

@ $1,400 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.38M

@ $1,500 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.55M

@ $1,600 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.72M

That's market rate right now in our area.

Even if Marty bought us out for 1M a piece he'd be making out, especially considering that if the harassment suite goes through, which Margaret said that it will, especially with my case, his position is seriously compromised. Marty will spend exponentially

more just bringing the building up to code, not to mention the amount of time that the whole process would take...many years, it will take years to get the demo permit and evict us after getting the DOB to sign off on the legalization. As many have already said,

Marty has no intention once legalizing the building, but I think that he would like to demo it asap.

Also Margaret needs to subpoena the Narrative Conference record where everyone agreed to the PAA. We should figure out a time when we can all meet with her so we can all get on the same page.

Please update the group with where you're at with your number, what communication you've had with Margaret, and how you think we should move forward.

Thanks,

Christian

Is there another way Marty can demo the building that we don't know about? One where we wouldn't get as much for our rights?

Is the DOB fining Marty for putting the steel polls up on Green St?

Is Marty's daughter taking over APC?

Point - Marty can't get hit with harassment.

Point - Kate, Erez, Christain would be fine with keeping the PAAs as is just not preferable.

Find out about subletting for Loft Board tenants.

We don't have to pay rent, but that's asking for trouble.

Look into how discovery works. Would have to show every single thing we spent money on and received money for?

What would our number be as a group if we took the buyout? Can we all have a different number? Erez $750, Kate $750 (maybe a little lower), David $100 ?, Phil / Theo ?, Christain ?

Anyone else besides the Kolb's and Aaron (Margret told me Aaron will get covered)

What right do we have if city says building has to come down?

We need to start looking into other representation? Kozack?

Will getting PAAs give us leverage and increase value?

Does there need to be a certain number of units for units to remain under loft law protection?

I don't disagree with you but in my case she has pointed out some problems that are valid and could end up screwing me if I continue with the same attitude I had a few months ago. I agree with her that I should negotiate a buyout if possible.

Hey everyone,

I had a long talk with Margret, here is the gist and important points. We can talk about everything in more detail when we get together. I mostly passing on what she said as best I can.

It's in Margret's retainer that she gets 10% if she negotiates a buy out.

I really pressed her about why she is pushing us to sell.

She said she has done everything she can do to get the PAAs passed and she doesn't know what else to do. She said if Lisa was still alive it would have passed, if a couple other things had happened it would have passed.

She said she is worried that Marty's new layers are vicious and it makes her worried.

She said if the building gets demolished we only get what the city says which won't be much.

I asked about if Marty just sells, and the new owners have to buy us out? I'm not really sure how she answered that.

She went into a lengthy explanation about the joys of home ownership. That the the buy out should only be large enough to put a down payment on a house. I explained I wanted to stay in Greenpoint and I couldn't do that in GP.

I explained I was happy at my apartment so why would I sell to move somewhere smaller in a neighborhood I don't want to live when I can just stay here. She started pushing Hudson Valley and giving lots of examples of how her other clients use there buy out

to buy property other places.

I told her I would be fine with the PAA as is. I would like to change it. Everyone agreed to have it my way at the NS at the Loft Board and then it just didn't end up in the plans. But I could take it as it is.

She said she mostly started pushing the buyouts because she doesn't know how else to get the PAAs through and David and Phil came to her asking her to negotiate a buyout so she thought it would be best for everyone especially because of Marty's new lawyers.

She asked why we didn't fill out the right paper work in the 45 days. I said Petrucci and Arthur were supposed to. She said P told her he wasn't hired to do that.

She talked at length about how much she likes Petrucci.

She said that just because something didn't go the way we want doesn't mean someone did something wrong.

She said Christain should only be asking for 1M. She said he would need all kind of proof about how he lost recordings and stuff like that for more.

She said Erez was in the best position - He is happy with his PAA, he has been there with no issue proving it and Marty wouldn't make him try.

We talke at length about my situation - that I thought it was crazy that I would loose everythign because during 2020 I might only be able to prove I spent 5 month there instead of 6. She said it would depend on the judge. She said it was fine if I was away for work if I could prove it. She said I might have to involve my work, that was fine I told he. She said I wouldn't just have to prove it. She said I would have to show every single bank statement, every debit

card transaction. I'll admitt I don't like the sound of that. I don't want every single thing I have done, every single thing I bought, every single thing I have been paid for scrutinized by multiply people .

I said I didn't understand why I was a target. She said she has no reason but what other people have said about me. I said I will scream if I hear that again. She said she knows I've been away, so I have been away,

and if Marty's lawyers ask me for a discovery I would have to prove it by showing every single thing I bought with my debit card. I said if we don't have a reason to think that Marty will do that then we should just move forward like everything is fine since

it is. She said if I ask for a big buyout it could give him reason to target me. I'll admit she made me nervous. I can't handle a big court case I can't handle showing everything I've purchased to a judge. I'll have to look into that and see if she's right about that. She said it happened to another client, and the court saw everythign she bought and it was really embarrassing.

She said Christain should ask for 1M, Erez $750, and me David, and Phil should split 1M. Sorry gang but I'm not walking away with $330. It would have to be my only option. My apartment is huge. I'm on the corner.

Marty can't build anythign next to it either. I can sign off on the PAAs as is if need be. And I can live happily in my apartment in GP for many years. I can't handle a discovery from Marty - that's the only thing against me. I have to do some research.

She talked about other people in the building that aren't part of our FTA but I can't remember what she said.

She said yes we should ask higher but not too much higher or everthing could get screwed.

Anyway - let's talk soon.

Yes, let's get a debit card issued for the TA bank account and have it on file at Margaret's office. That's the arrangement I have with them for my personal account. They ask for permission to bill the card or I just give them permission when I get a bill and it's done.

We should definitely make a list of questions and have a meeting as a group before our meeting with Margaret. Margaret tends not to answer questions directly a lot of the time. We should be explicit that she need to answer the questions directly before

we move on the the next question and wrap the meeting only when all of our questions are answered. It will be good to do it as a group so there is accountability. Margaret flip flops a lot. She wrote in an email that the harassment case is weak and not to

I, to my knowledge, never agreed to, nor signed anything defining what Margaret's cut of the buyout would be. I never hired her to negotiate any buyouts, nor was this agreed to when we discussed her taking over Petrucci's position. We need to review the contract. Has anyone else signed or discussed this with Margaret? She tried to say the Golden Drum would have to pay her a percentage of their buyout after they fired her and went with a different lawyer. We should all be on the same page about this. We need to review the contract that we signed as a group.

Thanks.

Peace,

Christian

Also, we should figure out a time to meet this weekend as a group before then to put together a master list of questions for Margeret so we're not wasting time (money).

Remember that Margaret can subpoena the Narrative Conference record that clearly has all parties agreeing to the PAA and also agreeing to put it in writing. I was sitting there and witnessed the whole thing.

I think if we got that evidence it would obviously make our case for the PAA but could also strengthen our position for negotiating higher buyouts.

As I said before, I'd like to get the PAA signed off on and rebuild my place and move back in but if the buyout were high enough, I'd consider leaving.

Thank you for spelling all this out, all good things to consider!

Sounds like we should schedule a group call with Margaret. In our last call we had talked about delegating one of us to do the talking while the rest of us listen in and chime in if there's something worth clarifying. Happy to be that person, but if someone feels strongly about it, happy to let them take the lead.

I'm going to reach out to Margaret to get some times that work for her and then we can all pick one that works best for us.

Also, who is responsible for paying Margaret for our group cost (700$)? Do we need to put more money into that pot? Please let us know what you need from us to get our balance paid.

Is there a good time we could meet in the near future before talking to Margaret so we can collect our thoughts / streamline our questions for when we do all have a call with her?

I'm available pretty much anytime over the next few days. Would be great to have this initial meeting by end of this weekend so we can get on a call w her first thing next week.

Greetings TA,

The main obstacle in the way of Marty filing for a demo permit and demolishing the building is the fact that we have loft law and he needs to bring the whole building up to code and signed off on by DOB before he can file for a demo permit. It makes sense

that Marty would want to demo the building. There are major structural issues that need to be dealt with on top of bringing the rest of the building up to code. It would be cheaper and much quicker to buy us out, not renew the 1-year long leases that the rest of the tenants who aren't covered by loft law, and clear the building. He could develop it himself or sell to a developer for a much higher price, if the building was empty. The Colbs said they wouldn't leave for less than a $1M buyout.

The harassment suit is dire for Marty if he has any intention of developing the building himself, as he cannot buy us out. It would also take the value of the building down if he were to sell to a developer.

Its my opinion that Marty intends to demolish the building. The mysterious flyer claims that that's what his plan is too. We should use this to get very high buyouts. Has anyone reached out to the email address on the flyer?

I don't particularly want to move out. I would like to get the PAA signed off on. That was the whole point of the harassment suite to begin with. That being said, if the buyout was high I would seriously consider it.

Marty doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us out so he can move along with his plan. Nothing can stop him, to my knowledge, once all of the Loft-law covered tenants are out. This position and the fact that his potential plans get derailed

if he gets hit with a harassment conviction, puts us in a very strong position. Marty's is playing chicken with the harassment suite, but he also doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us leave. It's seems to me that this would be an ideal situation

to get a very high buyout. Otherwise he's stuck with us, potentially not paying rent, unable to buy us out, with severe consequences if he gets hit with another harassment suite and loses.

Did anyone talk with Margaret?

Did anyone give numbers?

Here's info from two real-estate professionals:

Our price per square foot can range from $1,300 to $1,600.

My unit is @ 1,700 sq.ft

@ $1,300 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.21M

@ $1,400 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.38M

@ $1,500 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.55M

@ $1,600 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.72M

That's market rate right now in our area.

Even if Marty bought us out for 1M a piece he'd be making out, especially considering that if the harassment suite goes through, which Margaret said that it will, especially with my case, his position is seriously compromised. Marty will spend exponentially

more just bringing the building up to code, not to mention the amount of time that the whole process would take...many years, it will take years to get the demo permit and evict us after getting the DOB to sign off on the legalization. As many have already said,

Marty has no intention once legalizing the building, but I think that he would like to demo it asap.

Also Margaret needs to subpoena the Narrative Conference record where everyone agreed to the PAA. We should figure out a time when we can all meet with her so we can all get on the same page.

Please update the group with where you're at with your number, what communication you've had with Margaret, and how you think we should move forward.

Thanks,

Christian

Is there another way Marty can demo the building that we don't know about? One where we wouldn't get as much for our rights?

Is the DOB fining Marty for putting the steel polls up on Green St?

Is Marty's daughter taking over APC?

Point - Marty can't get hit with harassment.

Point - Kate, Erez, Christain would be fine with keeping the PAAs as is just not preferable.

Find out about subletting for Loft Board tenants.

We don't have to pay rent, but that's asking for trouble.

What would out number be as a group if we took the buyout? Can we all have a different number? Erez $750, Kate $750 (maybe a little lower), David $100 ?, Phil / Theo ?, Christain ?

Anyone else besides the Kolb's and Aaron (Margret told me Aaron will get covered)

What right do we have if city says building has to come down?

We need to start looking into other representation? Kozack?

Will getting PAAs give us leverage and increase value?

Does there need to be a certain number of units for units to remain under loft law protection?

I don't disagree with you but in my case she has pointed out some problems that are valid and could end up screwing me if I continue with the same attitude I had a few months ago. I agree with her that I should negotiate a buyout if possible.

Hey everyone,

I had a long talk with Margret, here is the gist and important points. We can talk about everything in more detail when we get together. I mostly passing on what she said as best I can.

It's in Margret's retainer that she gets 10% if she negotiates a buy out.

I really pressed her about why she is pushing us to sell.

She said she has done everything she can do to get the PAAs passed and she doesn't know what else to do. She said if Lisa was still alive it would have passed, if a couple other things had happened it would have passed.

She said she is worried that Marty's new lawyers are vicious and it makes her worried.

She said if the building gets demolished we only get what the city says which won't be much.

I asked about if Marty just sells, and the new owners have to buy us out? I'm not really sure how she answered that.

She went into a lengthy explanation about the joys of home ownership. That the the buy out should only be large enough to put a down payment on a house. I explained I wanted to stay in Greenpoint and I couldn't do that in GP.

I explained I was happy at my apartment so why would I sell to move somewhere smaller in a neighborhood I don't want to live when I can just stay here. She started pushing Hudson Valley and giving lots of examples of how her other clients use there buy out to buy property other places.

I told her I would be fine with the PAA as is. I would like to change it. Everyone agreed to have it my way at the NS at the Loft Board and then it just didn't end up in the plans. But I could take it as it is.

She said she mostly started pushing the buyouts because she doesn't know how else to get the PAAs through and David and Phil came to her asking her to negotiate a buyout so she thought it would be best for everyone especially because of Marty's new lawyers.

She asked why we didn't fill out the right paper work in the 45 days. I said Petrucci and Arthur were supposed to. She said P told her he wasn't hired to do that.

She talked at length about how much she likes Petrucci.

She said that just because something didn't go the way we want doesn't mean someone did something wrong.

She said Christain should only be asking for 1M. She said he would need all kind of proof about how he lost recordings and stuff like that for more.

She said Erez was in the best position - He is happy with his PAA, he has been there with no issue proving it and Marty wouldn't make him try.

We talke at length about my situation - that I thought it was crazy that I would loose everythign because during 2020 I might only be able to prove I spent 5 month there instead of 6. She said it would depend on the judge. She said it was fine if I was away for work if I could prove it. She said I might have to involve my work, that was fine I told he. She said I wouldn't just have to prove it. She said I would have to show every single bank statement, every debit

card transaction. I'll admitt I don't like the sound of that. I don't want every single thing I have done, every single thing I bought, every single thing I have been paid for scrutinized by multiply people .

I said I didn't understand why I was a target. She said she has no reason but what other people have said about me. I said I will scream if I hear that again. She said she knows I've been away, so I have been away,

Marty will do that then we should just move forward like everything is fine since it is. She said if I ask for a big buyout it could give him reason to target me. I'll admit she made me nervous. I can't handle a big court case I can't handle showing everything I've purchased to a judge. I'll have to look into that and see if she's right about that. She said it happened to another client, and the court saw everything she bought and it was really embarrassing.

She said Christain should ask for 1M, Erez $750, and me David, and Phil should split 1M. Sorry gang but I'm not walking away with $330. It would have to be my only option. My apartment is huge. I'm on the corner.

Marty can't build anything next to it either. I can sign off on the PAAs as is if need be. And I can live happily in my apartment in GP for many years. I can't handle a discovery from Marty - that's the only thing against me. I have to do some research.

She talked about other people in the building that aren't part of our FTA but I can't remember what she said.

She said yes we should ask higher but not too much higher or everything could get screwed.

Anyway - let's talk soon.

Yes, let's get a debit card issued for the TA bank account and have it on file at Margaret's office. That's the arrangement I have with them for my personal account. They ask for permission to bill the card or I just give them permission when I get a bill and it's done.

We should definitely make a list of questions and have a meeting as a group before our meeting with Margaret. Margaret tends not to answer questions directly a lot of the time. We should be explicit that she need to answer the questions directly before

we move on the the next question and wrap the meeting only when all of our questions are answered. It will be good to do it as a group so there is accountability. Margaret flip flops a lot. She wrote in an email that the harassment case is weak and not to

ask her to represent us in it. She explicitly told me that I especially have a strong case that would most likely win in court, now she is changing her tune, because in my opinion, she wants to cash out on the buyouts.

I, to my knowledge, never agreed to, nor signed anything defining what Margaret's cut of the buyout would be. I never hired her to negotiate any buyouts, nor was this agreed to when we discussed her taking over Petrucci's position. We need to review the

to review the contract that we signed as a group.

Thanks.

Peace,

Christian

Also, we should figure out a time to meet this weekend as a group before then to put together a master list of questions for Margeret so we're not wasting time (money).

I think if we got that evidence it would obviously make our case for the PAA but could also strengthen our position for negotiating higher buyouts.

As I said before, I'd like to get the PAA signed off on and rebuild my place and move back in but if the buyout were high enough, I'd consider leaving.

Thank you for spelling all this out, all good things to consider!

Sounds like we should schedule a group call with Margaret. In our last call we had talked about delegating one of us to do the talking while the rest of us listen in and chime in if there's something worth clarifying. Happy to be that person,

but if someone feels strongly about it, happy to let them take the lead.

I'm going to reach out to Margaret to get some times that work for her and then we can all pick one that works best for us.

Also, who is responsible for paying Margaret for our group cost (700$)? Do we need to put more money into that pot? Please let us know what you need from us to get our balance paid.

Is there a good time we could meet in the near future before talking to Margaret so we can collect our thoughts / streamline our questions for when we do all have a call with her?

I'm available pretty much anytime over the next few days. Would be great to have this initial meeting by end of this weekend so we can get on a call w her first thing next week.

Greetings TA,

The main obstacle in the way of Marty filing for a demo permit and demolishing the building is the fact that we have loft law and he needs to bring the whole building up to code and signed off on by DOB before he can file for a demo permit. It makes sense

that Marty would want to demo the building. There are major structural issues that need to be dealt with on top of bringing the rest of the building up to code. It would be cheaper and much quicker to buy us out, not renew the 1-year long leases that the rest of the tenants who aren't covered by loft law, and clear the building. He could develop it himself or sell to a developer for a much higher price, if the building was empty. The Colbs said they wouldn't leave for less than a $1M buyout.

The harassment suit is dire for Marty if he has any intention of developing the building himself, as he cannot buy us out. It would also take the value of the building down if he were to sell to a developer.

Its my opinion that Marty intends to demolish the building. The mysterious flyer claims that that's what his plan is too. We should use this to get very high buyouts. Has anyone reached out to the email address on the flyer?

I don't particularly want to move out. I would like to get the PAA signed off on. That was the whole point of the harassment suite to begin with. That being said, if the buyout was high I would seriously consider it.

Marty doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us out so he can move along with his plan. Nothing can stop him, to my knowledge, once all of the Loft-law covered tenants are out. This position and the fact that his potential plans get derailed

if he gets hit with a harassment conviction, puts us in a very strong position. Marty's is playing chicken with the harassment suite, but he also doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us leave. It's seems to me that this would be an ideal situation

to get a very high buyout. Otherwise he's stuck with us, potentially not paying rent, unable to buy us out, with severe consequences if he gets hit with another harassment suite and loses.

Did anyone talk with Margaret?

Did anyone give numbers?

Here's info from two real-estate professionals:

Our price per square foot can range from $1,300 to $1,600.

My unit is @ 1,700 sq.ft

@ $1,300 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.21M

@ $1,400 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.38M

@ $1,500 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.55M

@ $1,600 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.72M

That's market rate right now in our area.

Even if Marty bought us out for 1M a piece he'd be making out, especially considering that if the harassment suite goes through, which Margaret said that it will, especially with my case, his position is seriously compromised. Marty will spend exponentially

more just bringing the building up to code, not to mention the amount of time that the whole process would take...many years, it will take years to get the demo permit and evict us after getting the DOB to sign off on the legalization. As many have already said,

Marty has no intention once legalizing the building, but I think that he would like to demo it asap.

Also Margaret needs to subpoena the Narrative Conference record where everyone agreed to the PAA. We should figure out a time when we can all meet with her so we can all get on the same page.

Please update the group with where you're at with your number, what communication you've had with Margaret, and how you think we should move forward.

Thanks,

Christian

Discussed subpoenaing Loft Board meeting where everyone agreed on the PAAs. Can only do that through some kind of case.

Is there another way Marty can demo the building that we don't know about? One where we wouldn't get as much for our rights?

Is the DOB fining Marty for putting the steel polls up on Green St?

Is Marty's daughter taking over APC?

Point - Marty can't get hit with harassment.

Point - Kate, Erez, Christain would be fine with keeping the PAAs as is just not preferable.

Find out about subletting for Loft Board tenants.

We don't have to pay rent, but that's asking for trouble.

Look into how discovery works. Would have have to show every single thing we spent money on and received money for?

What would our number be as a group if we took the buyout? Can we all have a different number? Erez $750, Kate $750 (maybe a little lower), David $100 ?, Phil / Theo ?, Christain ?

Anyone else besides the Kolb's and Aaron (Margret told me Aaron will get covered)

What right do we have if city says building has to come down?

We need to start looking into other representation? Kozack?

Will getting PAAs give us leverage and increase value?

Does there need to be a certain number of units for units to remain under loft law protection?

I don't disagree with you but in my case she has pointed out some problems that are valid and could end up screwing me if I continue with the same attitude I had a few months ago. I agree with her that I should negotiate a buyout if possible.

Hey everyone,

I had a long talk with Margret, here is the gist and important points. We can talk about everything in more detail when we get together. I mostly passing on what she said as best I can.

It's in Margret's retainer that she gets 10% if she negotiates a buy out.

I really pressed her about why she is pushing us to sell.

She said she has done everything she can do to get the PAAs passed and she doesn't know what else to do. She said if Lisa was still alive it would have passed, if a couple other things had happened it would have passed.

She said she is worried that Marty's new layers are vicious and it makes her worried.

She said if the building gets demolished we only get what the city says which won't be much.

I asked about if Marty just sells, and the new owners have to buy us out? I'm not really sure how she answered that.

She went into a lengthy explanation about the joys of home ownership. That the the buy out should only be large enough to put a down payment on a house. I explained I wanted to stay in Greenpoint and I couldn't do that in GP.

I explained I was happy at my apartment so why would I sell to move somewhere smaller in a neighborhood I don't want to live when I can just stay here. She started pushing Hudson Valley and giving lots of examples of how her other clients use there buy out

to buy property other places.

I told her I would be fine with the PAA as is. I would like to change it. Everyone agreed to have it my way at the NS at the Loft Board and then it just didn't end up in the plans. But I could take it as it is.

She said she mostly started pushing the buyouts because she doesn't know how else to get the PAAs through and David and Phil came to her asking her to negotiate a buyout so she thought it would be best for everyone especially

because of Marty's new lawyers.

She asked why we didn't fill out the right paper work in the 45 days. I said Petrucci and Arthur were supposed to. She said P told her he wasn't hired to do that.

She talked at length about how much she likes Petrucci.

She said that just because something didn't go the way we want doesn't mean someone did something wrong.

She said Christain should only be asking for 1M. She said he would need all kind of proof about how he lost recordings and stuff like that for more.

She said Erez was in the best position - He is happy with his PAA, he has been there with no issue proving it and Marty wouldn't make him try.

We talke at length about my situation - that I thought it was crazy that I would loose everythign because during 2020 I might only be able to prove I spent 5 month there instead of 6. She said it would depend on the judge. She said it was fine if I was away for work if I could prove it. She said I might have to involve my work, that was fine I told he. She said I wouldn't just have to prove it. She said I would have to show every single bank statement, every debit

card transaction. I'll admitt I don't like the sound of that. I don't want every single thing I have done, every single thing I bought, every single thing I have been paid for scrutinized by multiply people .

I said I didn't understand why Iwas a target. She said she has no reason but what other people have said about me. I said I will scream if I hear that again. She said she knows I've been away, so I have been away,

and if Marty's lawyers ask me for a discovery I would have to prove it by showing every single thing I bought with my debit card. I said if we don't have a reason to think that Marty will do that then we should just move forward like everything is fine since

it is. She said if I ask for a big buyout it could give him reason to target me. I'll admit she made me nervous. I can't handle a big court case I can't handle showing everything I've purchased to a judge. I'll have to look into that and see if she's right about that. She said it happened to another client, and the court saw everythign she bought and it was really embarrassing.

She said Christain should ask for 1M, Erez $750, and me David, and Phil should split 1M. Sorry gang but I'm not walking away with $330. It would have to be my only option. My apartment is huge. I'm on the corner.

Marty can't build anythign next to it either. I can sign off on the PAAs as is if need be. And I can live happily in my apartment in GP for many years. I can't handle a discovery from Marty - that's the only thing against me. I have to do some research.

She talked about other people in the building that aren't part of our FTA but I can't remember what she said.

She said yes we should ask higher but not too much higher or everthing could get screwed.

Anyway - let's talk soon.

Yes, let's get a debit card issued for the TA bank account and have it on file at Margaret's office. That's the arrangement I have with them for my personal account. They ask for permission to bill the card or I just give them permission when I get a bill and it's done.

We should definitely make a list of questions and have a meeting as a group before our meeting with Margaret. Margaret tends not to answer questions directly a lot of the time. We should be explicit that she need to answer the questions directly before

we move on the the next question and wrap the meeting only when all of our questions are answered. It will be good to do it as a group so there is accountability. Margaret flip flops a lot. She wrote in an email that the harassment case is weak and not to

I, to my knowledge, never agreed to, nor signed anything defining what Margaret's cut of the buyout would be. I never hired her to negotiate any buyouts, nor was this agreed to when we discussed her taking over Petrucci's position. We need to review the contract. Has anyone else signed or discussed this with Margaret? She tried to say the Golden Drum would have to pay her a percentage of their buyout after they fired her and went with a different lawyer. We should all be on the same page about this. We need to review the contract that we signed as a group.

Thanks.

Peace,

Christian

Also, we should figure out a time to meet this weekend as a group before then to put together a master list of questions for Margeret so we're not wasting time (money).

I think if we got that evidence it would obviously make our case for the PAA but could also strengthen our position for negotiating higher buyouts.

As I said before, I'd like to get the PAA signed off on and rebuild my place and move back in but if the buyout were high enough, I'd consider leaving.

Thank you for spelling all this out, all good things to consider!

Sounds like we should schedule a group call with Margaret. In our last call we had talked about delegating one of us to do the talking while the rest of us listen in and chime in if there's something worth clarifying. Happy to be that person,

but if someone feels strongly about it, happy to let them take the lead.

I'm going to reach out to Margaret to get some times that work for her and then we can all pick one that works best for us.

Also, who is responsible for paying Margaret for our group cost (700$)? Do we need to put more money into that pot? Please let us know what you need from us to get our balance paid.

Is there a good time we could meet in the near future before talking to Margaret so we can collect our thoughts / streamline our questions for when we do all have a call with her?

I'm available pretty much anytime over the next few days. Would be great to have this initial meeting by end of this weekend so we can get on a call w her first thing next week.

Greetings TA,

The main obstacle in the way of Marty filing for a demo permit and demolishing the building is the fact that we have loft law and he needs to bring the whole building up to code and signed off on by DOB before he can file for a demo permit. It makes sense

that Marty would want to demo the building. There are major structural issues that need to be dealt with on top of bringing the rest of the building up to code. It would be cheaper and much quicker to buy us out, not renew the 1-year long leases that the rest of the tenants who aren't covered by loft law, and clear the building. He could develop it himself or sell to a developer for a much higher price, if the building was empty. The Colbs said they wouldn't leave for less than a $1M buyout.

The harassment suit is dire for Marty if he has any intention of developing the building himself, as he cannot buy us out. It would also take the value of the building down if he were to sell to a developer.

Its my opinion that Marty intends to demolish the building. The mysterious flyer claims that that's what his plan is too. We should use this to get very high buyouts. Has anyone reached out to the email address on the flyer?

I don't particularly want to move out. I would like to get the PAA signed off on. That was the whole point of the harassment suite to begin with. That being said, if the buyout was high I would seriously consider it.

Marty doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us out so he can move along with his plan. Nothing can stop him, to my knowledge, once all of the Loft-law covered tenants are out. This position and the fact that his potential plans get derailed

if he gets hit with a harassment conviction, puts us in a very strong position. Marty's is playing chicken with the harassment suite, but he also doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us leave. It's seems to me that this would be an ideal situation

to get a very high buyout. Otherwise he's stuck with us, potentially not paying rent, unable to buy us out, with severe consequences if he gets hit with another harassment suite and loses.

Did anyone talk with Margaret?

Did anyone give numbers?

Here's info from two real-estate professionals:

Our price per square foot can range from $1,300 to $1,600.

My unit is @ 1,700 sq.ft

@ $1,300 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.21M

@ $1,400 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.38M

@ $1,500 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.55M

@ $1,600 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.72M

That's market rate right now in our area.

Even if Marty bought us out for 1M a piece he'd be making out, especially considering that if the harassment suite goes through, which Margaret said that it will, especially with my case, his position is seriously compromised. Marty will spend exponentially

more just bringing the building up to code, not to mention the amount of time that the whole process would take...many years, it will take years to get the demo permit and evict us after getting the DOB to sign off on the legalization. As many have already said,

Marty has no intention once legalizing the building, but I think that he would like to demo it asap.

Also Margaret needs to subpoena the Narrative Conference record where everyone agreed to the PAA. We should figure out a time when we can all meet with her so we can all get on the same page.

Please update the group with where you're at with your number, what communication you've had with Margaret, and how you think we should move forward.

Thanks,

Christian

Is there another way Marty can demo the building that we don't know about? One where we wouldn't get as much for our rights?

Is the DOB fining Marty for putting the steel polls up on Green St?

Is Marty's daughter taking over APC?

Point - Marty can't get hit with harassment.

Point - Kate, Erez, Christain would be fine with keeping the PAAs as is just not preferable.

Find out about subletting for Loft Board tenants.

We don't have to pay rent, but that's asking for trouble.

What would out number be as a group if we took the buyout? Can we all have a different number? Erez $750, Kate $750 (maybe a little lower), David $100 ?, Phil / Theo ?, Christain ?

Anyone else besides the Kolb's and Aaron (Margret told me Aaron will get covered)

What right do we have if city says building has to come down?

We need to start looking into other representation? Kozack?

Will getting PAAs give us leverage and increase value?

Does there need to be a certain number of units for units to remain under loft law protection?

I don't disagree with you but in my case she has pointed out some problems that are valid and could end up screwing me if I continue with the same attitude I had a few months ago. I agree with her that I should negotiate a buyout if possible.

Hey everyone,

I had a long talk with Margret, here is the gist and important points. We can talk about everything in more detail when we get together. I mostly passing on what she said as best I can.

It's in Margret's retainer that she gets 10% if she negotiates a buy out.

I really pressed her about why she is pushing us to sell.

She said she has done everything she can do to get the PAAs passed and she doesn't know what else to do. She said if Lisa was still alive it would have passed, if a couple other things had happened it would have passed.

She said she is worried that Marty's new layers are vicious and it makes her worried.

She said if the building gets demolished we only get what the city says which won't be much.

She went into a lengthy explanation about the joys of home ownership. That the the buy out should only be large enough to put a down payment on a house. I explained I wanted to stay in Greenpoint and I couldn't do that in GP.

I explained I was happy at my apartment so why would I sell to move somewhere smaller in a neighborhood I don't want to live when I can just stay here. She started pushing Hudson Valley and giving lots of examples of how her other clients use there buy out

to buy property other places.

I told her I would be fine with the PAA as is. I would like to change it. Everyone agreed to have it my way at the NS at the Loft Board and then it just didn't end up in the plans. But I could take it as it is.

She said she mostly started pushing the buyouts because she doesn't know how else to get the PAAs through and David and Phil came to her asking her to negotiate a buyout so she thought it would be best for everyone especially

because of Marty's new lawyers.

She asked why we didn't fill out the right paper work in the 45 days. I said Petrucci and Arthur were supposed to. She said P told her he wasn't hired to do that.

She talked at length about how much she likes Petrucci.

She said that just because something didn't go the way we want doesn't mean someone did something wrong.

She said Christain should only be asking for 1M. She said he would need all kind of proof about how he lost recordings and stuff like that for more.

She said Erez was in the best position - He is happy with his PAA, he has been there with no issue proving it and Marty wouldn't make him try.

We talke at length about my situation - that I thought it was crazy that I would loose everythign because during 2020 I might only be able to prove I spent 5 month there instead of 6. She said it would depend on the judge. She said it was fine if I was away for work if I could prove it. She said I might have to involve my work, that was fine I told he. She said I wouldn't just have to prove it. She said I would have to show every single bank statement, every debit

I said I didn't understand why Iwas a target. She said she has no reason but what other people have said about me. I said I will scream if I hear that again. She said she knows I've been away, so I have been away,

and if Marty's lawyers ask me for a discovery I would have to prove it by showing every single thing I bought with my debit card. I said if we don't have a reason to think that Marty will do that then we should just move forward like everything is fine since

it is. She said if I ask for a big buyout it could give him reason to target me. I'll admit she made me nervous. I can't handle a big court case I can't handle showing everything I've purchased to a judge. I'll have to look into that and see if she's right about that. She said it happened to another client, and the court saw everythign she bought and it was really embarrassing.

She said Christain should ask for 1M, Erez $750, and me David, and Phil should split 1M. Sorry gang but I'm not walking away with $330. It would have to be my only option. My apartment is huge. I'm on the corner.

Marty can't build anythign next to it either. I can sign off on the PAAs as is if need be. And I can live happily in my apartment in GP for many years. I can't handle a discovery from Marty - that's the only thing against me. I have to do some research.

She talked about other people in the building that aren't part of our FTA but I can't remember what she said.

She said yes we should ask higher but not too much higher or everthing could get screwed.

Anyway - let's talk soon.

Yes, let's get a debit card issued for the TA bank account and have it on file at Margaret's office. That's the arrangement I have with them for my personal account. They ask for permission to bill the card or I just give them permission when I get a bill and it's done.

We should definitely make a list of questions and have a meeting as a group before our meeting with Margaret. Margaret tends not to answer questions directly a lot of the time. We should be explicit that she need to answer the questions directly before

we move on the the next question and wrap the meeting only when all of our questions are answered. It will be good to do it as a group so there is accountability. Margaret flip flops a lot. She wrote in an email that the harassment case is weak and not to

I, to my knowledge, never agreed to, nor signed anything defining what Margaret's cut of the buyout would be. I never hired her to negotiate any buyouts, nor was this agreed to when we discussed her taking over Petrucci's position. We need to review the

to review the contract that we signed as a group.

Thanks.

Peace,

Christian

Margaret is available to meet on Monday anytime before 1pm. Can we all make something in that window work?

Also, we should figure out a time to meet this weekend as a group before then to put together a master list of questions for Margeret so we're not wasting time (money).

Remember that Margaret can subpoena the Narrative Conference record that clearly has all parties agreeing to the PAA and also agreeing to put it in writing. I was sitting there and witnessed the whole thing.

I think if we got that evidence it would obviously make our case for the PAA but could also strengthen our position for negotiating higher buyouts.

As I said before, I'd like to get the PAA signed off on and rebuild my place and move back in but if the buyout were high enough, I'd consider leaving.

Thank you for spelling all this out, all good things to consider!

Sounds like we should schedule a group call with Margaret. In our last call we had talked about delegating one of us to do the talking while the rest of us listen in and chime in if there's something worth clarifying. Happy to be that person,

but if someone feels strongly about it, happy to let them take the lead.

I'm going to reach out to Margaret to get some times that work for her and then we can all pick one that works best for us.

Also, who is responsible for paying Margaret for our group cost (700$)? Do we need to put more money into that pot? Please let us know what you need from us to get our balance paid.

Is there a good time we could meet in the near future before talking to Margaret so we can collect our thoughts / streamline our questions for when we do all have a call with her?

I'm available pretty much anytime over the next few days. Would be great to have this initial meeting by end of this weekend so we can get on a call w her first thing next week.

Greetings TA,

The main obstacle in the way of Marty filing for a demo permit and demolishing the building is the fact that we have loft law and he needs to bring the whole building up to code and signed off on by DOB before he can file for a demo permit. It makes sense

that Marty would want to demo the building. There are major structural issues that need to be dealt with on top of bringing the rest of the building up to code. It would be cheaper and much quicker to buy us out, not renew the 1-year long leases that the rest of the tenants who aren't covered by loft law, and clear the building. He could develop it himself or sell to a developer for a much higher price, if the building was empty. The Colbs said they wouldn't leave for less than a $1M buyout.

The harassment suit is dire for Marty if he has any intention of developing the building himself, as he cannot buy us out. It would also take the value of the building down if he were to sell to a developer.

Its my opinion that Marty intends to demolish the building. The mysterious flyer claims that that's what his plan is too. We should use this to get very high buyouts. Has anyone reached out to the email address on the flyer?

I don't particularly want to move out. I would like to get the PAA signed off on. That was the whole point of the harassment suite to begin with. That being said, if the buyout was high I would seriously consider it.

Marty doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us out so he can move along with his plan. Nothing can stop him, to my knowledge, once all of the Loft-law covered tenants are out. This position and the fact that his potential plans get derailed

if he gets hit with a harassment conviction, puts us in a very strong position. Marty's is playing chicken with the harassment suite, but he also doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us leave. It's seems to me that this would be an ideal situation

to get a very high buyout. Otherwise he's stuck with us, potentially not paying rent, unable to buy us out, with severe consequences if he gets hit with another harassment suite and loses.

Did anyone talk with Margaret?

Did anyone give numbers?

Here's info from two real-estate professionals:

Our price per square foot can range from $1,300 to $1,600.

My unit is @ 1,700 sq.ft

@ $1,300 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.21M

@ $1,400 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.38M

@ $1,500 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.55M

@ $1,600 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.72M

That's market rate right now in our area.

Even if Marty bought us out for 1M a piece he'd be making out, especially considering that if the harassment suite goes through, which Margaret said that it will, especially with my case, his position is seriously compromised. Marty will spend exponentially

more just bringing the building up to code, not to mention the amount of time that the whole process would take...many years, it will take years to get the demo permit and evict us after getting the DOB to sign off on the legalization. As many have already said,

Marty has no intention once legalizing the building, but I think that he would like to demo it asap.

Also Margaret needs to subpoena the Narrative Conference record where everyone agreed to the PAA. We should figure out a time when we can all meet with her so we can all get on the same page.

Please update the group with where you're at with your number, what communication you've had with Margaret, and how you think we should move forward.

Thanks,

Christian

Discussed subpoenaing Loft Board meeting where everyone agreed on the PAAs. Can only do that through some kind of case.

Is there another way Marty can demo the building that we don't know about? One where we wouldn't get as much for our rights?

Is the DOB fining Marty for putting the steel polls up on Green St?

Is Marty's daughter taking over APC?

Point - Marty can't get hit with harassment.

Point - Kate, Erez, Christain would be fine with keeping the PAAs as is just not preferable.

Find out about subletting for Loft Board tenants.

We don't have to pay rent, but that's asking for trouble.

What would out number be as a group if we took the buyout? Can we all have a different number? Erez $750, Kate $750)maybe a little lower), David $100 ?, Phil / Theo ?, Christain ?

Anyone else besides the Kolb's and Aaron (Margret told me Aaron will get covered)

What right do we have if city says building has to come down?

We need to start looking into other representation? Kozack?

Will getting PAAs give us leverage and increase value?

Does there need to be a certain number of units for units to remain under loft law protection?

I could be available this evening 10pm EST . Not sure if that's too late for everyone.

I could probably make myself available before we leave tomorrow at 6am my time 8am EST.

Otherwise The 20th from (3:30 - 4:30) 6:30-7:30 EST I'll be arriving in Moab, I think I could be available.

Thanks for working with me on the times.

I was pretty careful speaking with her to keep conversation about me and not others, certainly not with specifics. I recall saying "you'll need to speak to them" when she volunteered info or asked about anybody else.

I don't disagree with you but in my case she has pointed out some problems that are valid and could end up screwing me if I continue with the same attitude I had a few months ago. I agree with her that I should negotiate a buyout if possible.

Also, if we get the NC record, it has Bob Petrucci asking for the PAA agreement in writing.

He's telling Margaret that he wasn't hired for that reason. That was the only reason that we had him there, for situations like that, and to get the agreements in a binding contract. We can ask him for our $ back. He'll probably just give it to us. Maybe.

We could also sue Bob for all the $ that we've spent trying to get the PAA enforced. Margaret already said that she wouldn't represent us in a suit against Bob because they are friends, but that we would have grounds to sue him.

Getting the record will also hold Michael Bobbick accountable as well.

Thanks for the information. Not that it matters at this point but I definitely didn't "come to her for a buyout." I received the same emails as the rest of you and when I asked her to clarify a few things she basically told me I had jeopardized

my loft and continues to tell me how vulnerable my situation is every time we speak. Im ok pursuing a buyout and moving on from the building but she really didn't advise me about any other way forward.

On Sun, Jul 17, 2022 at 11:45 PM Kathryn Downie <downiekathryn@hotmail.com> wrote:

Hey everyone,

I had a long talk with Margret, here is the gist and important points. We can talk about everything in more detail when we get together. I mostly passing on what she said as best I can.

It's in Margret's retainer that she gets 10% if she negotiates a buy out.

I really pressed her about why she is pushing us to sell.

She said she has done everything she can do to get the PAAs passed and she doesn't know what else to do. She said if Lisa was still alive it would have passed, if a couple other things had happened it would have passed.

She said she is worried that Marty's new layers are vicious and it makes her worried.

She said if the building gets demolished we only get what the city says which won't be much.

She went into a lengthy explanation about the joys of home ownership. That the the buy out should only be large enough to put a down payment on a house. I explained I wanted to stay in Greenpoint and I couldn't do that in GP.

I explained I was happy at my apartment so why would I sell to move somewhere smaller in a neighborhood I don't want to live when I can just stay here. She started pushing Hudson Valley and giving lots of examples of how her other clients use there buy out

to buy property other places.

I told her I would be fine with the PAA as is. I would like to change it. Everyone agreed to have it my way at the NS at the Loft Board and then it just didn't end up in the plans. But I could take it as it is.

She said she mostly started pushing the buyouts because she doesn't know how else to get the PAAs through and David and Phil came to her asking her to negotiate a buyout so she thought it would be best for everyone especially

because of Marty's new lawyers.

She asked why we didn't fill out the right paper work in the 45 days. I said Petrucci and Arthur were supposed to. She said P told her he wasn't hired to do that.

She talked at length about how much she likes Petrucci.

She said that just because something didn't go the way we want doesn't mean someone did something wrong.

She said Christain should only be asking for 1M. She said he would need all kind of proof about how he lost recordings and stuff like that for more.

She said Erez was in the best position - He is happy with his PAA, he has been there with no issue proving it and Marty wouldn't make him try.

We talke at length about my situation - that I thought it was crazy that I would loose everythign because during 2020 I might only be able to prove I spent 5 month there instead of 6. She said it would depend on the judge. She said it was fine if I was away for work if I could prove it. She said I might have to involve my work, that was fine I told he. She said I wouldn't just have to prove it. She said I would have to show every single bank statement, every debit

scrutinized by multiply people .

I said I didn't understand why I was a target. She said she has no reason but what other people have said about me. I said I will scream if I hear that again. She said she knows I've been away, so I have been away,

and if Marty's lawyers ask me for a discovery I would have to prove it by showing every single thing I bought with my debit card. I said if we don't have a reason to think that Marty will do that then we should just move forward like everything is fine since

it is. She said if I ask for a big buyout it could give him reason to target me. I'll admit she made me nervous. I can't handle a big court case I can't handle showing everything I've purchased to a judge. I'll have to look into that and see if she's right about that. She said it happened to another client, and the court saw everything she bought and it was really embarrassing.

She said Christain should ask for 1M, Erez $750, and me David, and Phil should split 1M. Sorry gang but I'm not walking away with $330. It would have to be my only option. My apartment is huge. I'm on the corner.

Marty can't build anything next to it either. I can sign off on the PAAs as is if need be. And I can live happily in my apartment in GP for many years. I can't handle a discovery from Marty - that's the only thing against me. I have to do some research.

She talked about other people in the building that aren't part of our FTA but I can't remember what she said.

She said yes we should ask higher but not too much higher or everything could get screwed.

Anyway - let's talk soon.

Yes, let's get a debit card issued for the TA bank account and have it on file at Margaret's office. That's the arrangement I have with them for my personal account. They ask for permission to bill the card or I just give them permission when I get a bill and it's done.

We should definitely make a list of questions and have a meeting as a group before our meeting with Margaret. Margaret tends not to answer questions directly a lot of the time. We should be explicit that she need to answer the questions directly before

we move on the the next question and wrap the meeting only when all of our questions are answered. It will be good to do it as a group so there is accountability. Margaret flip flops a lot. She wrote in an email that the harassment case is weak and not to

ask her to represent us in it. She explicitly told me that I especially have a strong case that would most likely win in court, now she is changing her tune, because in my opinion, she wants to cash out on the buyouts.

I, to my knowledge, never agreed to, nor signed anything defining what Margaret's cut of the buyout would be. I never hired her to negotiate any buyouts, nor was this agreed to when we discussed her taking over Petrucci's position. We need to review the

to review the contract that we signed as a group.

Thanks.

Peace,

Christian

Thank you for spelling all this out, all good things to consider!

Sounds like we should schedule a group call with Margaret. In our last call we had talked about delegating one of us to do the talking while the rest of us listen in and chime in if there's something worth clarifying. Happy to be that person,

but if someone feels strongly about it, happy to let them take the lead.

I'm going to reach out to Margaret to get some times that work for her and then we can all pick one that works best for us.

Also, who is responsible for paying Margaret for our group cost (700$)? Do we need to put more money into that pot? Please let us know what you need from us to get our balance paid.

Is there a good time we could meet in the near future before talking to Margaret so we can collect our thoughts / streamline our questions for when we do all have a call with her?

I'm available pretty much anytime over the next few days. Would be great to have this initial meeting by end of this weekend so we can get on a call w her first thing next week.

Greetings TA,

The main obstacle in the way of Marty filing for a demo permit and demolishing the building is the fact that we have loft law and he needs to bring the whole building up to code and signed off on by DOB before he can file for a demo permit. It makes sense

that Marty would want to demo the building. There are major structural issues that need to be dealt with on top of bringing the rest of the building up to code. It would be cheaper and much quicker to buy us out, not renew the 1-year long leases that the rest of the tenants who aren't covered by loft law, and clear the building. He could develop it himself or sell to a developer for a much higher price, if the building was empty. The Colbs said they wouldn't leave for less than a $1M buyout.

The harassment suit is dire for Marty if he has any intention of developing the building himself, as he cannot buy us out. It would also take the value of the building down if he were to sell to a developer.

Its my opinion that Marty intends to demolish the building. The mysterious flyer claims that that's what his plan is too. We should use this to get very high buyouts. Has anyone reached out to the email address on the flyer?

I don't particularly want to move out. I would like to get the PAA signed off on. That was the whole point of the harassment suite to begin with. That being said, if the buyout was high I would seriously consider it.

Marty doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us out so he can move along with his plan. Nothing can stop him, to my knowledge, once all of the Loft-law covered tenants are out. This position and the fact that his potential plans get derailed

if he gets hit with a harassment conviction, puts us in a very strong position. Marty's is playing chicken with the harassment suite, but he also doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us leave. It's seems to me that this would be an ideal situation

to get a very high buyout. Otherwise he's stuck with us, potentially not paying rent, unable to buy us out, with severe consequences if he gets hit with another harassment suite and loses.

Did anyone talk with Margaret?

Did anyone give numbers?

Here's info from two real-estate professionals:

Our price per square foot can range from $1,300 to $1,600.

My unit is @ 1,700 sq.ft

@ $1,300 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.21M

@ $1,400 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.38M

@ $1,500 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.55M

@ $1,600 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.72M

That's market rate right now in our area.

Even if Marty bought us out for 1M a piece he'd be making out, especially considering that if the harassment suite goes through, which Margaret said that it will, especially with my case, his position is seriously compromised. Marty will spend exponentially

more just bringing the building up to code, not to mention the amount of time that the whole process would take...many years, it will take years to get the demo permit and evict us after getting the DOB to sign off on the legalization. As many have already said,

Marty has no intention once legalizing the building, but I think that he would like to demo it asap.

Also Margaret needs to subpoena the Narrative Conference record where everyone agreed to the PAA. We should figure out a time when we can all meet with her so we can all get on the same page.

Please update the group with where you're at with your number, what communication you've had with Margaret, and how you think we should move forward.

Thanks,

Christian

<https://docs.google.com/document/d/10GIIdAtyTQhwGUc3P-hImj-1TmR0k1yBU9vKL77fYgTY/edit>

if you want to add or change anything please do it using "comments" or change the color of your font and add your thoughts to this as opposed to removing anything, just so we can keep track of everything.

I'm still volunteering to be our speaking representative, at least in the beginning of the meeting, just to keep things streamlined / get all these questions answered. If anyone has an objection to that, let me know.

Of course we want to get these questions answered before we consider our buyout number, but if we are seriously considering taking this opportunity to walk away, we should all be zeroing in on what we'd like to get paid and what we'd be ok with getting paid.

Talk soon and see you all tomorrow!

Discussed subpoenaing Loft Board meeting where everyone agreed on the PAAs. Can only do that through some kind of case.

Is there another way Marty can demo the building that we don't know about? One where we wouldn't get as much for our rights?

Is the DOB fining Marty for putting the steel polls up on Green St?

Is Marty's daughter taking over APC?

Point - Marty can't get hit with harassment.

Point - Kate, Erez, Christain would be fine with keeping the PAAs as is just not preferable.

Find out about subletting for Loft Board tenants.

We don't have to pay rent, but that's asking for trouble.

Look into how discovery works. Would have to show every single thing we spent money on and received money for?

What would our number be as a group if we took the buyout? Can we all have a different number? Erez $750, Kate $750 (maybe a little lower), David $100 ?, Phil / Theo ?, Christain ?

Anyone else besides the Kolb's and Aaron (Margret told me Aaron will get covered)

What right do we have if city says building has to come down?

We need to start looking into other representation? Kozack?

Will getting PAAs give us leverage and increase value?

Does there need to be a certain number of units for units to remain under loft law protection?

I was pretty careful speaking with her to keep conversation about me and not others, certainly not with specifics. I recall saying "you'll need to speak to them" when she volunteered info or asked about anybody else.

I don't disagree with you but in my case she has pointed out some problems that are valid and could end up screwing me if I continue with the same attitude I had a few months ago. I agree with her that I should negotiate a buyout if possible.

Also, if we get the NC record, it has Bob Petrucci asking for the PAA agreement in writing.

He's telling Margaret that he wasn't hired for that reason. That was the only reason that we had him there, for situations like that, and to get the agreements in a binding contract. We can ask him for our $ back. He'll probably just give it to us. Maybe.

We could also sue Bob for all the $ that we've spent trying to get the PAA enforced. Margaret already said that she wouldn't represent us in a suit against Bob because they are friends, but that we would have grounds to sue him.

Getting the record will also hold Michael Bobbick accountable as well.

Thanks for the information. Not that it matters at this point but I definitely didn't "come to her for a buyout." I received the same emails as the rest of you and when I asked her to clarify a few things she basically told me I had jeopardized

my loft and continues to tell me how vulnerable my situation is every time we speak. Im ok pursuing a buyout and moving on from the building but she really didn't advise me about any other way forward.

On Sun, Jul 17, 2022 at 11:45 PM Kathryn Downie <downiekathryn@hotmail.com> wrote:

Hey everyone,

I had a long talk with Margret, here is the gist and important points. We can talk about everything in more detail when we get together. I mostly passing on what she said as best I can.

It's in Margret's retainer that she gets 10% if she negotiates a buy out.

I really pressed her about why she is pushing us to sell.

She said she has done everything she can do to get the PAAs passed and she doesn't know what else to do. She said if Lisa was still alive it would have passed, if a couple other things had happened it would have passed.

She said she is worried that Marty's new layers are vicious and it makes her worried.

She said if the building gets demolished we only get what the city says which won't be much.

She went into a lengthy explanation about the joys of home ownership. That the the buy out should only be large enough to put a down payment on a house. I explained I wanted to stay in Greenpoint and I couldn't do that in GP.

I explained I was happy at my apartment so why would I sell to move somewhere smaller in a neighborhood I don't want to live when I can just stay here. She started pushing Hudson Valley and giving lots of examples of how her other clients use there buy out to buy property other places.

I told her I would be fine with the PAA as is. I would like to change it. Everyone agreed to have it my way at the NS at the Loft Board and then it just didn't end up in the plans. But I could take it as it is.

She said she mostly started pushing the buyouts because she doesn't know how else to get the PAAs through and David and Phil came to her asking her to negotiate a buyout so she thought it would be best for everyone especially

because of Marty's new lawyers.

She asked why we didn't fill out the right paper work in the 45 days. I said Petrucci and Arthur were supposed to. She said P told her he wasn't hired to do that.

She talked at length about how much she likes Petrucci.

She said that just because something didn't go the way we want doesn't mean someone did something wrong.

She said Christain should only be asking for 1M. She said he would need all kind of proof about how he lost recordings and stuff like that for more.

She said Erez was in the best position - He is happy with his PAA, he has been there with no issue proving it and Marty wouldn't make him try.

We talke at length about my situation - that I thought it was crazy that I would loose everythign because during 2020 I might only be able to prove I spent 5 month there instead of 6. She said it would depend on the judge. She said it was fine if I was away for work if I could prove it. She said I might have to involve my work, that was fine I told he. She said I wouldn't just have to prove it. She said I would have to show every single bank statement, every debit

I said I didn't understand why Iwas a target. She said she has no reason but what other people have said about me. I said I will scream if I hear that again. She said she knows I've been away, so I have been away,

and if Marty's lawyers ask me for a discovery I would have to prove it by showing every single thing I bought with my debit card. I said if we don't have a reason to think that Marty will do that then we should just move forward like everything is fine since

it is. She said if I ask for a big buyout it could give him reason to target me. I'll admit she made me nervous. I can't handle a big court case I can't handle showing everything I've purchased to a judge. I'll have to look into that and see if she's right about that. She said it happened to another client, and the court saw everythign she bought and it was really embarrassing.

She said Christain should ask for 1M, Erez $750, and me David, and Phil should split 1M. Sorry gang but I'm not walking away with $330. It would have to be my only option. My apartment is huge. I'm on the corner.

Marty can't build anythign next to it either. I can sign off on the PAAs as is if need be. And I can live happily in my apartment in GP for many years. I can't handle a discovery from Marty - that's the only thing against me. I have to do some research.

She talked about other people in the building that aren't part of our FTA but I can't remember what she said.

She said yes we should ask higher but not too much higher or everthing could get screwed.

Anyway - let's talk soon.

Yes, let's get a debit card issued for the TA bank account and have it on file at Margaret's office. That's the arrangement I have with them for my personal account. They ask for permission to bill the card or I just give them permission when I get a bill and it's done.

We should definitely make a list of questions and have a meeting as a group before our meeting with Margaret. Margaret tends not to answer questions directly a lot of the time. We should be explicit that she need to answer the questions directly before

we move on the the next question and wrap the meeting only when all of our questions are answered. It will be good to do it as a group so there is accountability. Margaret flip flops a lot. She wrote in an email that the harassment case is weak and not to

ask her to represent us in it. She explicitly told me that I especially have a strong case that would most likely win in court, now she is changing her tune, because in my opinion, she wants to cash out on the buyouts.

I, to my knowledge, never agreed to, nor signed anything defining what Margaret's cut of the buyout would be. I never hired her to negotiate any buyouts, nor was this agreed to when we discussed her taking over Petrucci's position. We need to review the

to review the contract that we signed as a group.

Thanks.

Peace,

Christian

Thank you for spelling all this out, all good things to consider!

Sounds like we should schedule a group call with Margaret. In our last call we had talked about delegating one of us to do the talking while the rest of us listen in and chime in if there's something worth clarifying. Happy to be that person,

but if someone feels strongly about it, happy to let them take the lead.

I'm going to reach out to Margaret to get some times that work for her and then we can all pick one that works best for us.

Also, who is responsible for paying Margaret for our group cost (700$)? Do we need to put more money into that pot? Please let us know what you need from us to get our balance paid.

Is there a good time we could meet in the near future before talking to Margaret so we can collect our thoughts / streamline our questions for when we do all have a call with her?

I'm available pretty much anytime over the next few days. Would be great to have this initial meeting by end of this weekend so we can get on a call w her first thing next week.

Greetings TA,

The main obstacle in the way of Marty filing for a demo permit and demolishing the building is the fact that we have loft law and he needs to bring the whole building up to code and signed off on by DOB before he can file for a demo permit. It makes sense

that Marty would want to demo the building. There are major structural issues that need to be dealt with on top of bringing the rest of the building up to code. It would be cheaper and much quicker to buy us out, not renew the 1-year long leases that the rest of the tenants who aren't covered by loft law, and clear the building. He could develop it himself or sell to a developer for a much higher price, if the building was empty. The Colbs said they wouldn't leave for less than a $1M buyout.

The harassment suit is dire for Marty if he has any intention of developing the building himself, as he cannot buy us out. It would also take the value of the building down if he were to sell to a developer.

Its my opinion that Marty intends to demolish the building. The mysterious flyer claims that that's what his plan is too. We should use this to get very high buyouts. Has anyone reached out to the email address on the flyer?

I don't particularly want to move out. I would like to get the PAA signed off on. That was the whole point of the harassment suite to begin with. That being said, if the buyout was high I would seriously consider it.

Marty doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us out so he can move along with his plan. Nothing can stop him, to my knowledge, once all of the Loft-law covered tenants are out. This position and the fact that his potential plans get derailed

if he gets hit with a harassment conviction, puts us in a very strong position. Marty's is playing chicken with the harassment suite, but he also doesn't want to give us the PAA

because he wants us leave. It's seems to me that this would be an ideal situation to get a very high buyout. Otherwise he's stuck with us, potentially not paying rent, unable to buy us out, with severe consequences if he gets hit with another harassment suite and loses.

Did anyone talk with Margaret?

Did anyone give numbers?

Here's info from two real-estate professionals:

Our price per square foot can range from $1,300 to $1,600.

My unit is @ 1,700 sq.ft

@ $1,300 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.21M

@ $1,400 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.38M

@ $1,500 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.55M

@ $1,600 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.72M

That's market rate right now in our area.

Even if Marty bought us out for 1M a piece he'd be making out, especially considering that if the harassment suite goes through, which Margaret said that it will, especially with my case, his position is seriously compromised. Marty will spend exponentially

more just bringing the building up to code, not to mention the amount of time that the whole process would take...many years, it will take years to get the demo permit and evict us after getting the DOB to sign off on the legalization. As many have already said,

Marty has no intention once legalizing the building, but I think that he would like to demo it asap.

Also Margaret needs to subpoena the Narrative Conference record where everyone agreed to the PAA. We should figure out a time when we can all meet with her so we can all get on the same page.

Please update the group with where you're at with your number, what communication you've had with Margaret, and how you think we should move forward.

Thanks,

Christian

Subject: Read this about Subletting

Here's what The Rules Of The City Of New York, Title 29 section 2-09(c)(4) says about subletting for protected occupants.

(4) Subletting rights of occupants qualified for protection under Article 7-C.

(i) Right to Sublet. All occupants qualified for protection under Article 7-C have the right to sublet their units pursuant to and in accordance with the procedures specified in § 226-b of the RPL, notwithstanding that such occupants may reside in an IMD building having fewer than 4 residential units, and may not have a current lease or rental agreement in effect. The residential occupant of a unit located in a subdivided space, who is not in privity with the landlord, must obtain the consent of both the prime lessee of such space and the landlord to a proposed sublet of such unit, which may not be unreasonably withheld in accordance with § 226-b of the RPL.

(ii) Subletting Provisions. The right to sublet is subject to the following provisions:

(A) The rent charged to the subtenant may not exceed the legal rent, as established pursuant to Article 7-C and these rules, plus a ten percent surcharge payable to the residential occupant if the unit sublet is furnished with the residential occupant's furniture;

(B) The residential occupant must be able to establish that the residential unit is his or her primary residence;

(C) The residential occupant may not sublet the unit for more than a total of two years, including the term of the proposed sublease, out of the four-year period preceding the termination date of the proposed sublease;

(D) The term of the proposed sublease may extend beyond the term of the residential occupant's lease, if such a lease is in effect, or beyond the date of the Department of Buildings certification of the landlord's compliance with Article 7-B of the MDL. In such event, the sublease is subject to the residential occupant's right to continued occupancy pursuant to Article 7-C of the MDL, including the right of the residential occupant to issuance of a lease in accordance with the terms and provisions of MDL § 286(3) and these rules, upon Article 7-B compliance. It is considered unreasonable for a landlord to refuse to consent to a sublease solely because the residential occupant has no lease or rental agreement in effect or because the sublease extends beyond the residential occupant's lease or beyond the anticipated date of achieving Article 7-B compliance.

(E) Where a residential occupant violates the provisions of this subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (4), the subtenant is entitled to damages of three times the overcharge and may also be awarded attorney's fees and interest from the date of the overcharge at the rate of interest payable on a judgment pursuant to § 5004 of the Civil Practice Law and Rules.

(F) The provisions in clauses (A) through (E) of this 29 RCNY § 2-09(c)(4)(ii) apply to all subleases for IMD units which are subject to Article 7-C by reason of MDL § 281(1), commencing on or after September 25, 1983, the original effective date of these rules. Subleases entered into on or after June 21, 1982, but prior to September 25, 1983 are not subject to clauses (A), (C) and (E) of 29 RCNY § 2-09(c)(4)(ii), but are subject to clauses (B) and (D) of § 29 RCNY § 2-09(c)(4)(ii) and the provisions of § 226-b of the RPL, in effect at the time of the commencement of the sublease.

(G) Notwithstanding the provisions of clause (F) of this 29 RCNY § 2-09(c)(4)(ii), the provisions in clauses (A) through (E) of 29 RCNY § 2-09(c)(4)(ii) apply to all subleases for IMD units which are subject to Article 7-C solely by reason of MDL § 281(4) commencing on or after November 23, 1992. Subleases for such units entered into on or after July 27, 1987, but before November 23, 1992, are not subject to clauses (A), (C) and (E), but are subject to clauses (B) and (D) of 29 RCNY § 2-09(c)(4)(ii) and the provisions of § 226-b of the RPL, in effect at the commencement of the sublease.

(H) Notwithstanding the provisions of clauses (F) and (G) of 29 RCNY § 2-09(c)(4)(ii), the provisions in clauses (A) through (E) of 29 RCNY § 2-09(c)(4)(ii) apply to all subleases for IMD units that are subject to Article 7-C by reason of MDL § 281(5) commencing on or after September 11, 2013, the effective date of this amended rule. Subleases for such units entered into on or after June 21, 2010, but before September 11, 2013 are not subject to clauses (A), (C) and (E), but are subject to clauses (B) and (D) of 29 RCNY § 2-09(c)(4)(ii) and the provisions of § 226-b of the RPL, in effect at the commencement of the sublease.

(iii) If any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision or part of this 29 RCNY § 2-09(c)(4) is adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, the judgment shall not render invalid this entire section on subletting rights of residential occupants.

Great, we're on for Monday 3pm EST with Margaret. I'll send out an invite for everyone, Margaret will be calling in (not able to do a video call).

Also, I'll send out an email with our questions for Margaret based on the last conversation we had among ourselves. We can add or amend so we have an efficient line of questioning for her.

Discussed subpoenaing Loft Board meeting where everyone agreed on the PAAs. Can only do that through some kind of case.

Is there another way Marty can demo the building that we don't know about? One where we wouldn't get as much for our rights?

Is the DOB fining Marty for putting the steel polls up on Green St?

Is Marty's daughter taking over APC?

Point - Marty can't get hit with harassment.

Point - Kate, Erez, Christain would be fine with keeping the PAAs as is just not preferable.

Find out about subletting for Loft Board tenants.

We don't have to pay rent, but that's asking for trouble.

Look into how discovery works. Would have have to show every single this we spent money on and received money for?

number? Erez $750, Kate $750 (maybe a little lower), David $100 ?, Phil / Theo ?, Christain ?

Anyone else besides the Kolb's and Aaron (Margret told me Aaron will get covered)

What right do we have if city says building has to come down?

We need to start looking into other representation? Kozack?

Will getting PAAs give us leverage and increase value?

Does there need to be a certain number of units for units to remain under loft law protection?

I don't disagree with you but in my case she has pointed out some problems that are valid and could end up screwing me if I continue with the same attitude I had a few months ago. I agree with her that I should negotiate a buyout if possible.

We could also sue Bob for all the $ that we've spent trying to get the PAA enforced. Margaret already said that she wouldn't represent us in a suit against Bob because they are friends, but that we would have grounds to sue him.

Getting the record will also hold Michael Bobbick accountable as well.

On Sun, Jul 17, 2022 at 11:45 PM Kathryn Downie <downiekathryn@hotmail.com> wrote:

Hey everyone,

I had a long talk with Margret, here is the gist and important points. We can talk about everything in more detail when we get together. I mostly passing on what she said as best I can.

It's in Margret's retainer that she gets 10% if she negotiates a buy out.

I really pressed her about why she is pushing us to sell.

She said she has done everything she can do to get the PAAs passed and she doesn't know what else to do. She said if Lisa was still alive it would have passed, if a couple other things had happened it would have passed.

She said she is worried that Marty's new layers are vicious and it makes her worried.

She said if the building gets demolished we only get what the city says which won't be much.

I asked about if Marty just sells, and the new owners have to buy us out? I'm not really sure how she answered that.

She went into a lengthy explanation about the joys of home ownership. That the the buy out should only be large enough to put a down payment on a house. I explained I wanted to stay in Greenpoint and I couldn't do that in GP.

I explained I was happy at my apartment so why would I sell to move somewhere smaller in a neighborhood I don't want to live when I can just stay here. She started pushing Hudson Valley and giving lots of examples of how her other clients use there buy out to buy property other places.

I told her I would be fine with the PAA as is. I would like to change it. Everyone agreed to have it my way at the NS at the Loft Board and then it just didn't end up in the plans. But I could take it as it is.

She said she mostly started pushing the buyouts because she doesn't know how else to get the PAAs through and David and Phil came to her asking her to negotiate a buyout so she thought it would be best for everyone especially because of Marty's new lawyers.

She asked why we didn't fill out the right paper work in the 45 days. I said Petrucci and Arthur were supposed to. She said P told her he wasn't hired to do that.

She talked at length about how much she likes Petrucci.

She said that just because something didn't go the way we want doesn't mean someone did something wrong.

She said Christain should only be asking for 1M. She said he would need all kind of proof about how he lost recordings and stuff like that for more.

She said Erez was in the best position - He is happy with his PAA, he has been there with no issue proving it and Marty wouldn't make him try.

We talke at length about my situation - that I thought it was crazy that I would loose everythign because during 2020 I might only be able to prove I spent 5 month there instead of 6. She said it would depend on the judge. She said it was fine if I was away for work if I could prove it. She said I might have to involve my work, that was fine I told he. She said I wouldn't just have to prove it. She said I would have to show every single bank statement, every debit

I said I didn't understand why Iwas a target. She said she has no reason but what other people have said about me. I said I will scream if I hear that again. She said she knows I've been away, so I have been away,

and if Marty's lawyers ask me for a discovery I would have to prove it by showing every single thing I bought with my debit card. I said if we don't have a reason to think that Marty will do that then we should just move forward like everything is fine since

it is. She said if I ask for a big buyout it could give him reason to target me. I'll admit she made me nervous. I can't handle a big court case I can't handle showing everything I've purchased to a judge. I'll have to look into that and see if she's right about that. She said it happened to another client, and the court saw everythign she bought and it was really embarrassing.

She said Christain should ask for 1M, Erez $750, and me David, and Phil should split 1M. Sorry gang but I'm not walking away with $330. It would have to be my only option. My apartment is huge. I'm on the corner.

Marty can't build anything next to it either. I can sign off on the PAAs as is if need be. And I can live happily in my apartment in GP for many years. I can't handle a discovery from Marty - that's the only thing against me. I have to do some research.

She talked about other people in the building that aren't part of our FTA but I can't remember what she said.

She said yes we should ask higher but not too much higher or everything could get screwed.

Anyway - let's talk soon.

Yes, let's get a debit card issued for the TA bank account and have it on file at Margaret's office. That's the arrangement I have with them for my personal account. They ask for permission to bill the card or I just give them permission when I get a bill and it's done.

We should definitely make a list of questions and have a meeting as a group before our meeting with Margaret. Margaret tends not to answer questions directly a lot of the time. We should be explicit that she need to answer the questions directly before

we move on the the next question and wrap the meeting only when all of our questions are answered. It will be good to do it as a group so there is accountability. Margaret flip flops a lot. She wrote in an email that the harassment case is weak and not to

ask her to represent us in it. She explicitly told me that I especially have a strong case that would most likely win in court, now she is changing her tune, because in my opinion, she wants to cash out on the buyouts.

I, to my knowledge, never agreed to, nor signed anything defining what Margaret's cut of the buyout would be. I never hired her to negotiate any buyouts, nor was this agreed to when we discussed her taking over Petrucci's position. We need to review the

to review the contract that we signed as a group.

Thanks.

Peace,

Christian

Thank you for spelling all this out, all good things to consider!

Sounds like we should schedule a group call with Margaret. In our last call we had talked about delegating one of us to do the talking while the rest of us listen in and chime in if there's something worth clarifying. Happy to be that person, but if someone feels strongly about it, happy to let them take the lead.

I'm going to reach out to Margaret to get some times that work for her and then we can all pick one that works best for us.

Also, who is responsible for paying Margaret for our group cost (700$)? Do we need to put more money into that pot? Please let us know what you need from us to get our balance paid.

Is there a good time we could meet in the near future before talking to Margaret so we can collect our thoughts / streamline our questions for when we do all have a call with her?

I'm available pretty much anytime over the next few days. Would be great to have this initial meeting by end of this weekend so we can get on a call w her first thing next week.

On Wed, Jul 13, 2022 at 9:39 PM Christian Gray <christiangray3@protonmail.com> wrote:

Greetings TA,

The main obstacle in the way of Marty filing for a demo permit and demolishing the building is the fact that we have loft law and he needs to bring the whole building up to code and signed off on by DOB before he can file for a demo permit. It makes sense

that Marty would want to demo the building. There are major structural issues that need to be dealt with on top of bringing the rest of the building up to code. It would be cheaper and much quicker to buy us out, not renew the 1-year long leases that the rest of the tenants who aren't covered by loft law, and clear the building. He could develop it himself or sell to a developer for a much higher price, if the building was empty. The Colbs said they wouldn't leave for less than a $1M buyout.

The harassment suit is dire for Marty if he has any intention of developing the building himself, as he cannot buy us out. It would also take the value of the building down if he were to sell to a developer.

Its my opinion that Marty intends to demolish the building. The mysterious flyer claims that that's what his plan is too. We should use this to get very high buyouts. Has anyone reached out to the email address on the flyer?

I don't particularly want to move out. I would like to get the PAA signed off on. That was the whole point of the harassment suite to begin with. That being said, if the buyout was high I would seriously consider it.

Marty doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us out so he can move along with his plan. Nothing can stop him, to my knowledge, once all of the Loft-law covered tenants are out. This position and the fact that his potential plans get derailed

if he gets hit with a harassment conviction, puts us in a very strong position. Marty's is playing chicken with the harassment suite, but he also doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us leave. It's seems to me that this would be an ideal situation

to get a very high buyout. Otherwise he's stuck with us, potentially not paying rent, unable to buy us out, with severe consequences if he gets hit with another harassment suite and loses.

Did anyone talk with Margaret?

Did anyone give numbers?

Here's info from two real-estate professionals:

Our price per square foot can range from $1,300 to $1,600.

My unit is @ 1,700 sq.ft

@ $1,300 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.21M

@ $1,400 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.38M

@ $1,500 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.55M

@ $1,600 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.72M

That's market rate right now in our area.

Even if Marty bought us out for 1M a piece he'd be making out, especially considering that if the harassment suite goes through, which Margaret said that it will, especially with my case, his position is seriously compromised. Marty will spend exponentially

more just bringing the building up to code, not to mention the amount of time that the whole process would take...many years, it will take years to get the demo permit and evict us after getting the DOB to sign off on the legalization. As many have already said,

Marty has no intention once legalizing the building, but I think that he would like to demo it asap.

Also Margaret needs to subpoena the Narrative Conference record where everyone agreed to the PAA. We should figure out a time when we can all meet with her so we can all get on the same page.

Please update the group with where you're at with your number, what communication you've had with Margaret, and how you think we should move forward.

Thanks,

Christian

Hey everyone,

Here's a link to a google doc with our questions for Margaret tomorrow,

<https://docs.google.com/document/d/10GIATyTQhwGUc3P-hImj-1TmR0k1yBU9vKL77fYgTY/edit>

if you want to add or change anything please do it using "comments" or change the color of your font and add your thoughts to this as opposed to removing anything, just so we can keep track of everything.

I'm still volunteering to be our speaking representative, at least in the beginning of the meeting, just to keep things streamlined / get all these questions answered. If anyone has an objection to that, let me know.

Of course we want to get these questions answered before we consider our buyout number, but if we are seriously considering taking this opportunity to walk away, we should all be zeroing in on what we'd like to get paid and what we'd be ok with getting paid.

Talk soon and see you all tomorrow!

Also, I'll send out an email with our questions for Margaret based on the last conversation we had among ourselves. We can add or amend so we have an efficient line of questioning for her.

Discussed subpoenaing Loft Board meeting where everyone agreed on the PAAs. Can only do that through some kind of case.

Is there another way Marty can demo the building that we don't know about? One where we wouldn't get as much for our rights?

Is the DOB fining Marty for putting the steel polls up on Green St?

Is Marty's daughter taking over APC?

Point - Marty can't get hit with harassment.

Point - Kate, Erez, Christain would be fine with keeping the PAAs as is just not preferable.

Find out about subletting for Loft Board tenants.

We don't have to pay rent, but that's asking for trouble.

What would out number be as a group if we took the buyout? Can we all have a different number? Erez $750, Kate $750 (maybe a little lower), David $100 ?, Phil / Theo ?, Christain ?

Anyone else besides the Kolb's and Aaron (Margret told me Aaron will get covered)

What right do we have if city says building has to come down?

We need to start looking into other representation? Kozack?

Will getting PAAs give us leverage and increase value?

Does there need to be a certain number of units for units to remain under loft law protection?

I was pretty careful speaking with her to keep conversation about me and not others, certainly not with specifics. I recall saying "you'll need to speak to them" when she volunteered info or asked about anybody else.

I don't disagree with you but in my case she has pointed out some problems that are valid and could end up screwing me if I continue with the same attitude I had a few months ago. I agree with her that I should negotiate a buyout if possible.

We could also sue Bob for all the $ that we've spent trying to get the PAA enforced. Margaret already said that she wouldn't represent us in a suit against Bob because they are friends, but that we would have grounds to sue him.

Getting the record will also hold Michael Bobbick accountable as well.

On Sun, Jul 17, 2022 at 11:45 PM Kathryn Downie <downiekathryn@hotmail.com> wrote:

Hey everyone,

I had a long talk with Margret, here is the gist and important points. We can talk about everything in more detail when we get together. I mostly passing on what she said as best I can.

It's in Margret's retainer that she gets 10% if she negotiates a buy out.

I really pressed her about why she is pushing us to sell.

She said she has done everything she can do to get the PAAs passed and she doesn't know what else to do. She said if Lisa was still alive it would have passed, if a couple other things had happened it would have passed.

She said she is worried that Marty's new lawyers are vicious and it makes her worried.

She said if the building gets demolished we only get what the city says which won't be much.

I asked about if Marty just sells, and the new owners have to buy us out? I'm not really sure how she answered that.

She went into a lengthy explanation about the joys of home ownership. That the the buy out should only be large enough to put a down payment on a house. I explained I wanted to stay in Greenpoint and I couldn't do that in GP.

I explained I was happy at my apartment so why would I sell to move somewhere smaller in a neighborhood I don't want to live when I can just stay here. She started pushing Hudson Valley and giving lots of examples of how her other clients use there buy out to buy property other places.

I told her I would be fine with the PAA as is. I would like to change it. Everyone agreed to have it my way at the NS at the Loft Board and then it just didn't end up in the plans. But I could take it as it is.

She said she mostly started pushing the buyouts because she doesn't know how else to get the PAAs through and David and Phil came to her asking her to negotiate a buyout so she thought it would be best for everyone especially because of Marty's new lawyers.

She asked why we didn't fill out the right paper work in the 45 days. I said Petrucci and Arthur were supposed to. She said P told her he wasn't hired to do that.

She talked at length about how much she likes Petrucci.

She said that just because something didn't go the way we want doesn't mean someone did something wrong.

She said Christain should only be asking for 1M. She said he would need all kind of proof about how he lost recordings and stuff like that for more.

She said Erez was in the best position - He is happy with his PAA, he has been there with no issue proving it and Marty wouldn't make him try.

We talke at length about my situation - that I thought it was crazy that I would loose everythign because during 2020 I might only be able to prove I spent 5 month there instead of 6. She said it would depend on the judge. She said it was fine if I was away for work if I could prove it. She said I might have to involve my work, that was fine I told he. She said I wouldn't just have to prove it. She said I would have to show every single bank statement, every debit

I said I didn't understand why I was a target. She said she has no reason but what other people have said about me. I said I will scream if I hear that again. She said she knows I've been away, so I have been away,

and if Marty's lawyers ask me for a discovery I would have to prove it by showing every single thing I bought with my debit card. I said if we don't have a reason to think that

Marty will do that then we should just move forward like everything is fine since it is. She said if I ask for a big buyout it could give him reason to target me. I'll admit she made me nervous. I can't handle a big court case I can't handle showing everything I've purchased to a judge. I'll have to look into that and see if she's right about that. She said it happened to another client, and the court saw everything she bought and it was really embarrassing.

She said Christain should ask for 1M, Erez $750, and me David, and Phil should split 1M. Sorry gang but I'm not walking away with $330. It would have to be my only option. My apartment is huge. I'm on the corner.

Marty can't build anything next to it either. I can sign off on the PAAs as is if need be. And I can live happily in my apartment in GP for many years. I can't handle a discovery from Marty - that's the only thing against me. I have to do some research.

She talked about other people in the building that aren't part of our FTA but I can't remember what she said.

She said yes we should ask higher but not too much higher or everything could get screwed.

Anyway - let's talk soon.

Yes, let's get a debit card issued for the TA bank account and have it on file at Margaret's office. That's the arrangement I have with them for my personal account. They ask for permission to bill the card or I just give them permission when I get a bill and it's done.

We should definitely make a list of questions and have a meeting as a group before our meeting with Margaret. Margaret tends not to answer questions directly a lot of the time. We should be explicit that she need to answer the questions directly before

we move on the the next question and wrap the meeting only when all of our questions are answered. It will be good to do it as a group so there is accountability. Margaret flip flops a lot. She wrote in an email that the harassment case is weak and not to

ask her to represent us in it. She explicitly told me that I especially have a strong case that would most likely win in court, now she is changing her tune, because in my opinion, she wants to cash out on the buyouts.

I, to my knowledge, never agreed to, nor signed anything defining what Margaret's cut of the buyout would be. I never hired her to negotiate any buyouts, nor was this agreed to when we discussed her taking over Petrucci's position. We need to review the

to review the contract that we signed as a group.

Thanks.

Thank you for spelling all this out, all good things to consider!

Sounds like we should schedule a group call with Margaret. In our last call we had talked about delegating one of us to do the talking while the rest of us listen in and chime in if there's something worth clarifying. Happy to be that person,

but if someone feels strongly about it, happy to let them take the lead.

I'm going to reach out to Margaret to get some times that work for her and then we can all pick one that works best for us.

Also, who is responsible for paying Margaret for our group cost (700$)? Do we need to put more money into that pot? Please let us know what you need from us to get our balance paid.

Is there a good time we could meet in the near future before talking to Margaret so we can collect our thoughts / streamline our questions for when we do all have a call with her?

I'm available pretty much anytime over the next few days. Would be great to have this initial meeting by end of this weekend so we can get on a call w her first thing next week.

Greetings TA,

The main obstacle in the way of Marty filing for a demo permit and demolishing the building is the fact that we have loft law and he needs to bring the whole building up to code and signed off on by DOB before he can file for a demo permit. It makes sense

that Marty would want to demo the building. There are major structural issues that need to be dealt with on top of bringing the rest of the building up to code. It would be cheaper and much quicker to buy us out, not renew the 1-year long leases that the rest of the tenants who aren't covered by loft law, and clear the building. He could develop it himself or sell to a developer for a much higher price, if the building was empty. The Colbs said they wouldn't leave for less than a $1M buyout.

The harassment suit is dire for Marty if he has any intention of developing the building himself, as he cannot buy us out. It would also take the value of the building down if he were to sell to a developer.

Its my opinion that Marty intends to demolish the building. The mysterious flyer claims that that's what his plan is too. We should use this to get very high buyouts. Has anyone reached out to the email address on the flyer?

I don't particularly want to move out. I would like to get the PAA signed off on. That was the whole point of the harassment suite to begin with. That being said, if the buyout was high I would seriously consider it.

Marty doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us out so he can move along with his plan. Nothing can stop him, to my knowledge, once all of the Loft-law covered tenants are out. This position and the fact that his potential plans get derailed

if he gets hit with a harassment conviction, puts us in a very strong position. Marty's is playing chicken with the harassment suite, but he also doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us leave. It's seems to me that this would be an ideal situation

to get a very high buyout. Otherwise he's stuck with us, potentially not paying rent, unable to buy us out, with severe consequences if he gets hit with another harassment suite and loses.

Did anyone talk with Margaret?

Did anyone give numbers?

Here's info from two real-estate professionals:

Our price per square foot can range from $1,300 to $1,600.

My unit is @ 1,700 sq.ft

@ $1,300 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.21M

@ $1,400 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.38M

@ $1,500 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.55M

@ $1,600 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.72M

That's market rate right now in our area.

Even if Marty bought us out for 1M a piece he'd be making out, especially considering that if the harassment suite goes through, which Margaret said that it will, especially with my case, his position is seriously compromised. Marty will spend exponentially

more just bringing the building up to code, not to mention the amount of time that the whole process would take...many years, it will take years to get the demo permit and evict us after getting the DOB to sign off on the legalization. As many have already said,

Marty has no intention once legalizing the building, but I think that he would like to demo it asap.

Also Margaret needs to subpoena the Narrative Conference record where everyone agreed to the PAA. We should figure out a time when we can all meet with her so we can all get on the same page.

Please update the group with where you're at with your number, what communication you've had with Margaret, and how you think we should move forward.

Thanks,

Christian

Hey everyone,

Here's a link to a google doc with our questions for Margaret tomorrow,

<https://docs.google.com/document/d/10GIAtyTQhwGUc3P-hImj-1TmR0k1yBU9vKL77fYgTY/edit>

if you want to add or change anything please do it using "comments" or change the color of your font and add your thoughts to this as opposed to removing anything, just so we can keep track of everything.

I'm still volunteering to be our speaking representative, at least in the beginning of the meeting, just to keep things streamlined / get all these questions answered. If anyone has an objection to that, let me know.

Of course we want to get these questions answered before we consider our buyout number, but if we are seriously considering taking this opportunity to walk away, we should all be zeroing in on what we'd like to get paid and what we'd be ok with getting paid.

Talk soon and see you all tomorrow!

Also, I'll send out an email with our questions for Margaret based on the last conversation we had among ourselves. We can add or amend so we have an efficient line of questioning for her.

Is there another way Marty can demo the building that we don't know about? One where we wouldn't get as much for our rights?

Is the DOB fining Marty for putting the steel polls up on Green St?

Is Marty's daughter taking over APC?

Point - Marty can't get hit with harassment.

Point - Kate, Erez, Christain would be fine with keeping the PAAs as is just not preferable.

Find out about subletting for Loft Board tenants.

We don't have to pay rent, but that's asking for trouble.

Christain ?

Anyone else besides the Kolb's and Aaron (Margret told me Aaron will get covered)

What right do we have if city says building has to come down?

We need to start looking into other representation? Kozack?

Will getting PAAs give us leverage and increase value?

Does there need to be a certain number of units for units to remain under loft law protection?

I was pretty careful speaking with her to keep conversation about me and not others, certainly not with specifics. I recall saying "you'll need to speak to them" when she volunteered info or asked about anybody else.

I don't disagree with you but in my case she has pointed out some problems that are valid and could end up screwing me if I continue with the same attitude I had a few months ago. I agree with her that I should negotiate a buyout if possible.

He's telling Margaret that he wasn't hired for that reason. That was the only reason that we had him there, for situations like that, and to get the agreements in a binding contract. We can ask him for our $ back. He'll probably just give it to us. Maybe.

We could also sue Bob for all the $ that we've spent trying to get the PAA enforced. Margaret already said that she wouldn't represent us in a suit against Bob because they are friends, but that we would have grounds to sue him.

Getting the record will also hold Michael Bobbick accountable as well.

Thanks for the information. Not that it matters at this point but I definitely didn't "come to her for a buyout." I received the same emails as the rest of you and when I asked her to clarify a few things she basically told me I had jeopardized

my loft and continues to tell me how vulnerable my situation is every time we speak. Im ok pursuing a buyout and moving on from the building but she really didn't advise me about any other way forward.

On Sun, Jul 17, 2022 at 11:45 PM Kathryn Downie <downiekathryn@hotmail.com> wrote:

Hey everyone,

I had a long talk with Margret, here is the gist and important points. We can talk about everything in more detail when we get together. I mostly passing on what she said as best I can.

It's in Margret's retainer that she gets 10% if she negotiates a buy out.

I really pressed her about why she is pushing us to sell.

She said she has done everything she can do to get the PAAs passed and she doesn't know what else to do. She said if Lisa was still alive it would have passed, if a couple other things had happened it would have passed.

She said she is worried that Marty's new lawyers are vicious and it makes her worried.

She said if the building gets demolished we only get what the city says which won't be much.

I asked about if Marty just sells, and the new owners have to buy us out? I'm not really sure how she answered that.

She went into a lengthy explanation about the joys of home ownership. That the the buy out should only be large enough to put a down payment on a house. I explained I wanted to stay in Greenpoint and I couldn't do that in GP.

I explained I was happy at my apartment so why would I sell to move somewhere smaller in a neighborhood I don't want to live when I can just stay here. She started pushing Hudson Valley and giving lots of examples of how her other clients use there buy out to buy property other places.

I told her I would be fine with the PAA as is. I would like to change it. Everyone agreed to have it my way at the NS at the Loft Board and then it just didn't end up in the plans. But I could take it as it is.

She said she mostly started pushing the buyouts because she doesn't know how else to get the PAAs through and David and Phil came to her asking her to negotiate a buyout so she thought it would be best for everyone especially

because of Marty's new lawyers.

She asked why we didn't fill out the right paper work in the 45 days. I said Petrucci and Arthur were supposed to. She said P told her he wasn't hired to do that.

She talked at length about how much she likes Petrucci.

She said that just because something didn't go the way we want doesn't mean someone did something wrong.

She said Christain should only be asking for 1M. She said he would need all kind of proof about how he lost recordings and stuff like that for more.

She said Erez was in the best position - He is happy with his PAA, he has been there with no issue proving it and Marty wouldn't make him try.

We talke at length about my situation - that I thought it was crazy that I would loose everythign because during 2020 I might only be able to prove I spent 5 month there instead of 6. She said it would depend on the judge. She said it was fine if I was away for work if I could prove it. She said I might have to involve my work, that was fine I told he. She said I wouldn't just have to prove it. She said I would have to show every single bank statement, every debit card transaction. I'll admit I don't like the sound of that. I don't want every single thing I have done, every single thing I bought, every single thing I have been paid for scrutinized by multiply people .

I said I didn't understand why I was a target. She said she has no reason but what other people have said about me. I said I will scream if I hear that again. She said she knows I've been away, so I have been away,

and if Marty's lawyers ask me for a discovery I would have to prove it by showing every single thing I bought with my debit card. I said if we don't have a reason to think that Marty will do that then we should just move forward like everything is fine since

it is. She said if I ask for a big buyout it could give him reason to target me. I'll admit she made me nervous. I can't handle a big court case I can't handle showing everything I've purchased to a judge. I'll have to look into that and see if she's right about that. She said it happened to another client, and the court saw everything she bought and it was really embarrassing.

She said Christain should ask for 1M, Erez $750, and me David, and Phil should split 1M. Sorry gang but I'm not walking away with $330. It would have to be my only option. My apartment is huge. I'm on the corner.

Marty can't build anything next to it either. I can sign off on the PAAs as is if need be. And I can live happily in my apartment in GP for many years. I can't handle a discovery from Marty - that's the only thing against me. I have to do some research.

She talked about other people in the building that aren't part of our FTA but I can't remember what she said.

She said yes we should ask higher but not too much higher or everything could get screwed.

Anyway - let's talk soon.

Yes, let's get a debit card issued for the TA bank account and have it on file at Margaret's office. That's the arrangement I have with them for my personal account. They ask for permission to bill the card or I just give them permission when I get a bill and it's done.

We should definitely make a list of questions and have a meeting as a group before our meeting with Margaret. Margaret tends not to answer questions directly a lot of the time. We should be explicit that she need to answer the questions directly before

we move on the the next question and wrap the meeting only when all of our questions are answered. It will be good to do it as a group so there is accountability. Margaret flip flops a lot. She wrote in an email that the harassment case is weak and not to

ask her to represent us in it. She explicitly told me that I especially have a strong case that would most likely win in court, now she is changing her tune, because in my opinion, she wants to cash out on the buyouts.

I, to my knowledge, never agreed to, nor signed anything defining what Margaret's cut of the buyout would be. I never hired her to negotiate any buyouts, nor was this agreed to when we discussed her taking over Petrucci's position. We need to review the

to review the contract that we signed as a group.

Thanks.

Peace,

Christian

Thank you for spelling all this out, all good things to consider!

Sounds like we should schedule a group call with Margaret. In our last call we had talked about delegating one of us to do the talking while the rest of us listen in and chime in if there's something worth clarifying. Happy to be that person, but if someone feels strongly about it, happy to let them take the lead.

I'm going to reach out to Margaret to get some times that work for her and then we can all pick one that works best for us.

Also, who is responsible for paying Margaret for our group cost (700$)? Do we need to put more money into that pot? Please let us know what you need from us to get our balance paid.

Is there a good time we could meet in the near future before talking to Margaret so we can collect our thoughts / streamline our questions for when we do all have a call with her?

I'm available pretty much anytime over the next few days. Would be great to have this initial meeting by end of this weekend so we can get on a call w her first thing next week.

Greetings TA,

The main obstacle in the way of Marty filing for a demo permit and demolishing the building is the fact that we have loft law and he needs to bring the whole building up to code and signed off on by DOB before he can file for a demo permit. It makes sense

that Marty would want to demo the building. There are major structural issues that need to be dealt with on top of bringing the rest of the building up to code. It would be cheaper and much quicker to buy us out, not renew the 1-year long leases that the rest of the tenants who aren't covered by loft law, and clear the building. He could develop it himself or sell to a developer for a much higher price, if the building was empty. The Colbs said they wouldn't leave for less than a $1M buyout.

The harassment suit is dire for Marty if he has any intention of developing the building himself, as he cannot buy us out. It would also take the value of the building down if he were to sell to a developer.

It's my opinion that Marty intends to demolish the building. The mysterious flyer claims that that's what his plan is too. We should use this to get very high buyouts. Has anyone reached out to the email address on the flyer?

I don't particularly want to move out. I would like to get the PAA signed off on. That was the whole point of the harassment suite to begin with. That being said, if the buyout was high I would seriously consider it.

Marty doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us out so he can move along with his plan. Nothing can stop him, to my knowledge, once all of the Loft-law covered tenants are out. This position and the fact that his potential plans get derailed

if he gets hit with a harassment conviction, puts us in a very strong position. Marty's is playing chicken with the harassment suite, but he also doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us leave. It seems to me that this would be an ideal situation

to get a very high buyout. Otherwise he's stuck with us, potentially not paying rent, unable to buy us out, with severe consequences if he gets hit with another harassment suite and loses.

Did anyone talk with Margaret?

Did anyone give numbers?

Here's info from two real-estate professionals:

Our price per square foot can range from $1,300 to $1,600.

My unit is @ 1,700 sq.ft

@ $1,300 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.21M

@ $1,400 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.38M

@ $1,500 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.55M

@ $1,600 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.72M

That's market rate right now in our area.

Even if Marty bought us out for 1M a piece he'd be making out, especially considering that if the harassment suite goes through, which Margaret said that it will, especially with my case, his position is seriously compromised. Marty will spend exponentially

more just bringing the building up to code, not to mention the amount of time that the whole process would take...many years, it will take years to get the demo permit and evict us after getting the DOB to sign off on the legalization. As many have already said,

Marty has no intention once legalizing the building, but I think that he would like to demo it asap.

Also Margaret needs to subpoena the Narrative Conference record where everyone agreed to the PAA. We should figure out a time when we can all meet with her so we can all get on the same page.

Please update the group with where you're at with your number, what communication you've had with Margaret, and how you think we should move forward.

Thanks,

Christian

Hey everyone,

Here's a link to a google doc with our questions for Margaret tomorrow,

<https://docs.google.com/document/d/10GIIdAtyTQhwGUc3P-hImj-1TmR0k1yBU9vkl77fYgTY/edit>

if you want to add or change anything please do it using "comments" or change the color of your font and add your thoughts to this as opposed to removing anything, just so we can keep track of everything.

I'm still volunteering to be our speaking representative, at least in the beginning of the meeting, just to keep things streamlined / get all these questions answered. If anyone has an objection to that, let me know.

Of course we want to get these questions answered before we consider our buyout number, but if we are seriously considering taking this opportunity to walk away, we should all be zeroing in on what we'd like to get paid and what we'd be ok with getting paid.

Talk soon and see you all tomorrow!

Discussed subpoenaing Loft Board meeting where everyone agreed on the PAAs. Can only do that through some kind of case.

Is there another way Marty can demo the building that we don't know about? One where we wouldn't get as much for our rights?

Is the DOB fining Marty for putting the steel polls up on Green St?

Is Marty's daughter taking over APC?

Point - Marty can't get hit with harassment.

Point - Kate, Erez, Christain would be fine with keeping the PAAs as is just not preferable.

Find out about subletting for Loft Board tenants.

We don't have to pay rent, but that's asking for trouble.

Look into how discovery works. Would have have to show every single thing we spent money on and received money for?

What would our number be as a group if we took the buyout? Can we all have a different number? Erez $750, Kate $750 (maybe a little lower), David $100 ?, Phil / Theo ?, Christain ?

Anyone else besides the Kolb's and Aaron (Margret told me Aaron will get covered)

What right do we have if city says building has to come down?

We need to start looking into other representation? Kozack?

Will getting PAAs give us leverage and increase value?

Does there need to be a certain number of units for units to remain under loft law protection?

I don't disagree with you but in my case she has pointed out some problems that are valid and could end up screwing me if I continue with the same attitude I had a few months ago. I agree with her that I should negotiate a buyout if possible.

We could also sue Bob for all the $ that we've spent trying to get the PAA enforced. Margaret already said that she wouldn't represent us in a suit against Bob because they are friends, but that we would have grounds to sue him.

Getting the record will also hold Michael Bobbick accountable as well.

On Sun, Jul 17, 2022 at 11:45 PM Kathryn Downie <downiekathryn@hotmail.com> wrote:

Hey everyone,

I had a long talk with Margret, here is the gist and important points. We can talk about everything in more detail when we get together. I mostly passing on what she said as best I can.

It's in Margret's retainer that she gets 10% if she negotiates a buy out.

I really pressed her about why she is pushing us to sell.

She said she has done everything she can do to get the PAAs passed and she doesn't know what else to do. She said if Lisa was still alive it would have passed, if a couple other things had happened it would have passed.

She said she is worried that Marty's new layers are vicious and it makes her worried.

She said if the building gets demolished we only get what the city says which won't be much.

I asked about if Marty just sells, and the new owners have to buy us out? I'm not really sure how she answered that.

She went into a lengthy explanation about the joys of home ownership. That the the buy out should only be large enough to put a down payment on a house. I explained I wanted to stay in Greenpoint and I couldn't do that in GP.

I explained I was happy at my apartment so why would I sell to move somewhere smaller in a neighborhood I don't want to live when I can just stay here. She started pushing Hudson Valley and giving lots of examples of how her other clients use there buy out to buy property other places.

I told her I would be fine with the PAA as is. I would like to change it. Everyone agreed to have it my way at the NS at the Loft Board and then it just didn't end up in the plans. But I could take it as it is.

She said she mostly started pushing the buyouts because she doesn't know how else to get the PAAs through and David and Phil came to her asking her to negotiate a buyout so she thought it would be best for everyone especially

because of Marty's new lawyers.

She asked why we didn't fill out the right paper work in the 45 days. I said Petrucci and Arthur were supposed to. She said P told her he wasn't hired to do that.

She talked at length about how much she likes Petrucci.

She said that just because something didn't go the way we want doesn't mean someone did something wrong.

She said Christain should only be asking for 1M. She said he would need all kind of proof about how he lost recordings and stuff like that for more.

She said Erez was in the best position - He is happy with his PAA, he has been there with no issue proving it and Marty wouldn't make him try.

We talke at length about my situation - that I thought it was crazy that I would loose everythign because during 2020 I might only be able to prove I spent 5 month there instead of 6. She said it would depend on the judge. She said it was fine if I was away for work if I could prove it. She said I might have to involve my work, that was fine I told he. She said I wouldn't just have to prove it. She said I would have to show every single bank statement, every debit

I said I didn't understand why Iwas a target. She said she has no reason but what other people have said about me. I said I will scream if I hear that again. She said she knows I've been away, so I have been away,

and if Marty's lawyers ask me for a discovery I would have to prove it by showing every single thing I bought with my debit card. I said if we don't have a reason to think that Marty will do that then we should just move forward like everything is fine since

it is. She said if I ask for a big buyout it could give him reason to target me. I'll admit she made me nervous. I can't handle a big court case I can't handle showing everything I've purchased to a judge. I'll have to look into that and see if she's right about that. She said it happened to another client, and the court saw everythign she bought and it was really embarrassing.

She said Christain should ask for 1M, Erez $750, and me David, and Phil should split 1M. Sorry gang but I'm not walking away with $330. It would have to be my only option. My apartment is huge. I'm on the corner.

Marty can't build anythign next to it either. I can sign off on the PAAs as is if need be. And I can live happily in my apartment in GP for many years. I can't handle a discovery from Marty - that's the only thing against me. I have to do some research.

She talked about other people in the building that aren't part of our FTA but I can't remember what she said.

She said yes we should ask higher but not too much higher or everthing could get screwed.

Anyway - let's talk soon.

Yes, let's get a debit card issued for the TA bank account and have it on file at Margaret's office. That's the arrangement I have with them for my personal account. They ask for permission to bill the card or I just give them permission when I get a bill and it's done.

We should definitely make a list of questions and have a meeting as a group before our meeting with Margaret. Margaret tends not to answer questions directly a lot of the time. We should be explicit that she need to answer the questions directly before

we move on the the next question and wrap the meeting only when all of our questions are answered. It will be good to do it as a group so there is accountability. Margaret flip flops a lot. She wrote in an email that the harassment case is weak and not to

I, to my knowledge, never agreed to, nor signed anything defining what Margaret's cut of the buyout would be. I never hired her to negotiate any buyouts, nor was this agreed to when we discussed her taking over Petrucci's position. We need to review the contract. Has anyone else signed or discussed this with Margaret? She tried to say the Golden Drum would have to pay her a percentage of their buyout after they fired her and went with a different lawyer. We should all be on the same page about this. We need to review the contract that we signed as a group.

Thanks.

Peace,

Christian

Margaret is available to meet on Monday anytime before 1pm. Can we all make something in that window work?

Also, we should figure out a time to meet this weekend as a group before then to put together a master list of questions for Margeret so we're not wasting time (money).

Remember that Margaret can subpoena the Narrative Conference record that clearly has all parties agreeing to the PAA and also agreeing to put it in writing. I was sitting there and witnessed the whole thing.

I think if we got that evidence it would obviously make our case for the PAA but could also strengthen our position for negotiating higher buyouts.

As I said before, I'd like to get the PAA signed off on and rebuild my place and move back in but if the buyout were high enough, I'd consider leaving.

Sorry I did it so late.

Thank you for spelling all this out, all good things to consider!

Sounds like we should schedule a group call with Margaret. In our last call we had talked about delegating one of us to do the talking while the rest of us listen in and chime in if there's something worth clarifying. Happy to be that person,

but if someone feels strongly about it, happy to let them take the lead.

I'm going to reach out to Margaret to get some times that work for her and then we can all pick one that works best for us.

Also, who is responsible for paying Margaret for our group cost (700$)? Do we need to put more money into that pot? Please let us know what you need from us to get our balance paid.

Is there a good time we could meet in the near future before talking to Margaret so we can collect our thoughts / streamline our questions for when we do all have a call with her?

I'm available pretty much anytime over the next few days. Would be great to have this initial meeting by end of this weekend so we can get on a call w her first thing next week.

Greetings TA,

The main obstacle in the way of Marty filing for a demo permit and demolishing the building is the fact that we have loft law and he needs to bring the whole building up to code and signed off on by DOB before he can file for a demo permit. It makes sense

that Marty would want to demo the building. There are major structural issues that need to be dealt with on top of bringing the rest of the building up to code. It would be cheaper and much quicker to buy us out, not renew the 1-year long leases that the rest of the tenants who aren't covered by loft law, and clear the building. He could develop it himself or sell to a developer for a much higher price, if the building was empty. The Colbs said they wouldn't leave for less than a $1M buyout.

The harassment suit is dire for Marty if he has any intention of developing the building himself, as he cannot buy us out. It would also take the value of the building down if he were to sell to a developer.

Its my opinion that Marty intends to demolish the building. The mysterious flyer claims that that's what his plan is too. We should use this to get very high buyouts. Has anyone reached out to the email address on the flyer?

I don't particularly want to move out. I would like to get the PAA signed off on. That was the whole point of the harassment suite to begin with. That being said, if the buyout was high I would seriously consider it.

Marty doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us out so he can move along with his plan. Nothing can stop him, to my knowledge, once all of the Loft-law covered tenants are out. This position and the fact that his potential plans get derailed

if he gets hit with a harassment conviction, puts us in a very strong position. Marty's is playing chicken with the harassment suite, but he also doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us leave. It's seems to me that this would be an ideal situation

to get a very high buyout. Otherwise he's stuck with us, potentially not paying rent, unable to buy us out, with severe consequences if he gets hit with another harassment suite and loses.

Did anyone talk with Margaret?

Did anyone give numbers?

Here's info from two real-estate professionals:

Our price per square foot can range from $1,300 to $1,600.

My unit is @ 1,700 sq.ft

@ $1,300 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.21M

@ $1,400 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.38M

@ $1,500 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.55M

@ $1,600 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.72M

That's market rate right now in our area.

Even if Marty bought us out for 1M a piece he'd be making out, especially considering that if the harassment suite goes through, which Margaret said that it will, especially with my case, his position is seriously compromised. Marty will spend exponentially

more just bringing the building up to code, not to mention the amount of time that the whole process would take...many years, it will take years to get the demo permit and evict us after getting the DOB to sign off on the legalization. As many have already said,

Marty has no intention once legalizing the building, but I think that he would like to demo it asap.

Also Margaret needs to subpoena the Narrative Conference record where everyone agreed to the PAA. We should figure out a time when we can all meet with her so we can all get on the same page.

Please update the group with where you're at with your number, what communication you've had with Margaret, and how you think we should move forward.

Thanks,

Christian

Most of the meeting yesterday with M. was captured using a Notepad dictation app, The 13 "Notes" here are raw and unedited. There are some gaps and unintelligible sections, misspellings, etc. They may be helpful if not a little confusing at times.

These meeting "minutes" are being shared for use WITHIN the group to review. When asked yesterday if anyone was recording the meeting, M. said she wouldn't want her words being used elsewhere for other purposes and we don't want to tick her off, of course.

Hey everyone,

Here's a link to a google doc with our questions for Margaret tomorrow,

<https://docs.google.com/document/d/10GIATyTQhwGUc3P-hImj-1TmR0k1yBU9vKL77fYgTY/edit>

if you want to add or change anything please do it using "comments" or change the color of your font and add your thoughts to this as opposed to removing anything, just so we can keep track of everything.

Of course we want to get these questions answered before we consider our buyout number, but if we are seriously considering taking this opportunity to walk away, we should all be zeroing in on what we'd like to get paid and what we'd be ok with getting paid.

Talk soon and see you all tomorrow!

Is there another way Marty can demo the building that we don't know about? One where we wouldn't get as much for our rights?

Is the DOB fining Marty for putting the steel polls up on Green St?

Is Marty's daughter taking over APC?

Point - Marty can't get hit with harassment.

Point - Kate, Erez, Christain would be fine with keeping the PAAs as is just not preferable.

Find out about subletting for Loft Board tenants.

We don't have to pay rent, but that's asking for trouble.

What would out number be as a group if we took the buyout? Can we all have a different number? Erez $750, Kate $750 (maybe a little lower), David $100 ?, Phil / Theo ?, Christain ?

Anyone else besides the Kolb's and Aaron (Margret told me Aaron will get covered)

What right do we have if city says building has to come down?

We need to start looking into other representation? Kozack?

Will getting PAAs give us leverage and increase value?

Does there need to be a certain number of units for units to remain under loft law protection?

I don't disagree with you but in my case she has pointed out some problems that are valid and could end up screwing me if I continue with the same attitude I had a few months ago. I agree with her that I should negotiate a buyout if possible.

Thanks for the information. Not that it matters at this point but I definitely didn't "come to her for a buyout." I received the same emails as the rest of you and when I asked her to clarify a few things she basically told me I had jeopardized my loft and continues to tell me how vulnerable my situation is every time we speak. Im ok pursuing a buyout and moving on from the building but she really didn't advise me about any other way forward.

On Sun, Jul 17, 2022 at 11:45 PM Kathryn Downie <downiekathryn@hotmail.com> wrote:

Hey everyone,

I had a long talk with Margret, here is the gist and important points. We can talk about everything in more detail when we get together. I mostly passing on what she said as best I can.

It's in Margret's retainer that she gets 10% if she negotiates a buy out.

I really pressed her about why she is pushing us to sell.

She said she has done everything she can do to get the PAAs passed and she doesn't know what else to do. She said if Lisa was still alive it would have passed, if a couple other things had happened it would have passed.

She said she is worried that Marty's new layers are vicious and it makes her worried.

She said if the building gets demolished we only get what the city says which won't be much.

I asked about if Marty just sells, and the new owners have to buy us out? I'm not really sure how she answered that.

She went into a lengthy explanation about the joys of home ownership. That the the buy out should only be large enough to put a down payment on a house. I explained I wanted to stay in Greenpoint and I couldn't do that in GP.

I explained I was happy at my apartment so why would I sell to move somewhere smaller in a neighborhood I don't want to live when I can just stay here. She started pushing Hudson Valley and giving lots of examples of how her other clients use there buy out to buy property other places.

I told her I would be fine with the PAA as is. I would like to change it. Everyone agreed to have it my way at the NS at the Loft Board and then it just didn't end up in the plans. But I could take it as it is.

She said she mostly started pushing the buyouts because she doesn't know how else to get the PAAs through and David and Phil came to her asking her to negotiate a buyout so she thought it would be best for everyone especially because of Marty's new lawyers.

She asked why we didn't fill out the right paper work in the 45 days. I said Petrucci and Arthur were supposed to. She said P told her he wasn't hired to do that.

She talked at length about how much she likes Petrucci.

She said that just because something didn't go the way we want doesn't mean someone did something wrong.

She said Christain should only be asking for 1M. She said he would need all kind of proof about how he lost recordings and stuff like that for more.

She said Erez was in the best position - He is happy with his PAA, he has been there with no issue proving it and Marty wouldn't make him try.

We talke at length about my situation - that I thought it was crazy that I would loose everythign because during 2020 I might only be able to prove I spent 5 month there instead of 6. She said it would depend on the judge. She said it was fine if I was away for work if I could prove it. She said I might have to involve my work, that was fine I told her. She said I wouldn't just have to prove it. She said I would have to show every single bank statement, every debit card transaction. I'll admit I don't like the sound of that. I don't want every single thing I have done, every single thing I bought, every single thing I have been paid for scrutinized by multiple people.

I said I didn't understand why I was a target. She said she has no reason but what other people have said about me. I said I will scream if I hear that again. She said she knows I've been away, so I have been away,

and if Marty's lawyers ask me for a discovery I would have to prove it by showing every single thing I bought with my debit card. I said if we don't have a reason to think that Marty will do that then we should just move forward like everything is fine since

it is. She said if I ask for a big buyout it could give him reason to target me. I'll admit she made me nervous. I can't handle a big court case I can't handle showing everything I've purchased to a judge. I'll have to look into that and see if she's right about that. She said it happened to another client, and the court saw everything she bought and it was really embarrassing.

She said Christain should ask for 1M, Erez $750, and me David, and Phil should split 1M. Sorry gang but I'm not walking away with $330. It would have to be my only option. My apartment is huge. I'm on the corner.

Marty can't build anything next to it either. I can sign off on the PAAs as is if need be. And I can live happily in my apartment in GP for many years. I can't handle a discovery from Marty - that's the only thing against me. I have to do some research.

She talked about other people in the building that aren't part of our FTA but I can't remember what she said.

She said yes we should ask higher but not too much higher or everything could get screwed.

Anyway - let's talk soon.

Yes, let's get a debit card issued for the TA bank account and have it on file at Margaret's office. That's the arrangement I have with them for my personal account. They ask for permission to bill the card or I just give them permission when I get a bill and it's done.

We should definitely make a list of questions and have a meeting as a group before our meeting with Margaret. Margaret tends not to answer questions directly a lot of the time. We should be explicit that she need to answer the questions directly before

we move on the the next question and wrap the meeting only when all of our questions are answered. It will be good to do it as a group so there is accountability. Margaret flip flops a lot. She wrote in an email that the harassment case is weak and not to

ask her to represent us in it. She explicitly told me that I especially have a strong case that would most likely win in court, now she is changing her tune, because in my opinion, she wants to cash out on the buyouts.

I, to my knowledge, never agreed to, nor signed anything defining what Margaret's cut of the buyout would be. I never hired her to negotiate any buyouts, nor was this agreed to when we discussed her taking over Petrucci's position. We need to review the

to review the contract that we signed as a group.

Thanks.

Peace,

Christian

Also, we should figure out a time to meet this weekend as a group before then to put together a master list of questions for Margeret so we're not wasting time (money).

I think if we got that evidence it would obviously make our case for the PAA but could also strengthen our position for negotiating higher buyouts.

As I said before, I'd like to get the PAA signed off on and rebuild my place and move back in but if the buyout were high enough, I'd consider leaving.

Thank you for spelling all this out, all good things to consider!

Sounds like we should schedule a group call with Margaret. In our last call we had talked about delegating one of us to do the talking while the rest of us listen in and chime in if there's something worth clarifying. Happy to be that person,

but if someone feels strongly about it, happy to let them take the lead.

I'm going to reach out to Margaret to get some times that work for her and then we can all pick one that works best for us.

Also, who is responsible for paying Margaret for our group cost (700$)? Do we need to put more money into that pot? Please let us know what you need from us to get our balance paid.

Is there a good time we could meet in the near future before talking to Margaret so we can collect our thoughts / streamline our questions for when we do all have a call with her?

I'm available pretty much anytime over the next few days. Would be great to have this initial meeting by end of this weekend so we can get on a call w her first thing next week.

Greetings TA,

The main obstacle in the way of Marty filing for a demo permit and demolishing the building is the fact that we have loft law and he needs to bring the whole building up to code and signed off on by DOB before he can file for a demo permit. It makes sense

that Marty would want to demo the building. There are major structural issues that need to be dealt with on top of bringing the rest of the building up to code. It would be cheaper and much quicker to buy us out, not renew the 1-year long leases that the rest of the tenants who aren't covered by loft law, and clear the building. He could develop it himself or sell to a developer for a much higher price, if the building was empty. The Colbs said they wouldn't leave for less than a $1M buyout.

The harassment suit is dire for Marty if he has any intention of developing the building himself, as he cannot buy us out. It would also take the value of the building down if he were to sell to a developer.

Its my opinion that Marty intends to demolish the building. The mysterious flyer claims that that's what his plan is too. We should use this to get very high buyouts. Has anyone reached out to the email address on the flyer?

I don't particularly want to move out. I would like to get the PAA signed off on. That was the whole point of the harassment suite to begin with. That being said, if the buyout was high I would seriously consider it.

Marty doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us out so he can move along with his plan. Nothing can stop him, to my knowledge, once all of the Loft-law covered tenants are out. This position and the fact that his potential plans get derailed

if he gets hit with a harassment conviction, puts us in a very strong position. Marty's is playing chicken with the harassment suite, but he also doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us leave. It's seems to me that this would be an ideal situation

to get a very high buyout. Otherwise he's stuck with us, potentially not paying rent, unable to buy us out, with severe consequences if he gets hit with another harassment suite and loses.

Did anyone talk with Margaret?

Did anyone give numbers?

Here's info from two real-estate professionals:

Our price per square foot can range from $1,300 to $1,600.

My unit is @ 1,700 sq.ft

@ $1,300 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.21M

@ $1,400 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.38M

@ $1,500 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.55M

@ $1,600 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.72M

That's market rate right now in our area.

Even if Marty bought us out for 1M a piece he'd be making out, especially considering that if the harassment suite goes through, which Margaret said that it will, especially with my case, his position is seriously compromised. Marty will spend exponentially

more just bringing the building up to code, not to mention the amount of time that the whole process would take...many years, it will take years to get the demo permit and evict us after getting the DOB to sign off on the legalization. As many have already said,

Marty has no intention once legalizing the building, but I think that he would like to demo it asap.

Also Margaret needs to subpoena the Narrative Conference record where everyone agreed to the PAA. We should figure out a time when we can all meet with her so we can all get on the same page.

Please update the group with where you're at with your number, what communication you've had with Margaret, and how you think we should move forward.

Thanks,

Christian

I think it'd be good to come up w a number for Margaret by end of the week. If nothing else, just to have a starting point.

Reply to this email with your unit number and the amount you'd want for a buy out. This is for between us only, I think we should just tell Margaret the grand total.

I'll go first, I'm increasing my amount after our call w Margaret.

if you want to add or change anything please do it using "comments" or change the color of your font and add your thoughts to this as opposed to removing anything, just so we can keep track of everything.

I'm still volunteering to be our speaking representative, at least in the beginning of the meeting, just to keep things streamlined / get all these questions answered. If anyone has an objection to that, let me know.

Of course we want to get these questions answered before we consider our buyout number, but if we are seriously considering taking this opportunity to walk away, we should all be zeroing in on what we'd like to get paid and what we'd be ok with getting paid.

Talk soon and see you all tomorrow!

Discussed subpoenaing Loft Board meeting where everyone agreed on the PAAs. Can only do that through some kind of case.

Is there another way Marty can demo the building that we don't know about? One where we wouldn't get as much for our rights?

Is the DOB fining Marty for putting the steel polls up on Green St?

Is Marty's daughter taking over APC?

Point - Marty can't get hit with harassment.

Point - Kate, Erez, Christain would be fine with keeping the PAAs as is just not preferable.

Find out about subletting for Loft Board tenants.

We don't have to pay rent, but that's asking for trouble.

Christain ?

Anyone else besides the Kolb's and Aaron (Margret told me Aaron will get covered)

What right do we have if city says building has to come down?

We need to start looking into other representation? Kozack?

Will getting PAAs give us leverage and increase value?

Does there need to be a certain number of units for units to remain under loft law protection?

I was pretty careful speaking with her to keep conversation about me and not others, certainly not with specifics. I recall saying "you'll need to speak to them" when she volunteered info or asked about anybody else.

I don't disagree with you but in my case she has pointed out some problems that are valid and could end up screwing me if I continue with the same attitude I had a few months ago. I agree with her that I should negotiate a buyout if possible.

Also, if we get the NC record, it has Bob Petrucci asking for the PAA agreement in writing.

He's telling Margaret that he wasn't hired for that reason. That was the only reason that we had him there, for situations like that, and to get the agreements in a binding contract. We can ask him for our $ back. He'll probably just give it to us. Maybe.

We could also sue Bob for all the $ that we've spent trying to get the PAA enforced. Margaret already said that she wouldn't represent us in a suit against Bob because they are friends, but that we would have grounds to sue him.

Getting the record will also hold Michael Bobbick accountable as well.

Thanks for the information. Not that it matters at this point but I definitely didn't "come to her for a buyout." I received the same emails as the rest of you and when I asked her to clarify a few things she basically told me I had jeopardized

my loft and continues to tell me how vulnerable my situation is every time we speak. Im ok pursuing a buyout and moving on from the building but she really didn't advise me about any other way forward.

On Sun, Jul 17, 2022 at 11:45 PM Kathryn Downie <downiekathryn@hotmail.com> wrote:

Hey everyone,

I had a long talk with Margret, here is the gist and important points. We can talk about everything in more detail when we get together. I mostly passing on what she said as best I can.

It's in Margret's retainer that she gets 10% if she negotiates a buy out.

I really pressed her about why she is pushing us to sell.

She said she has done everything she can do to get the PAAs passed and she doesn't know what else to do. She said if Lisa was still alive it would have passed, if a couple other things had happened it would have passed.

She said she is worried that Marty's new lawyers are vicious and it makes her worried.

She said if the building gets demolished we only get what the city says which won't be much.

I asked about if Marty just sells, and the new owners have to buy us out? I'm not really sure how she answered that.

She went into a lengthy explanation about the joys of home ownership. That the the buy out should only be large enough to put a down payment on a house. I explained I wanted to stay in Greenpoint and I couldn't do that in GP.

I explained I was happy at my apartment so why would I sell to move somewhere smaller in a neighborhood I don't want to live when I can just stay here. She started pushing Hudson Valley and giving lots of examples of how her other clients use there buy out to buy property other places.

I told her I would be fine with the PAA as is. I would like to change it. Everyone agreed to have it my way at the NS at the Loft Board and then it just didn't end up in the plans. But I could take it as it is.

She said she mostly started pushing the buyouts because she doesn't know how else to get the PAAs through and David and Phil came to her asking her to negotiate a buyout so she thought it would be best for everyone especially

because of Marty's new lawyers.

She asked why we didn't fill out the right paper work in the 45 days. I said Petrucci and Arthur were supposed to. She said P told her he wasn't hired to do that.

She talked at length about how much she likes Petrucci.

She said that just because something didn't go the way we want doesn't mean someone did something wrong.

She said Christain should only be asking for 1M. She said he would need all kind of proof about how he lost recordings and stuff like that for more.

She said Erez was in the best position - He is happy with his PAA, he has been there with no issue proving it and Marty wouldn't make him try.

We talke at length about my situation - that I thought it was crazy that I would loose everythign because during 2020 I might only be able to prove I spent 5 month there instead of 6. She said it would depend on the judge. She said it was fine if I was away for work if I could prove it. She said I might have to involve my work, that was fine I told he. She said I wouldn't just have to prove it. She said I would have to show every single bank statement, every debit card transaction. I'll admit I don't like the sound of that. I don't want every single thing I have done, every single thing I bought, every single thing I have been paid for scrutinized by multiply people .

I said I didn't understand why I was a target. She said she has no reason but what other people have said about me. I said I will scream if I hear that again. She said she knows I've been away, so I have been away,

and if Marty's lawyers ask me for a discovery I would have to prove it by showing every single thing I bought with my debit card. I said if we don't have a reason to think that Marty will do that then we should just move forward like everything is fine since

it is. She said if I ask for a big buyout it could give him reason to target me. I'll admit she made me nervous. I can't handle a big court case I can't handle showing everything I've purchased to a judge. I'll have to look into that and see if she's right about that. She said it happened to another client, and the court saw everything she bought and it was really embarrassing.

She said Christain should ask for 1M, Erez $750, and me David, and Phil should split 1M. Sorry gang but I'm not walking away with $330. It would have to be my only option. My apartment is huge. I'm on the corner.

Marty can't build anything next to it either. I can sign off on the PAAs as is if need be. And I can live happily in my apartment in GP for many years. I can't handle a discovery from Marty - that's the only thing against me. I have to do some research.

She talked about other people in the building that aren't part of our FTA but I can't remember what she said.

She said yes we should ask higher but not too much higher or everything could get screwed.

Anyway - let's talk soon.

Yes, let's get a debit card issued for the TA bank account and have it on file at Margaret's office. That's the arrangement I have with them for my personal account. They ask for permission to bill the card or I just give them permission when I get a bill and it's done.

We should definitely make a list of questions and have a meeting as a group before our meeting with Margaret. Margaret tends not to answer questions directly a lot of the time. We should be explicit that she need to answer the questions directly before

we move on the the next question and wrap the meeting only when all of our questions are answered. It will be good to do it as a group so there is accountability. Margaret flip flops a lot. She wrote in an email that the harassment case is weak and not to

ask her to represent us in it. She explicitly told me that I especially have a strong case that would most likely win in court, now she is changing her tune, because in my opinion, she wants to cash out on the buyouts.

I, to my knowledge, never agreed to, nor signed anything defining what Margaret's cut of the buyout would be. I never hired her to negotiate any buyouts, nor was this agreed to when we discussed her taking over Petrucci's position. We need to review the

to review the contract that we signed as a group.

Thanks.

Peace,

Christian

As I said before, I'd like to get the PAA signed off on and rebuild my place and move back in but if the buyout were high enough, I'd consider leaving.

Thank you for spelling all this out, all good things to consider!

Sounds like we should schedule a group call with Margaret. In our last call we had talked about delegating one of us to do the talking while the rest of us listen in and chime in if there's something worth clarifying. Happy to be that person, but if someone feels strongly about it, happy to let them take the lead.

I'm going to reach out to Margaret to get some times that work for her and then we can all pick one that works best for us.

Also, who is responsible for paying Margaret for our group cost (700$)? Do we need to put more money into that pot? Please let us know what you need from us to get our balance paid.

Is there a good time we could meet in the near future before talking to Margaret so we can collect our thoughts / streamline our questions for when we do all have a call with her?

I'm available pretty much anytime over the next few days. Would be great to have this initial meeting by end of this weekend so we can get on a call w her first thing next week.

Greetings TA,

The main obstacle in the way of Marty filing for a demo permit and demolishing the building is the fact that we have loft law and he needs to bring the whole building up to code and signed off on by DOB before he can file for a demo permit. It makes sense

that Marty would want to demo the building. There are major structural issues that need to be dealt with on top of bringing the rest of the building up to code. It would be cheaper and much quicker to buy us out, not renew the 1-year long leases that the rest of the tenants who aren't covered by loft law, and clear the building. He could develop it himself or sell to a developer for a much higher price, if the building was empty. The Colbs said they wouldn't leave for less than a $1M buyout.

The harassment suit is dire for Marty if he has any intention of developing the building himself, as he cannot buy us out. It would also take the value of the building down if he were to sell to a developer.

It's my opinion that Marty intends to demolish the building. The mysterious flyer claims that that's what his plan is too. We should use this to get very high buyouts. Has anyone reached out to the email address on the flyer?

I don't particularly want to move out. I would like to get the PAA signed off on. That was the whole point of the harassment suite to begin with. That being said, if the buyout was high I would seriously consider it.

Marty doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us out so he can move along with his plan. Nothing can stop him, to my knowledge, once all of the Loft-law covered tenants are out. This position and the fact that his potential plans get derailed

if he gets hit with a harassment conviction, puts us in a very strong position. Marty's is playing chicken with the harassment suite, but he also doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us leave. It seems to me that this would be an ideal situation

to get a very high buyout. Otherwise he's stuck with us, potentially not paying rent, unable to buy us out, with severe consequences if he gets hit with another harassment suite and loses.

Did anyone talk with Margaret?

Did anyone give numbers?

Here's info from two real-estate professionals:

Our price per square foot can range from $1,300 to $1,600.

My unit is @ 1,700 sq.ft

@ $1,300 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.21M

@ $1,400 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.38M

@ $1,500 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.55M

@ $1,600 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.72M

That's market rate right now in our area.

Even if Marty bought us out for 1M a piece he'd be making out, especially considering that if the harassment suite goes through, which Margaret said that it will, especially with my case, his position is seriously compromised. Marty will spend exponentially

more just bringing the building up to code, not to mention the amount of time that the whole process would take...many years, it will take years to get the demo permit and evict us after getting the DOB to sign off on the legalization. As many have already said,

Marty has no intention once legalizing the building, but I think that he would like to demo it asap.

Also Margaret needs to subpoena the Narrative Conference record where everyone agreed to the PAA. We should figure out a time when we can all meet with her so we can all get on the same page.

Please update the group with where you're at with your number, what communication you've had with Margaret, and how you think we should move forward.

Thanks,

Christian

if you want to add or change anything please do it using "comments" or change the color of your font and add your thoughts to this as opposed to removing anything, just so we can keep track of everything.

I'm still volunteering to be our speaking representative, at least in the beginning of the meeting, just to keep things streamlined / get all these questions answered. If anyone has an objection to that, let me know.

Of course we want to get these questions answered before we consider our buyout number, but if we are seriously considering taking this opportunity to walk away, we should all be zeroing in on what we'd like to get paid and what we'd be ok with getting paid.

Is there another way Marty can demo the building that we don't know about? One where we wouldn't get as much for our rights?

Is the DOB fining Marty for putting the steel polls up on Green St?

Is Marty's daughter taking over APC?

Point - Marty can't get hit with harassment.

Point - Kate, Erez, Christain would be fine with keeping the PAAs as is just not preferable.

Find out about subletting for Loft Board tenants.

We don't have to pay rent, but that's asking for trouble.

What would out number be as a group if we took the buyout? Can we all have a different number? Erez $750, Kate $750 (maybe a little lower), David $100 ?, Phil / Theo ?, Christain ?

Anyone else besides the Kolb's and Aaron (Margret told me Aaron will get covered)

What right do we have if city says building has to come down?

We need to start looking into other representation? Kozack?

Will getting PAAs give us leverage and increase value?

Does there need to be a certain number of units for units to remain under loft law protection?

I was pretty careful speaking with her to keep conversation about me and not others, certainly not with specifics. I recall saying "you'll need to speak to them" when she volunteered info or asked about anybody else.

I don't disagree with you but in my case she has pointed out some problems that are valid and could end up screwing me if I continue with the same attitude I had a few months ago. I agree with her that I should negotiate a buyout if possible.

Also, if we get the NC record, it has Bob Petrucci asking for the PAA agreement in writing.

He's telling Margaret that he wasn't hired for that reason. That was the only reason that we had him there, for situations like that, and to get the agreements in a binding contract. We can ask him for our $ back. He'll probably just give it to us. Maybe.

We could also sue Bob for all the $ that we've spent trying to get the PAA enforced. Margaret already said that she wouldn't represent us in a suit against Bob because they are friends, but that we would have grounds to sue him.

Getting the record will also hold Michael Bobbick accountable as well.

Thanks for the information. Not that it matters at this point but I definitely didn't "come to her for a buyout." I received the same emails as the rest of you and when I asked her to clarify a few things she basically told me I had jeopardized

my loft and continues to tell me how vulnerable my situation is every time we speak. Im ok pursuing a buyout and moving on from the building but she really didn't advise me about any other way forward.

On Sun, Jul 17, 2022 at 11:45 PM Kathryn Downie <downiekathryn@hotmail.com> wrote:

Hey everyone,

I had a long talk with Margret, here is the gist and important points. We can talk about everything in more detail when we get together. I mostly passing on what she said as best I can.

It's in Margret's retainer that she gets 10% if she negotiates a buy out.

I really pressed her about why she is pushing us to sell.

She said she has done everything she can do to get the PAAs passed and she doesn't know what else to do. She said if Lisa was still alive it would have passed, if a couple other things had happened it would have passed.

She said she is worried that Marty's new lawyers are vicious and it makes her worried.

She said if the building gets demolished we only get what the city says which won't be much.

I asked about if Marty just sells, and the new owners have to buy us out? I'm not really sure how she answered that.

She went into a lengthy explanation about the joys of home ownership. That the the buy out should only be large enough to put a down payment on a house. I explained I wanted to stay in Greenpoint and I couldn't do that in GP.

I explained I was happy at my apartment so why would I sell to move somewhere smaller in a neighborhood I don't want to live when I can just stay here. She started pushing Hudson Valley and giving lots of examples of how her other clients use there buy out to buy property other places.

I told her I would be fine with the PAA as is. I would like to change it. Everyone agreed to have it my way at the NS at the Loft Board and then it just didn't end up in the plans. But I could take it as it is.

She said she mostly started pushing the buyouts because she doesn't know how else to get the PAAs through and David and Phil came to her asking her to negotiate a buyout so she thought it would be best for everyone especially

because of Marty's new lawyers.

She asked why we didn't fill out the right paper work in the 45 days. I said Petrucci and Arthur were supposed to. She said P told her he wasn't hired to do that.

She talked at length about how much she likes Petrucci.

She said that just because something didn't go the way we want doesn't mean someone did something wrong.

She said Christain should only be asking for 1M. She said he would need all kind of proof about how he lost recordings and stuff like that for more.

She said Erez was in the best position - He is happy with his PAA, he has been there with no issue proving it and Marty wouldn't make him try.

We talke at length about my situation - that I thought it was crazy that I would loose everythign because during 2020 I might only be able to prove I spent 5 month there instead of 6. She said it would depend on the judge. She said it was fine if I was away for work if I could prove it. She said I might have to involve my work, that was fine I told he. She said I wouldn't just have to prove it. She said I would have to show every single bank statement, every debit

I said I didn't understand why I was a target. She said she has no reason but what other people have said about me. I said I will scream if I hear that again. She said she knows

I've been away, so I have been away,

and if Marty's lawyers ask me for a discovery I would have to prove it by showing every single thing I bought with my debit card. I said if we don't have a reason to think that Marty will do that then we should just move forward like everything is fine since it is. She said if I ask for a big buyout it could give him reason to target me. I'll admit she made me nervous. I can't handle a big court case I can't handle showing everything I've purchased to a judge. I'll have to look into that and see if she's right about that. She said it happened to another client, and the court saw everything she bought and it was really embarrassing.

She said Christain should ask for 1M, Erez $750, and me David, and Phil should split 1M. Sorry gang but I'm not walking away with $330. It would have to be my only option. My apartment is huge. I'm on the corner.

Marty can't build anything next to it either. I can sign off on the PAAs as is if need be. And I can live happily in my apartment in GP for many years. I can't handle a discovery from Marty - that's the only thing against me. I have to do some research.

She talked about other people in the building that aren't part of our FTA but I can't remember what she said.

She said yes we should ask higher but not too much higher or everything could get screwed.

Anyway - let's talk soon.

Yes, let's get a debit card issued for the TA bank account and have it on file at Margaret's office. That's the arrangement I have with them for my personal account. They ask for permission to bill the card or I just give them permission when I get a bill and it's done.

We should definitely make a list of questions and have a meeting as a group before our meeting with Margaret. Margaret tends not to answer questions directly a lot of the time. We should be explicit that she need to answer the questions directly before

we move on the the next question and wrap the meeting only when all of our questions are answered. It will be good to do it as a group so there is accountability. Margaret flip flops a lot. She wrote in an email that the harassment case is weak and not to

I, to my knowledge, never agreed to, nor signed anything defining what Margaret's cut of the buyout would be. I never hired her to negotiate any buyouts, nor was this agreed to when we discussed her taking over Petrucci's position. We need to review the contract. Has anyone else signed or discussed this with Margaret? She tried to say the Golden Drum would have to pay her a percentage of their buyout after they fired her and went with a different lawyer. We should all be on the same page about this. We need to review the contract that we signed as a group.

Thanks.

Peace,

Christian

As I said before, I'd like to get the PAA signed off on and rebuild my place and move back in but if the buyout were high enough, I'd consider leaving.

Thank you for spelling all this out, all good things to consider!

Sounds like we should schedule a group call with Margaret. In our last call we had talked about delegating one of us to do the talking while the rest of us listen in and chime in if there's something worth clarifying. Happy to be that person,

but if someone feels strongly about it, happy to let them take the lead.

I'm going to reach out to Margaret to get some times that work for her and then we can all pick one that works best for us.

Also, who is responsible for paying Margaret for our group cost (700$)? Do we need to put more money into that pot? Please let us know what you need from us to get our balance paid.

Is there a good time we could meet in the near future before talking to Margaret so we can collect our thoughts / streamline our questions for when we do all have a call with her?

I'm available pretty much anytime over the next few days. Would be great to have this initial meeting by end of this weekend so we can get on a call w her first thing next week.

Greetings TA,

The main obstacle in the way of Marty filing for a demo permit and demolishing the building is the fact that we have loft law and he needs to bring the whole building up to code and signed off on by DOB before he can file for a demo permit. It makes sense

that Marty would want to demo the building. There are major structural issues that need to be dealt with on top of bringing the rest of the building up to code. It would be cheaper and much quicker to buy us out, not renew the 1-year long leases that the rest of the tenants who aren't covered by loft law, and clear the building. He could develop it himself or sell to a developer for a much higher price, if the building was empty. The Colbs said they wouldn't leave for less than a $1M buyout.

The harassment suit is dire for Marty if he has any intention of developing the building himself, as he cannot buy us out. It would also take the value of the building down if he were to sell to a developer.

It's my opinion that Marty intends to demolish the building. The mysterious flyer claims that that's what his plan is too. We should use this to get very high buyouts. Has anyone reached out to the email address on the flyer?

I don't particularly want to move out. I would like to get the PAA signed off on. That was the whole point of the harassment suite to begin with. That being said, if the buyout was high I would seriously consider it.

Marty doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us out so he can move along with his plan. Nothing can stop him, to my knowledge, once all of the Loft-law covered tenants are out. This position and the fact that his potential plans get derailed

if he gets hit with a harassment conviction, puts us in a very strong position. Marty's is playing chicken with the harassment suite, but he also doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us leave. It seems to me that this would be an ideal situation

to get a very high buyout. Otherwise he's stuck with us, potentially not paying rent, unable to buy us out, with severe consequences if he gets hit with another harassment suite and loses.

Did anyone talk with Margaret?

Did anyone give numbers?

Here's info from two real-estate professionals:

Our price per square foot can range from $1,300 to $1,600.

My unit is @ 1,700 sq.ft

@ $1,300 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.21M

@ $1,400 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.38M

@ $1,500 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.55M

@ $1,600 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.72M

That's market rate right now in our area.

Even if Marty bought us out for 1M a piece he'd be making out, especially considering that if the harassment suite goes through, which Margaret said that it will, especially with my case, his position is seriously compromised. Marty will spend exponentially

more just bringing the building up to code, not to mention the amount of time that the whole process would take...many years, it will take years to get the demo permit and evict us after getting the DOB to sign off on the legalization. As many have already said,

Marty has no intention once legalizing the building, but I think that he would like to demo it asap.

Also Margaret needs to subpoena the Narrative Conference record where everyone agreed to the PAA. We should figure out a time when we can all meet with her so we can all get on the same page.

Please update the group with where you're at with your number, what communication you've had with Margaret, and how you think we should move forward.

Thanks,

Christian

if you want to add or change anything please do it using "comments" or change the color of your font and add your thoughts to this as opposed to removing anything, just so we can keep track of everything.

I'm still volunteering to be our speaking representative, at least in the beginning of the meeting, just to keep things streamlined / get all these questions answered. If anyone has an objection to that, let me know.

Of course we want to get these questions answered before we consider our buyout number, but if we are seriously considering taking this opportunity to walk away, we should all be zeroing in on what we'd like to get paid and what we'd be ok with getting paid.

Margaret just got back to me, she's available anytime during business hours on Wednesday.

Can we make that work? If anyone has any preference on time, please let me know, would like to get back to her today w a time that works for all of us.

Discussed subpoenaing Loft Board meeting where everyone agreed on the PAAs. Can only do that through some kind of case.

Is there another way Marty can demo the building that we don't know about? One where we wouldn't get as much for our rights?

Is the DOB fining Marty for putting the steel polls up on Green St?

Is Marty's daughter taking over APC?

Point - Marty can't get hit with harassment.

Point - Kate, Erez, Christain would be fine with keeping the PAAs as is just not preferable.

Find out about subletting for Loft Board tenants.

We don't have to pay rent, but that's asking for trouble.

Look into how discovery works. Would have have to show every single this we spent money on and received money for?

What would out number be as a group if we took the buyout? Can we all have a different number? Erez $750, Kate $750)maybe a little lower), David $100 ?, Phil / Theo ?, Christain ?

Anyone else besides the Kolb's and Aaron (Margret told me Aaron will get covered)

What right do we have if city says building has to come down?

We need to start looking into other representation? Kozack?

Will getting PAAs give us leverage and increase value?

Does there need to be a certain number of units for units to remain under loft law protection?

I was pretty careful speaking with her to keep conversation about me and not others, certainly not with specifics. I recall saying "you'll need to speak to them" when she volunteered info or asked about anybody else.

I don't disagree with you but in my case she has pointed out some problems that are valid and could end up screwing me if I continue with the same attitude I had a few months ago. I agree with her that I should negotiate a buyout if possible.

We could also sue Bob for all the $ that we've spent trying to get the PAA enforced. Margaret already said that she wouldn't represent us in a suit against Bob because they are friends, but that we would have grounds to sue him.

Getting the record will also hold Michael Bobbick accountable as well.

my loft and continues to tell me how vulnerable my situation is every time we speak. Im ok pursuing a buyout and moving on from the building but she really didn't advise me about any other way forward.

On Sun, Jul 17, 2022 at 11:45 PM Kathryn Downie <downiekathryn@hotmail.com> wrote:

Hey everyone,

I had a long talk with Margret, here is the gist and important points. We can talk about everything in more detail when we get together. I mostly passing on what she said as best I can.

It's in Margret's retainer that she gets 10% if she negotiates a buy out.

I really pressed her about why she is pushing us to sell.

She said she has done everything she can do to get the PAAs passed and she doesn't know what else to do. She said if Lisa was still alive it would have passed, if a couple other things had happened it would have passed.

She said she is worried that Marty's new lawyers are vicious and it makes her worried.

She said if the building gets demolished we only get what the city says which won't be much.

I asked about if Marty just sells, and the new owners have to buy us out? I'm not really sure how she answered that.

She went into a lengthy explanation about the joys of home ownership. That the the buy out should only be large enough to put a down payment on a house. I explained I wanted to stay in Greenpoint and I couldn't do that in GP.

I explained I was happy at my apartment so why would I sell to move somewhere smaller in a neighborhood I don't want to live when I can just stay here. She started pushing Hudson Valley and giving lots of examples of how her other clients use there buy out to buy property other places.

I told her I would be fine with the PAA as is. I would like to change it. Everyone agreed to have it my way at the NS at the Loft Board and then it just didn't end up in the plans. But I could take it as it is.

She said she mostly started pushing the buyouts because she doesn't know how else to get the PAAs through and David and Phil came to her asking her to negotiate a buyout so she thought it would be best for everyone especially

because of Marty's new lawyers.

She asked why we didn't fill out the right paper work in the 45 days. I said Petrucci and Arthur were supposed to. She said P told her he wasn't hired to do that.

She talked at length about how much she likes Petrucci.

She said that just because something didn't go the way we want doesn't mean someone did something wrong.

She said Christain should only be asking for 1M. She said he would need all kind of proof about how he lost recordings and stuff like that for more.

She said Erez was in the best position - He is happy with his PAA, he has been there with no issue proving it and Marty wouldn't make him try.

We talke at length about my situation - that I thought it was crazy that I would loose everythign because during 2020 I might only be able to prove I spent 5 month there instead of 6. She said it would depend on the judge. She said it was fine if I was away for work if I could prove it. She said I might have to involve my work, that was fine I told he. She said I wouldn't just have to prove it. She said I would have to show every single bank statement, every debit

card transaction. I'll admitt I don't like the sound of that. I don't want every single thing I have done, every single thing I bought, every single thing I have been paid for scrutinized by multiply people .

I said I didn't understand why Iwas a target. She said she has no reason but what other people have said about me. I said I will scream if I hear that again. She said she knows

I've been away, so I have been away,

and if Marty's lawyers ask me for a discovery I would have to prove it by showing every single thing I bought with my debit card. I said if we don't have a reason to think that Marty will do that then we should just move forward like everything is fine since it is. She said if I ask for a big buyout it could give him reason to target me. I'll admit she made me nervous. I can't handle a big court case I can't handle showing everything I've purchased to a judge. I'll have to look into that and see if she's right about that. She said it happened to another client, and the court saw everything she bought and it was really embarrassing.

She said Christain should ask for 1M, Erez $750, and me David, and Phil should split 1M. Sorry gang but I'm not walking away with $330. It would have to be my only option. My apartment is huge. I'm on the corner.

Marty can't build anything next to it either. I can sign off on the PAAs as is if need be. And I can live happily in my apartment in GP for many years. I can't handle a discovery from Marty - that's the only thing against me. I have to do some research.

She talked about other people in the building that aren't part of our FTA but I can't remember what she said.

She said yes we should ask higher but not too much higher or everything could get screwed.

Anyway - let's talk soon.

Yes, let's get a debit card issued for the TA bank account and have it on file at Margaret's office. That's the arrangement I have with them for my personal account. They ask for permission to bill the card or I just give them permission when I get a bill and it's done.

We should definitely make a list of questions and have a meeting as a group before our meeting with Margaret. Margaret tends not to answer questions directly a lot of the time. We should be explicit that she need to answer the questions directly before

we move on the the next question and wrap the meeting only when all of our questions are answered. It will be good to do it as a group so there is accountability. Margaret flip flops a lot. She wrote in an email that the harassment case is weak and not to

I, to my knowledge, never agreed to, nor signed anything defining what Margaret's cut of the buyout would be. I never hired her to negotiate any buyouts, nor was this agreed to when we discussed her taking over Petrucci's position. We need to review the contract. Has anyone else signed or discussed this with Margaret? She tried to say the Golden Drum would have to pay her a percentage of their buyout after they fired her and went with a different lawyer. We should all be on the same page about this. We need to review the contract that we signed as a group.

Thanks.

Peace,

Christian

Thank you for spelling all this out, all good things to consider!

Sounds like we should schedule a group call with Margaret. In our last call we had talked about delegating one of us to do the talking while the rest of us listen in and chime in if there's something worth clarifying. Happy to be that person,

but if someone feels strongly about it, happy to let them take the lead.

I'm going to reach out to Margaret to get some times that work for her and then we can all pick one that works best for us.

Also, who is responsible for paying Margaret for our group cost (700$)? Do we need to put more money into that pot? Please let us know what you need from us to get our balance paid.

Is there a good time we could meet in the near future before talking to Margaret so we can collect our thoughts / streamline our questions for when we do all have a call with her?

I'm available pretty much anytime over the next few days. Would be great to have this initial meeting by end of this weekend so we can get on a call w her first thing next week.

On Wed, Jul 13, 2022 at 9:39 PM Christian Gray <christiangray3@protonmail.com> wrote:

Greetings TA,

The main obstacle in the way of Marty filing for a demo permit and demolishing the building is the fact that we have loft law and he needs to bring the whole building up to code and signed off on by DOB before he can file for a demo permit. It makes sense

that Marty would want to demo the building. There are major structural issues that need to be dealt with on top of bringing the rest of the building up to code. It would be cheaper and much quicker to buy us out, not renew the 1-year long leases that the rest of the tenants who aren't covered by loft law, and clear the building. He could develop it himself or sell to a developer for a much higher price, if the building was empty. The Colbs said they wouldn't leave for less than a $1M buyout.

The harassment suit is dire for Marty if he has any intention of developing the building himself, as he cannot buy us out. It would also take the value of the building down if he were to sell to a developer.

It's my opinion that Marty intends to demolish the building. The mysterious flyer claims that that's what his plan is too. We should use this to get very high buyouts. Has anyone reached out to the email address on the flyer?

I don't particularly want to move out. I would like to get the PAA signed off on. That was the whole point of the harassment suite to begin with. That being said, if the buyout was high I would seriously consider it.

Marty doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us out so he can move along with his plan. Nothing can stop him, to my knowledge, once all of the Loft-law covered tenants are out. This position and the fact that his potential plans get derailed

if he gets hit with a harassment conviction, puts us in a very strong position. Marty's is playing chicken with the harassment suite, but he also doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us leave. It seems to me that this would be an ideal situation

to get a very high buyout. Otherwise he's stuck with us, potentially not paying rent, unable to buy us out, with severe consequences if he gets hit with another harassment suite and loses.

Did anyone talk with Margaret?

Did anyone give numbers?

Here's info from two real-estate professionals:

Our price per square foot can range from $1,300 to $1,600.

My unit is @ 1,700 sq.ft

@ $1,300 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.21M

@ $1,400 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.38M

@ $1,500 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.55M

@ $1,600 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.72M

That's market rate right now in our area.

Even if Marty bought us out for 1M a piece he'd be making out, especially considering that if the harassment suite goes through, which Margaret said that it will, especially with my case, his position is seriously compromised. Marty will spend exponentially

more just bringing the building up to code, not to mention the amount of time that the whole process would take...many years, it will take years to get the demo permit and evict us after getting the DOB to sign off on the legalization. As many have already said,

Marty has no intention once legalizing the building, but I think that he would like to demo it asap.

Also Margaret needs to subpoena the Narrative Conference record where everyone agreed to the PAA. We should figure out a time when we can all meet with her so we can all get on the same page.

Please update the group with where you're at with your number, what communication you've had with Margaret, and how you think we should move forward.

Thanks,

Christian

if you want to add or change anything please do it using "comments" or change the color of your font and add your thoughts to this as opposed to removing anything, just so we can keep track of everything.

I'm still volunteering to be our speaking representative, at least in the beginning of the meeting, just to keep things streamlined / get all these questions answered. If anyone has an objection to that, let me know.

Of course we want to get these questions answered before we consider our buyout number, but if we are seriously considering taking this opportunity to walk away, we should all be zeroing in on what we'd like to get paid and what we'd be ok with getting paid.

Great, we're on for Monday 3pm EST with Margaret. I'll send out an invite for everyone, Margaret will be calling in (not able to do a video call).

Also, I'll send out an email with our questions for Margaret based on the last conversation we had among ourselves. We can add or amend so we have an efficient line of questioning for her.

Discussed subpoenaing Loft Board meeting where everyone agreed on the PAAs. Can only do that through some kind of case.

Is there another way Marty can demo the building that we don't know about? One where we wouldn't get as much for our rights?

Is the DOB fining Marty for putting the steel polls up on Green St?

Is Marty's daughter taking over APC?

Point - Marty can't get hit with harassment.

Point - Kate, Erez, Christain would be fine with keeping the PAAs as is just not preferable.

Find out about subletting for Loft Board tenants.

We don't have to pay rent, but that's asking for trouble.

What would out number be as a group if we took the buyout? Can we all have a different number? Erez $750, Kate $750 (maybe a little lower), David $100 ?, Phil / Theo ?, Christain ?

Anyone else besides the Kolb's and Aaron (Margret told me Aaron will get covered)

What right do we have if city says building has to come down?

We need to start looking into other representation? Kozack?

Will getting PAAs give us leverage and increase value?

Does there need to be a certain number of units for units to remain under loft law protection?

I was pretty careful speaking with her to keep conversation about me and not others, certainly not with specifics. I recall saying "you'll need to speak to them" when she volunteered info or asked about anybody else.

I don't disagree with you but in my case she has pointed out some problems that are valid and could end up screwing me if I continue with the same attitude I had a few months ago. I agree with her that I should negotiate a buyout if possible.

We could also sue Bob for all the $ that we've spent trying to get the PAA enforced. Margaret already said that she wouldn't represent us in a suit against Bob because they are friends, but that we would have grounds to sue him.

Getting the record will also hold Michael Bobbick accountable as well.

On Sun, Jul 17, 2022 at 11:45 PM Kathryn Downie <downiekathryn@hotmail.com> wrote:

Hey everyone,

I had a long talk with Margret, here is the gist and important points. We can talk about everything in more detail when we get together. I mostly passing on what she said as best I can.

It's in Margret's retainer that she gets 10% if she negotiates a buy out.

I really pressed her about why she is pushing us to sell.

She said she has done everything she can do to get the PAAs passed and she doesn't know what else to do. She said if Lisa was still alive it would have passed, if a couple other things had happened it would have passed.

She said she is worried that Marty's new layers are vicious and it makes her worried.

She said if the building gets demolished we only get what the city says which won't be much.

I asked about if Marty just sells, and the new owners have to buy us out? I'm not really sure how she answered that.

She went into a lengthy explanation about the joys of home ownership. That the the buy out should only be large enough to put a down payment on a house. I explained I wanted to stay in Greenpoint and I couldn't do that in GP.

I explained I was happy at my apartment so why would I sell to move somewhere smaller in a neighborhood I don't want to live when I can just stay here. She started pushing Hudson Valley and giving lots of examples of how her other clients use there buy out to buy property other places.

I told her I would be fine with the PAA as is. I would like to change it. Everyone agreed to have it my way at the NS at the Loft Board and then it just didn't end up in the plans. But I could take it as it is.

She said she mostly started pushing the buyouts because she doesn't know how else to get the PAAs through and David and Phil came to her asking her to negotiate a buyout so she thought it would be best for everyone especially

because of Marty's new lawyers.

She asked why we didn't fill out the right paper work in the 45 days. I said Petrucci and Arthur were supposed to. She said P told her he wasn't hired to do that.

She talked at length about how much she likes Petrucci.

She said that just because something didn't go the way we want doesn't mean someone did something wrong.

She said Christain should only be asking for 1M. She said he would need all kind of proof about how he lost recordings and stuff like that for more.

She said Erez was in the best position - He is happy with his PAA, he has been there with no issue proving it and Marty wouldn't make him try.

We talke at length about my situation - that I thought it was crazy that I would loose everythign because during 2020 I might only be able to prove I spent 5 month there instead of 6. She said it would depend on the judge. She said it was fine if I was away for work if I could prove it. She said I might have to involve my work, that was fine I told he. She said I wouldn't just have to prove it. She said I would have to show every single bank statement, every debit

card transaction. I'll admitt I don't like the sound of that. I don't want every single thing I have done, every single thing I bought, every single thing I have been paid for scrutinized by multiply people .

I said I didn't understand why Iwas a target. She said she has no reason but what other people have said about me. I said I will scream if I hear that again. She said she knows I've been away, so I have been away,

and if Marty's lawyers ask me for a discovery I would have to prove it by showing every single thing I bought with my debit card. I said if we don't have a reason to think that Marty will do that then we should just move forward like everything is fine since

it is. She said if I ask for a big buyout it could give him reason to target me. I'll admit she made me nervous. I can't handle a big court case I can't handle showing everything I've purchased to a judge. I'll have to look into that and see if she's right about that. She said it happened to another client, and the court saw everythign she bought and it was really embarrassing.

She said Christain should ask for 1M, Erez $750, and me David, and Phil should split 1M. Sorry gang but I'm not walking away with $330. It would have to be my only option. My apartment is huge. I'm on the corner.

Marty can't build anythign next to it either. I can sign off on the PAAs as is if need be. And I can live happily in my apartment in GP for many years. I can't handle a discovery from Marty - that's the only thing against me. I have to do some research.

She talked about other people in the building that aren't part of our FTA but I can't remember what she said.

She said yes we should ask higher but not too much higher or everthing could get screwed.

Anyway - let's talk soon.

Yes, let's get a debit card issued for the TA bank account and have it on file at Margaret's office. That's the arrangement I have with them for my personal account. They ask for permission to bill the card or I just give them permission when I get a bill and it's done.

We should definitely make a list of questions and have a meeting as a group before our meeting with Margaret. Margaret tends not to answer questions directly a lot of the time. We should be explicit that she need to answer the questions directly before

we move on the the next question and wrap the meeting only when all of our questions are answered. It will be good to do it as a group so there is accountability. Margaret flip flops a lot. She wrote in an email that the harassment case is weak and not to

ask her to represent us in it. She explicitly told me that I especially have a strong case that would most likely win in court, now she is changing her tune, because in my opinion, she wants to cash out on the buyouts.

I, to my knowledge, never agreed to, nor signed anything defining what Margaret's cut of the buyout would be. I never hired her to negotiate any buyouts, nor was this agreed to when we discussed her taking over Petrucci's position. We need to review the

to review the contract that we signed as a group.

Thanks.

Christian

Thank you for spelling all this out, all good things to consider!

Sounds like we should schedule a group call with Margaret. In our last call we had talked about delegating one of us to do the talking while the rest of us listen in and chime in if there's something worth clarifying. Happy to be that person,

but if someone feels strongly about it, happy to let them take the lead.

I'm going to reach out to Margaret to get some times that work for her and then we can all pick one that works best for us.

Also, who is responsible for paying Margaret for our group cost (700$)? Do we need to put more money into that pot? Please let us know what you need from us to get our balance paid.

Is there a good time we could meet in the near future before talking to Margaret so we can collect our thoughts / streamline our questions for when we do all have a call with her?

I'm available pretty much anytime over the next few days. Would be great to have this initial meeting by end of this weekend so we can get on a call w her first thing next week.

Greetings TA,

The main obstacle in the way of Marty filing for a demo permit and demolishing the building is the fact that we have loft law and he needs to bring the whole building up to code and signed off on by DOB before he can file for a demo permit. It makes sense

that Marty would want to demo the building. There are major structural issues that need to be dealt with on top of bringing the rest of the building up to code. It would be cheaper and much quicker to buy us out, not renew the 1-year long leases that the rest of the tenants who aren't covered by loft law, and clear the building. He could develop it himself or sell to a developer for a much higher price, if the building was empty. The Colbs said they wouldn't leave for less than a $1M buyout.

The harassment suit is dire for Marty if he has any intention of developing the building himself, as he cannot buy us out. It would also take the value of the building down if he were to sell to a developer.

Its my opinion that Marty intends to demolish the building. The mysterious flyer claims that that's what his plan is too. We should use this to get very high buyouts. Has anyone reached out to the email address on the flyer?

I don't particularly want to move out. I would like to get the PAA signed off on. That was the whole point of the harassment suite to begin with. That being said, if the buyout was high I would seriously consider it.

Marty doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us out so he can move along with his plan. Nothing can stop him, to my knowledge, once all of the Loft-law covered tenants are out. This position and the fact that his potential plans get derailed

if he gets hit with a harassment conviction, puts us in a very strong position. Marty's is playing chicken with the harassment suite, but he also doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us leave. It's seems to me that this would be an ideal situation

to get a very high buyout. Otherwise he's stuck with us, potentially not paying rent, unable to buy us out, with severe consequences if he gets hit with another harassment suite and loses.

Did anyone talk with Margaret?

Did anyone give numbers?

Here's info from two real-estate professionals:

Our price per square foot can range from $1,300 to $1,600.

My unit is @ 1,700 sq.ft

@ $1,300 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.21M

@ $1,400 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.38M

@ $1,500 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.55M

@ $1,600 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.72M

That's market rate right now in our area.

Even if Marty bought us out for 1M a piece he'd be making out, especially considering that if the harassment suite goes through, which Margaret said that it will, especially with my case, his position is seriously compromised. Marty will spend exponentially

more just bringing the building up to code, not to mention the amount of time that the whole process would take...many years, it will take years to get the demo permit and evict us after getting the DOB to sign off on the legalization. As many have already said,

Marty has no intention once legalizing the building, but I think that he would like to demo it asap.

Also Margaret needs to subpoena the Narrative Conference record where everyone agreed to the PAA. We should figure out a time when we can all meet with her so we can all get on the same page.

Please update the group with where you're at with your number, what communication you've had with Margaret, and how you think we should move forward.

Thanks,

Christian

Hey all,

I think it'd be good to come up w a number for Margaret by end of the week. If nothing else, just to have a starting point.

Reply to this email with your unit number and the amount you'd want for a buy out. This is for between us only, I think we should just tell Margaret the grand total.

I'll go first, I'm increasing my amount after our call w Margaret.

Hey everyone,

Here's a link to a google doc with our questions for Margaret tomorrow,

<https://docs.google.com/document/d/10GIIdAtyTQhwGUc3P-hImj-1TmR0k1yBU9vKl77fYgTY/edit>

if you want to add or change anything please do it using "comments" or change the color of your font and add your thoughts to this as opposed to removing anything, just so we can keep track of everything.

I'm still volunteering to be our speaking representative, at least in the beginning of the meeting, just to keep things streamlined / get all these questions answered. If anyone has an objection to that, let me know.

Of course we want to get these questions answered before we consider our buyout number, but if we are seriously considering taking this opportunity to walk away, we should all be zeroing in on what we'd like to get paid and what we'd be ok with getting paid.

Talk soon and see you all tomorrow!

Is there another way Marty can demo the building that we don't know about? One where we wouldn't get as much for our rights?

Is the DOB fining Marty for putting the steel polls up on Green St?

Is Marty's daughter taking over APC?

Point - Marty can't get hit with harassment.

Point - Kate, Erez, Christain would be fine with keeping the PAAs as is just not preferable.

Find out about subletting for Loft Board tenants.

We don't have to pay rent, but that's asking for trouble.

What would out number be as a group if we took the buyout? Can we all have a different number? Erez $750, Kate $750 (maybe a little lower), David $100 ?, Phil / Theo ?, Christain ?

Anyone else besides the Kolb's and Aaron (Margret told me Aaron will get covered)

What right do we have if city says building has to come down?

We need to start looking into other representation? Kozack?

Will getting PAAs give us leverage and increase value?

Does there need to be a certain number of units for units to remain under loft law protection?

I was pretty careful speaking with her to keep conversation about me and not others, certainly not with specifics. I recall saying "you'll need to speak to them" when she volunteered info or asked about anybody else.

I don't disagree with you but in my case she has pointed out some problems that are valid and could end up screwing me if I continue with the same attitude I had a few months ago. I agree with her that I should negotiate a buyout if possible.

We could also sue Bob for all the $ that we've spent trying to get the PAA enforced. Margaret already said that she wouldn't represent us in a suit against Bob because they are friends, but that we would have grounds to sue him.

Getting the record will also hold Michael Bobbick accountable as well.

On Sun, Jul 17, 2022 at 11:45 PM Kathryn Downie <downiekathryn@hotmail.com> wrote:

Hey everyone,

I had a long talk with Margret, here is the gist and important points. We can talk about everything in more detail when we get together. I mostly passing on what she said as best I can.

It's in Margret's retainer that she gets 10% if she negotiates a buy out.

I really pressed her about why she is pushing us to sell.

She said she has done everything she can do to get the PAAs passed and she doesn't know what else to do. She said if Lisa was still alive it would have passed, if a couple other things had happened it would have passed.

She said she is worried that Marty's new lawyers are vicious and it makes her worried.

She said if the building gets demolished we only get what the city says which won't be much.

I asked about if Marty just sells, and the new owners have to buy us out? I'm not really sure how she answered that.

She went into a lengthy explanation about the joys of home ownership. That the the buy out should only be large enough to put a down payment on a house. I explained I wanted to stay in Greenpoint and I couldn't do that in GP.

I explained I was happy at my apartment so why would I sell to move somewhere smaller in a neighborhood I don't want to live when I can just stay here. She started pushing Hudson Valley and giving lots of examples of how her other clients use there buy out to buy property other places.

I told her I would be fine with the PAA as is. I would like to change it. Everyone agreed to have it my way at the NS at the Loft Board and then it just didn't end up in the plans. But I could take it as it is.

She said she mostly started pushing the buyouts because she doesn't know how else to get the PAAs through and David and Phil came to her asking her to negotiate a buyout so she thought it would be best for everyone especially

because of Marty's new lawyers.

She asked why we didn't fill out the right paper work in the 45 days. I said Petrucci and Arthur were supposed to. She said P told her he wasn't hired to do that.

She talked at length about how much she likes Petrucci.

She said that just because something didn't go the way we want doesn't mean someone did something wrong.

She said Christain should only be asking for 1M. She said he would need all kind of proof about how he lost recordings and stuff like that for more.

She said Erez was in the best position - He is happy with his PAA, he has been there with no issue proving it and Marty wouldn't make him try.

We talke at length about my situation - that I thought it was crazy that I would loose everythign because during 2020 I might only be able to prove I spent 5 month there instead of 6. She said it would depend on the judge. She said it was fine if I was away for work if I could prove it. She said I might have to involve my work, that was fine I told he. She said I wouldn't just have to prove it. She said I would have to show every single bank statement, every debit

card transaction. I'll admitt I don't like the sound of that. I don't want every single thing I have done, every single thing I bought, every single thing I have been paid for scrutinized by multiply people .

I said I didn't understand why I was a target. She said she has no reason but what other people have said about me. I said I will scream if I hear that again. She said she knows

I've been away, so I have been away,

and if Marty's lawyers ask me for a discovery I would have to prove it by showing every single thing I bought with my debit card. I said if we don't have a reason to think that Marty will do that then we should just move forward like everything is fine since it is. She said if I ask for a big buyout it could give him reason to target me. I'll admit she made me nervous. I can't handle a big court case I can't handle showing everything I've purchased to a judge. I'll have to look into that and see if she's right about that. She said it happened to another client, and the court saw everything she bought and it was really embarrassing.

She said Christain should ask for 1M, Erez $750, and me David, and Phil should split 1M. Sorry gang but I'm not walking away with $330. It would have to be my only option. My apartment is huge. I'm on the corner.

Marty can't build anything next to it either. I can sign off on the PAAs as is if need be. And I can live happily in my apartment in GP for many years. I can't handle a discovery from Marty - that's the only thing against me. I have to do some research.

She talked about other people in the building that aren't part of our FTA but I can't remember what she said.

She said yes we should ask higher but not too much higher or everything could get screwed.

Anyway - let's talk soon.

Yes, let's get a debit card issued for the TA bank account and have it on file at Margaret's office. That's the arrangement I have with them for my personal account. They ask for permission to bill the card or I just give them permission when I get a bill and it's done.

We should definitely make a list of questions and have a meeting as a group before our meeting with Margaret. Margaret tends not to answer questions directly a lot of the time. We should be explicit that she need to answer the questions directly before

we move on the the next question and wrap the meeting only when all of our questions are answered. It will be good to do it as a group so there is accountability. Margaret flip flops a lot. She wrote in an email that the harassment case is weak and not to

I, to my knowledge, never agreed to, nor signed anything defining what Margaret's cut of the buyout would be. I never hired her to negotiate any buyouts, nor was this agreed to when we discussed her taking over Petrucci's position. We need to review the contract. Has anyone else signed or discussed this with Margaret? She tried to say the Golden Drum would have to pay her a percentage of their buyout after they fired her and went with a different lawyer. We should all be on the same page about this. We need to review the contract that we signed as a group.

Thanks.

Christian

Thank you for spelling all this out, all good things to consider!

Sounds like we should schedule a group call with Margaret. In our last call we had talked about delegating one of us to do the talking while the rest of us listen in and chime in if there's something worth clarifying. Happy to be that person,

but if someone feels strongly about it, happy to let them take the lead.

I'm going to reach out to Margaret to get some times that work for her and then we can all pick one that works best for us.

Also, who is responsible for paying Margaret for our group cost (700$)? Do we need to put more money into that pot? Please let us know what you need from us to get our balance paid.

Is there a good time we could meet in the near future before talking to Margaret so we can collect our thoughts / streamline our questions for when we do all have a call with her?

I'm available pretty much anytime over the next few days. Would be great to have this initial meeting by end of this weekend so we can get on a call w her first thing next week.

Greetings TA,

The main obstacle in the way of Marty filing for a demo permit and demolishing the building is the fact that we have loft law and he needs to bring the whole building up to code and signed off on by DOB before he can file for a demo permit. It makes sense

that Marty would want to demo the building. There are major structural issues that need to be dealt with on top of bringing the rest of the building up to code. It would be cheaper and much quicker to buy us out, not renew the 1-year long leases that the rest of the tenants who aren't covered by loft law, and clear the building. He could develop it himself or sell to a developer for a much higher price, if the building was empty. The Colbs said they wouldn't leave for less than a $1M buyout.

The harassment suit is dire for Marty if he has any intention of developing the building himself, as he cannot buy us out. It would also take the value of the building down if he were to sell to a developer.

It's my opinion that Marty intends to demolish the building. The mysterious flyer claims that that's what his plan is too. We should use this to get very high buyouts. Has anyone reached out to the email address on the flyer?

I don't particularly want to move out. I would like to get the PAA signed off on. That was the whole point of the harassment suite to begin with. That being said, if the buyout was high I would seriously consider it.

Marty doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us out so he can move along with his plan. Nothing can stop him, to my knowledge, once all of the Loft-law covered tenants are out. This position and the fact that his potential plans get derailed

if he gets hit with a harassment conviction, puts us in a very strong position. Marty's is playing chicken with the harassment suite, but he also doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us leave. It seems to me that this would be an ideal situation

to get a very high buyout. Otherwise he's stuck with us, potentially not paying rent, unable to buy us out, with severe consequences if he gets hit with another harassment suite and loses.

Our price per square foot can range from $1,300 to $1,600.

My unit is @ 1,700 sq.ft

@ $1,300 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.21M

@ $1,400 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.38M

@ $1,500 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.55M

@ $1,600 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.72M

That's market rate right now in our area.

Even if Marty bought us out for 1M a piece he'd be making out, especially considering that if the harassment suite goes through, which Margaret said that it will, especially with my case, his position is seriously compromised. Marty will spend exponentially

more just bringing the building up to code, not to mention the amount of time that the whole process would take...many years, it will take years to get the demo permit and evict us after getting the DOB to sign off on the legalization. As many have already said,

Marty has no intention once legalizing the building, but I think that he would like to demo it asap.

Also Margaret needs to subpoena the Narrative Conference record where everyone agreed to the PAA. We should figure out a time when we can all meet with her so we can all get on the same page.

Please update the group with where you're at with your number, what communication you've had with Margaret, and how you think we should move forward.

Thanks,

Christian

Hey all,

I think it'd be good to come up w a number for Margaret by end of the week. If nothing else, just to have a starting point.

Reply to this email with your unit number and the amount you'd want for a buy out. This is for between us only, I think we should just tell Margaret the grand total.

I'll go first, I'm increasing my amount after our call w Margaret.

Hey everyone,

Here's a link to a google doc with our questions for Margaret tomorrow,

<https://docs.google.com/document/d/10GIIdAtyTQhwGUc3P-hImj-1TmR0k1yBU9vKL77fYgTY/edit>

if you want to add or change anything please do it using "comments" or change the color of your font and add your thoughts to this as opposed to removing anything, just so we can keep track of everything.

I'm still volunteering to be our speaking representative, at least in the beginning of the meeting, just to keep things streamlined / get all these questions answered. If anyone has an objection to that, let me know.

Of course we want to get these questions answered before we consider our buyout number, but if we are seriously considering taking this opportunity to walk away, we should all be zeroing in on what we'd like to get paid and what we'd be ok with getting paid.

Talk soon and see you all tomorrow!

Is there another way Marty can demo the building that we don't know about? One where we wouldn't get as much for our rights?

Is the DOB fining Marty for putting the steel polls up on Green St?

Is Marty's daughter taking over APC?

Point - Marty can't get hit with harassment.

Point - Kate, Erez, Christain would be fine with keeping the PAAs as is just not preferable.

Find out about subletting for Loft Board tenants.

We don't have to pay rent, but that's asking for trouble.

Look into how discovery works. Would have have to show every single this we spent money on and received money for?

What would out number be as a group if we took the buyout? Can we all have a different number? Erez $750, Kate $750)maybe a little lower), David $100 ?, Phil / Theo ?, Christain ?

Anyone else besides the Kolb's and Aaron (Margret told me Aaron will get covered)

What right do we have if city says building has to come down?

We need to start looking into other representation? Kozack?

Will getting PAAs give us leverage and increase value?

Does there need to be a certain number of units for units to remain under loft law protection?

I was pretty careful speaking with her to keep conversation about me and not others, certainly not with specifics. I recall saying "you'll need to speak to them" when she volunteered info or asked about anybody else.

I don't disagree with you but in my case she has pointed out some problems that are valid and could end up screwing me if I continue with the same attitude I had a few months ago. I agree with her that I should negotiate a buyout if possible.

We could also sue Bob for all the $ that we've spent trying to get the PAA enforced. Margaret already said that she wouldn't represent us in a suit against Bob because they are friends, but that we would have grounds to sue him.

Getting the record will also hold Michael Bobbick accountable as well.

On Sun, Jul 17, 2022 at 11:45 PM Kathryn Downie <downiekathryn@hotmail.com> wrote:

Hey everyone,

I had a long talk with Margret, here is the gist and important points. We can talk about everything in more detail when we get together. I mostly passing on what she said as best I can.

It's in Margret's retainer that she gets 10% if she negotiates a buy out.

I really pressed her about why she is pushing us to sell.

She said she has done everything she can do to get the PAAs passed and she doesn't know what else to do. She said if Lisa was still alive it would have passed, if a couple other things had happened it would have passed.

She said she is worried that Marty's new layers are vicious and it makes her worried.

She said if the building gets demolished we only get what the city says which won't be much.

I asked about if Marty just sells, and the new owners have to buy us out? I'm not really sure how she answered that.

She went into a lengthy explanation about the joys of home ownership. That the the buy out should only be large enough to put a down payment on a house. I explained I wanted to stay in Greenpoint and I couldn't do that in GP.

I explained I was happy at my apartment so why would I sell to move somewhere smaller in a neighborhood I don't want to live when I can just stay here. She started pushing Hudson Valley and giving lots of examples of how her other clients use there buy out to buy property other places.

I told her I would be fine with the PAA as is. I would like to change it. Everyone agreed to have it my way at the NS at the Loft Board and then it just didn't end up in the plans. But I could take it as it is.

She said she mostly started pushing the buyouts because she doesn't know how else to get the PAAs through and David and Phil came to her asking her to negotiate a buyout so she thought it would be best for everyone especially

because of Marty's new lawyers.

She asked why we didn't fill out the right paper work in the 45 days. I said Petrucci and Arthur were supposed to. She said P told her he wasn't hired to do that.

She talked at length about how much she likes Petrucci.

She said that just because something didn't go the way we want doesn't mean someone did something wrong.

She said Christain should only be asking for 1M. She said he would need all kind of proof about how he lost recordings and stuff like that for more.

She said Erez was in the best position - He is happy with his PAA, he has been there with no issue proving it and Marty wouldn't make him try.

We talke at length about my situation - that I thought it was crazy that I would loose everythign because during 2020 I might only be able to prove I spent 5 month there instead of 6. She said it would depend on the judge. She said it was fine if I was away for work if I could prove it. She said I might have to involve my work, that was fine I told he. She said I wouldn't just have to prove it. She said I would have to show every single bank statement, every debit

card transaction. I'll admitt I don't like the sound of that. I don't want every single thing I have done, every single thing I bought, every single thing I have been paid for scrutinized by multiply people .

I said I didn't understand why I was a target. She said she has no reason but what other people have said about me. I said I will scream if I hear that again. She said she knows I've been away, so I have been away,

and if Marty's lawyers ask me for a discovery I would have to prove it by showing every single thing I bought with my debit card. I said if we don't have a reason to think that Marty will do that then we should just move forward like everything is fine since

it is. She said if I ask for a big buyout it could give him reason to target me. I'll admit she made me nervous. I can't handle a big court case I can't handle showing everything I've purchased to a judge. I'll have to look into that and see if she's right about that. She said it happened to another client, and the court saw everything she bought and it was really embarrassing.

She said Christain should ask for 1M, Erez $750, and me David, and Phil should split 1M. Sorry gang but I'm not walking away with $330. It would have to be my only option. My apartment is huge. I'm on the corner.

Marty can't build anything next to it either. I can sign off on the PAAs as is if need be. And I can live happily in my apartment in GP for many years. I can't handle a discovery from Marty - that's the only thing against me. I have to do some research.

She talked about other people in the building that aren't part of our FTA but I can't remember what she said.

She said yes we should ask higher but not too much higher or everything could get screwed.

Anyway - let's talk soon.

Yes, let's get a debit card issued for the TA bank account and have it on file at Margaret's office. That's the arrangement I have with them for my personal account. They ask for permission to bill the card or I just give them permission when I get a bill and it's done.

We should definitely make a list of questions and have a meeting as a group before our meeting with Margaret. Margaret tends not to answer questions directly a lot of the time. We should be explicit that she need to answer the questions directly before

we move on the the next question and wrap the meeting only when all of our questions are answered. It will be good to do it as a group so there is accountability. Margaret flip flops a lot. She wrote in an email that the harassment case is weak and not to

ask her to represent us in it. She explicitly told me that I especially have a strong case that would most likely win in court, now she is changing her tune, because in my opinion, she wants to cash out on the buyouts.

I, to my knowledge, never agreed to, nor signed anything defining what Margaret's cut of the buyout would be. I never hired her to negotiate any buyouts, nor was this agreed to when we discussed her taking over Petrucci's position. We need to review the

to review the contract that we signed as a group.

Thanks.

Peace,

Christian

Margaret is available to meet on Monday anytime before 1pm. Can we all make something in that window work?

Also, we should figure out a time to meet this weekend as a group before then to put together a master list of questions for Margeret so we're not wasting time (money).

Remember that Margaret can subpoena the Narrative Conference record that clearly has all parties agreeing to the PAA and also agreeing to put it in writing. I was sitting there and witnessed the whole thing.

I think if we got that evidence it would obviously make our case for the PAA but could also strengthen our position for negotiating higher buyouts.

As I said before, I'd like to get the PAA signed off on and rebuild my place and move back in but if the buyout were high enough, I'd consider leaving.

I feel the same, don't want to move, had been really excited about getting the PAA signed off on but could be bought out at the right price - 1M or higher.

I put a check for $700 in the mail today.

Sorry I did it so late.

Thank you for spelling all this out, all good things to consider!

Sounds like we should schedule a group call with Margaret. In our last call we had talked about delegating one of us to do the talking while the rest of us listen in and chime in if there's something worth clarifying. Happy to be that person,

but if someone feels strongly about it, happy to let them take the lead.

I'm going to reach out to Margaret to get some times that work for her and then we can all pick one that works best for us.

Also, who is responsible for paying Margaret for our group cost (700$)? Do we need to put more money into that pot? Please let us know what you need from us to get our balance paid.

Is there a good time we could meet in the near future before talking to Margaret so we can collect our thoughts / streamline our questions for when we do all have a call with her?

I'm available pretty much anytime over the next few days. Would be great to have this initial meeting by end of this weekend so we can get on a call w her first thing next week.

Greetings TA,

The main obstacle in the way of Marty filing for a demo permit and demolishing the building is the fact that we have loft law and he needs to bring the whole building up to code and signed off on by DOB before he can file for a demo permit. It makes sense

that Marty would want to demo the building. There are major structural issues that need to be dealt with on top of bringing the rest of the building up to code. It would be cheaper and much quicker to buy us out, not renew the 1-year long leases that the rest of the tenants who aren't covered by loft law, and clear the building. He could develop it himself or sell to a developer for a much higher price, if the building was empty. The Colbs said they wouldn't leave for less than a $1M buyout.

The harassment suit is dire for Marty if he has any intention of developing the building himself, as he cannot buy us out. It would also take the value of the building down if he were to sell to a developer.

Its my opinion that Marty intends to demolish the building. The mysterious flyer claims that that's what his plan is too. We should use this to get very high buyouts. Has anyone reached out to the email address on the flyer?

I don't particularly want to move out. I would like to get the PAA signed off on. That was the whole point of the harassment suite to begin with. That being said, if the buyout was high I would seriously consider it.

Marty doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us out so he can move along with his plan. Nothing can stop him, to my knowledge, once all of the Loft-law covered tenants are out. This position and the fact that his potential plans get derailed

if he gets hit with a harassment conviction, puts us in a very strong position. Marty's is playing chicken with the harassment suite, but he also doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us leave. It's seems to me that this would be an ideal situation

to get a very high buyout. Otherwise he's stuck with us, potentially not paying rent, unable to buy us out, with severe consequences if he gets hit with another harassment suite and loses.

Did anyone talk with Margaret?

Did anyone give numbers?

Here's info from two real-estate professionals:

Our price per square foot can range from $1,300 to $1,600.

My unit is @ 1,700 sq.ft

@ $1,300 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.21M

@ $1,400 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.38M

@ $1,500 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.55M

@ $1,600 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.72M

That's market rate right now in our area.

Even if Marty bought us out for 1M a piece he'd be making out, especially considering that if the harassment suite goes through, which Margaret said that it will, especially with my case, his position is seriously compromised. Marty will spend exponentially

more just bringing the building up to code, not to mention the amount of time that the whole process would take...many years, it will take years to get the demo permit and evict us after getting the DOB to sign off on the legalization. As many have already said,

Marty has no intention once legalizing the building, but I think that he would like to demo it asap.

Also Margaret needs to subpoena the Narrative Conference record where everyone agreed to the PAA. We should figure out a time when we can all meet with her so we can all get on the same page.

Please update the group with where you're at with your number, what communication you've had with Margaret, and how you think we should move forward.

Thanks,

Christian

if you want to add or change anything please do it using "comments" or change the color of your font and add your thoughts to this as opposed to removing anything, just so we can keep track of everything.

I'm still volunteering to be our speaking representative, at least in the beginning of the meeting, just to keep things streamlined / get all these questions answered. If anyone has an objection to that, let me know.

Of course we want to get these questions answered before we consider our buyout number, but if we are seriously considering taking this opportunity to walk away, we should all be zeroing in on what we'd like to get paid and what we'd be ok with getting paid.

Talk soon and see you all tomorrow!

Discussed subpoenaing Loft Board meeting where everyone agreed on the PAAs. Can only do that through some kind of case.

Is there another way Marty can demo the building that we don't know about? One where we wouldn't get as much for our rights?

Is the DOB fining Marty for putting the steel polls up on Green St?

Is Marty's daughter taking over APC?

Point - Marty can't get hit with harassment.

Point - Kate, Erez, Christain would be fine with keeping the PAAs as is just not preferable.

Find out about subletting for Loft Board tenants.

We don't have to pay rent, but that's asking for trouble.

What would out number be as a group if we took the buyout? Can we all have a different number? Erez $750, Kate $750 (maybe a little lower), David $100 ?, Phil / Theo ?, Christain ?

Anyone else besides the Kolb's and Aaron (Margret told me Aaron will get covered)

What right do we have if city says building has to come down?

We need to start looking into other representation? Kozack?

Will getting PAAs give us leverage and increase value?

Does there need to be a certain number of units for units to remain under loft law protection?

I don't disagree with you but in my case she has pointed out some problems that are valid and could end up screwing me if I continue with the same attitude I had a few months ago. I agree with her that I should negotiate a buyout if possible.

On Sun, Jul 17, 2022 at 11:45 PM Kathryn Downie <downiekathryn@hotmail.com> wrote:

Hey everyone,

I had a long talk with Margret, here is the gist and important points. We can talk about everything in more detail when we get together. I mostly passing on what she said as best I can.

It's in Margret's retainer that she gets 10% if she negotiates a buy out.

I really pressed her about why she is pushing us to sell.

She said she has done everything she can do to get the PAAs passed and she doesn't know what else to do. She said if Lisa was still alive it would have passed, if a couple other things had happened it would have passed.

She said she is worried that Marty's new lawyers are vicious and it makes her worried.

She said if the building gets demolished we only get what the city says which won't be much.

I asked about if Marty just sells, and the new owners have to buy us out? I'm not really sure how she answered that.

She went into a lengthy explanation about the joys of home ownership. That the the buy out should only be large enough to put a down payment on a house. I explained I wanted to stay in Greenpoint and I couldn't do that in GP.

I explained I was happy at my apartment so why would I sell to move somewhere smaller in a neighborhood I don't want to live when I can just stay here. She started pushing Hudson Valley and giving lots of examples of how her other clients use there buy out to buy property other places.

I told her I would be fine with the PAA as is. I would like to change it. Everyone agreed to have it my way at the NS at the Loft Board and then it just didn't end up in the plans. But I could take it as it is.

She said she mostly started pushing the buyouts because she doesn't know how else to get the PAAs through and David and Phil came to her asking her to negotiate a buyout so she thought it would be best for everyone especially

because of Marty's new lawyers.

She asked why we didn't fill out the right paper work in the 45 days. I said Petrucci and Arthur were supposed to. She said P told her he wasn't hired to do that.

She talked at length about how much she likes Petrucci.

She said that just because something didn't go the way we want doesn't mean someone did something wrong.

She said Christain should only be asking for 1M. She said he would need all kind of proof about how he lost recordings and stuff like that for more.

She said Erez was in the best position - He is happy with his PAA, he has been there with no issue proving it and Marty wouldn't make him try.

We talke at length about my situation - that I thought it was crazy that I would loose everythign because during 2020 I might only be able to prove I spent 5 month there instead of 6. She said it would depend on the judge. She said it was fine if I was away for work if I could prove it. She said I might have to involve my work, that was fine I told he. She said I wouldn't just have to prove it. She said I would have to show every single bank statement, every debit card transaction. I'll admit I don't like the sound of that. I don't want every single thing I have done, every single thing I bought, every single thing I have been paid for scrutinized by multiply people .

I said I didn't understand why I was a target. She said she has no reason but what other people have said about me. I said I will scream if I hear that again. She said she knows I've been away, so I have been away,

and if Marty's lawyers ask me for a discovery I would have to prove it by showing every single thing I bought with my debit card. I said if we don't have a reason to think that Marty will do that then we should just move forward like everything is fine since

it is. She said if I ask for a big buyout it could give him reason to target me. I'll admit she made me nervous. I can't handle a big court case I can't handle showing everything I've purchased to a judge. I'll have to look into that and see if she's right about that. She said it happened to another client, and the court saw everything she bought and it was really embarrassing.

She said Christain should ask for 1M, Erez $750, and me David, and Phil should split 1M. Sorry gang but I'm not walking away with $330. It would have to be my only option. My apartment is huge. I'm on the corner.

Marty can't build anything next to it either. I can sign off on the PAAs as is if need be. And I can live happily in my apartment in GP for many years. I can't handle a discovery from Marty - that's the only thing against me. I have to do some research.

She talked about other people in the building that aren't part of our FTA but I can't remember what she said.

She said yes we should ask higher but not too much higher or everything could get screwed.

Anyway - let's talk soon.

Yes, let's get a debit card issued for the TA bank account and have it on file at Margaret's office. That's the arrangement I have with them for my personal account. They ask for permission to bill the card or I just give them permission when I get a bill and it's done.

We should definitely make a list of questions and have a meeting as a group before our meeting with Margaret. Margaret tends not to answer questions directly a lot of the time. We should be explicit that she need to answer the questions directly before

we move on the the next question and wrap the meeting only when all of our questions are answered. It will be good to do it as a group so there is accountability. Margaret flip flops a lot. She wrote in an email that the harassment case is weak and not to

ask her to represent us in it. She explicitly told me that I especially have a strong case that would most likely win in court, now she is changing her tune, because in my opinion, she wants to cash out on the buyouts.

I, to my knowledge, never agreed to, nor signed anything defining what Margaret's cut of the buyout would be. I never hired her to negotiate any buyouts, nor was this agreed to when we discussed her taking over Petrucci's position. We need to review the

to review the contract that we signed as a group.

Thanks.

Peace,

Christian

Also, we should figure out a time to meet this weekend as a group before then to put together a master list of questions for Margeret so we're not wasting time (money).

I think if we got that evidence it would obviously make our case for the PAA but could also strengthen our position for negotiating higher buyouts.

As I said before, I'd like to get the PAA signed off on and rebuild my place and move back in but if the buyout were high enough, I'd consider leaving.

Thank you for spelling all this out, all good things to consider!

Sounds like we should schedule a group call with Margaret. In our last call we had talked about delegating one of us to do the talking while the rest of us listen in and chime in if there's something worth clarifying. Happy to be that person, but if someone feels strongly about it, happy to let them take the lead.

I'm going to reach out to Margaret to get some times that work for her and then we can all pick one that works best for us.

Also, who is responsible for paying Margaret for our group cost (700$)? Do we need to put more money into that pot? Please let us know what you need from us to get our balance paid.

Is there a good time we could meet in the near future before talking to Margaret so we can collect our thoughts / streamline our questions for when we do all have a call with her?

I'm available pretty much anytime over the next few days. Would be great to have this initial meeting by end of this weekend so we can get on a call w her first thing next week.

Greetings TA,

The main obstacle in the way of Marty filing for a demo permit and demolishing the building is the fact that we have loft law and he needs to bring the whole building up to code and signed off on by DOB before he can file for a demo permit. It makes sense

that Marty would want to demo the building. There are major structural issues that need to be dealt with on top of bringing the rest of the building up to code. It would be cheaper and much quicker to buy us out, not renew the 1-year long leases that the rest of the tenants who aren't covered by loft law, and clear the building. He could develop it himself or sell to a developer for a much higher price, if the building was empty. The Colbs said they wouldn't leave for less than a $1M buyout.

The harassment suit is dire for Marty if he has any intention of developing the building himself, as he cannot buy us out. It would also take the value of the building down if he were to sell to a developer.

Its my opinion that Marty intends to demolish the building. The mysterious flyer claims that that's what his plan is too. We should use this to get very high buyouts. Has anyone reached out to the email address on the flyer?

I don't particularly want to move out. I would like to get the PAA signed off on. That was the whole point of the harassment suite to begin with. That being said, if the buyout was high I would seriously consider it.

Marty doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us out so he can move along with his plan. Nothing can stop him, to my knowledge, once all of the Loft-law covered tenants are out. This position and the fact that his potential plans get derailed

if he gets hit with a harassment conviction, puts us in a very strong position. Marty's is playing chicken with the harassment suite, but he also doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us leave. It's seems to me that this would be an ideal situation

to get a very high buyout. Otherwise he's stuck with us, potentially not paying rent, unable to buy us out, with severe consequences if he gets hit with another harassment suite and loses.

Did anyone talk with Margaret?

Did anyone give numbers?

Here's info from two real-estate professionals:

Our price per square foot can range from $1,300 to $1,600.

My unit is @ 1,700 sq.ft

@ $1,300 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.21M

@ $1,400 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.38M

@ $1,500 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.55M

@ $1,600 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.72M

That's market rate right now in our area.

Even if Marty bought us out for 1M a piece he'd be making out, especially considering that if the harassment suite goes through, which Margaret said that it will, especially with my case, his position is seriously compromised. Marty will spend exponentially

more just bringing the building up to code, not to mention the amount of time that the whole process would take...many years, it will take years to get the demo permit and evict us after getting the DOB to sign off on the legalization. As many have already said,

Marty has no intention once legalizing the building, but I think that he would like to demo it asap.

Also Margaret needs to subpoena the Narrative Conference record where everyone agreed to the PAA. We should figure out a time when we can all meet with her so we can all get on the same page.

Please update the group with where you're at with your number, what communication you've had with Margaret, and how you think we should move forward.

Thanks,

Christian

if you want to add or change anything please do it using "comments" or change the color of your font and add your thoughts to this as opposed to removing anything, just so we can keep track of everything.

I'm still volunteering to be our speaking representative, at least in the beginning of the meeting, just to keep things streamlined / get all these questions answered. If anyone has an objection to that, let me know.

Of course we want to get these questions answered before we consider our buyout number, but if we are seriously considering taking this opportunity to walk away, we should all be zeroing in on what we'd like to get paid and what we'd be ok with getting paid.

Talk soon and see you all tomorrow!

Discussed subpoenaing Loft Board meeting where everyone agreed on the PAAs. Can only do that through some kind of case.

Is there another way Marty can demo the building that we don't know about? One where we wouldn't get as much for our rights?

Is the DOB fining Marty for putting the steel polls up on Green St?

Is Marty's daughter taking over APC?

Point - Marty can't get hit with harassment.

Point - Kate, Erez, Christain would be fine with keeping the PAAs as is just not preferable.

Find out about subletting for Loft Board tenants.

We don't have to pay rent, but that's asking for trouble.

Look into how discovery works. Would have have to show every single this we spent money on and received money for?

What would out number be as a group if we took the buyout? Can we all have a different number? Erez $750, Kate $750)maybe a little lower), David $100 ?, Phil / Theo ?, Christain ?

Anyone else besides the Kolb's and Aaron (Margret told me Aaron will get covered)

What right do we have if city says building has to come down?

We need to start looking into other representation? Kozack?

Will getting PAAs give us leverage and increase value?

Does there need to be a certain number of units for units to remain under loft law protection?

I was pretty careful speaking with her to keep conversation about me and not others, certainly not with specifics. I recall saying "you'll need to speak to them" when she volunteered info or asked about anybody else.

I don't disagree with you but in my case she has pointed out some problems that are valid and could end up screwing me if I continue with the same attitude I had a few months ago. I agree with her that I should negotiate a buyout if possible.

Also, if we get the NC record, it has Bob Petrucci asking for the PAA agreement in writing.

He's telling Margaret that he wasn't hired for that reason. That was the only reason that we had him there, for situations like that, and to get the agreements in a binding contract. We can ask him for our $ back. He'll probably just give it to us. Maybe.

We could also sue Bob for all the $ that we've spent trying to get the PAA enforced. Margaret already said that she wouldn't represent us in a suit against Bob because they are friends, but that we would have grounds to sue him.

Getting the record will also hold Michael Bobbick accountable as well.

Thanks for the information. Not that it matters at this point but I definitely didn't "come to her for a buyout." I received the same emails as the rest of you and when I asked her to clarify a few things she basically told me I had jeopardized

my loft and continues to tell me how vulnerable my situation is every time we speak. Im ok pursuing a buyout and moving on from the building but she really didn't advise me about any other way forward.

On Sun, Jul 17, 2022 at 11:45 PM Kathryn Downie <downiekathryn@hotmail.com> wrote:

Hey everyone,

I had a long talk with Margret, here is the gist and important points. We can talk about everything in more detail when we get together. I mostly passing on what she said as best I can.

It's in Margret's retainer that she gets 10% if she negotiates a buy out.

I really pressed her about why she is pushing us to sell.

She said she has done everything she can do to get the PAAs passed and she doesn't know what else to do. She said if Lisa was still alive it would have passed, if a couple other things had happened it would have passed.

She said she is worried that Marty's new layers are vicious and it makes her worried.

She said if the building gets demolished we only get what the city says which won't be much.

I asked about if Marty just sells, and the new owners have to buy us out? I'm not really sure how she answered that.

She went into a lengthy explanation about the joys of home ownership. That the the buy out should only be large enough to put a down payment on a house. I explained I wanted to stay in Greenpoint and I couldn't do that in GP.

I explained I was happy at my apartment so why would I sell to move somewhere smaller in a neighborhood I don't want to live when I can just stay here. She started pushing Hudson Valley and giving lots of examples of how her other clients use there buy out to buy property other places.

I told her I would be fine with the PAA as is. I would like to change it. Everyone agreed to have it my way at the NS at the Loft Board and then it just didn't end up in the plans. But I could take it as it is.

She said she mostly started pushing the buyouts because she doesn't know how else to get the PAAs through and David and Phil came to her asking her to negotiate a buyout so she thought it would be best for everyone especially

because of Marty's new lawyers.

She asked why we didn't fill out the right paper work in the 45 days. I said Petrucci and Arthur were supposed to. She said P told her he wasn't hired to do that.

She talked at length about how much she likes Petrucci.

She said that just because something didn't go the way we want doesn't mean someone did something wrong.

She said Christain should only be asking for 1M. She said he would need all kind of proof about how he lost recordings and stuff like that for more.

She said Erez was in the best position - He is happy with his PAA, he has been there with no issue proving it and Marty wouldn't make him try.

We talke at length about my situation - that I thought it was crazy that I would loose everythign because during 2020 I might only be able to prove I spent 5 month there instead of 6. She said it would depend on the judge. She said it was fine if I was away for work if I could prove it. She said I might have to involve my work, that was fine I told he. She said I wouldn't just have to prove it. She said I would have to show every single bank statement, every debit

card transaction. I'll admitt I don't like the sound of that. I don't want every single thing I have done, every single thing I bought, every single thing I have been paid for scrutinized by multiply people .

I said I didn't understand why Iwas a target. She said she has no reason but what other people have said about me. I said I will scream if I hear that again. She said she knows I've been away, so I have been away,

and if Marty's lawyers ask me for a discovery I would have to prove it by showing every single thing I bought with my debit card. I said if we don't have a reason to think that Marty will do that then we should just move forward like everything is fine since

it is. She said if I ask for a big buyout it could give him reason to target me. I'll admit she made me nervous. I can't handle a big court case I can't handle showing everything I've purchased to a judge. I'll have to look into that and see if she's right about that. She said it happened to another client, and the court saw everythign she bought and it was really embarrassing.

She said Christain should ask for 1M, Erez $750, and me David, and Phil should split 1M. Sorry gang but I'm not walking away with $330. It would have to be my only option. My apartment is huge. I'm on the corner.

Marty can't build anythign next to it either. I can sign off on the PAAs as is if need be. And I can live happily in my apartment in GP for many years. I can't handle a discovery from Marty - that's the only thing against me. I have to do some research.

She talked about other people in the building that aren't part of our FTA but I can't remember what she said.

She said yes we should ask higher but not too much higher or everthing could get screwed.

Anyway - let's talk soon.

Yes, let's get a debit card issued for the TA bank account and have it on file at Margaret's office. That's the arrangement I have with them for my personal account. They ask for permission to bill the card or I just give them permission when I get a bill and it's done.

We should definitely make a list of questions and have a meeting as a group before our meeting with Margaret. Margaret tends not to answer questions directly a lot of the time. We should be explicit that she need to answer the questions directly before

we move on the the next question and wrap the meeting only when all of our questions are answered. It will be good to do it as a group so there is accountability. Margaret flip flops a lot. She wrote in an email that the harassment case is weak and not to

ask her to represent us in it. She explicitly told me that I especially have a strong case that would most likely win in court, now she is changing her tune, because in my opinion, she wants to cash out on the buyouts.

I, to my knowledge, never agreed to, nor signed anything defining what Margaret's cut of the buyout would be. I never hired her to negotiate any buyouts, nor was this agreed to when we discussed her taking over Petrucci's position. We need to review the

to review the contract that we signed as a group.

Thanks.

Peace,

Christian

As I said before, I'd like to get the PAA signed off on and rebuild my place and move back in but if the buyout were high enough, I'd consider leaving.

Thank you for spelling all this out, all good things to consider!

Sounds like we should schedule a group call with Margaret. In our last call we had talked about delegating one of us to do the talking while the rest of us listen in and chime in if there's something worth clarifying. Happy to be that person,

but if someone feels strongly about it, happy to let them take the lead.

I'm going to reach out to Margaret to get some times that work for her and then we can all pick one that works best for us.

Also, who is responsible for paying Margaret for our group cost (700$)? Do we need to put more money into that pot? Please let us know what you need from us to get our balance paid.

Is there a good time we could meet in the near future before talking to Margaret so we can collect our thoughts / streamline our questions for when we do all have a call with her?

I'm available pretty much anytime over the next few days. Would be great to have this initial meeting by end of this weekend so we can get on a call w her first thing next week.

Greetings TA,

The main obstacle in the way of Marty filing for a demo permit and demolishing the building is the fact that we have loft law and he needs to bring the whole building up to code and signed off on by DOB before he can file for a demo permit. It makes sense

that Marty would want to demo the building. There are major structural issues that need to be dealt with on top of bringing the rest of the building up to code. It would be cheaper and much quicker to buy us out, not renew the 1-year long leases that the rest of the tenants who aren't covered by loft law, and clear the building. He could develop it himself or sell to a developer for a much higher price, if the building was empty. The Colbs said they wouldn't leave for less than a $1M buyout.

The harassment suit is dire for Marty if he has any intention of developing the building himself, as he cannot buy us out. It would also take the value of the building down if he were to sell to a developer.

Its my opinion that Marty intends to demolish the building. The mysterious flyer claims that that's what his plan is too. We should use this to get very high buyouts. Has anyone reached out to the email address on the flyer?

I don't particularly want to move out. I would like to get the PAA signed off on. That was the whole point of the harassment suite to begin with. That being said, if the buyout was high I would seriously consider it.

Marty doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us out so he can move along with his plan. Nothing can stop him, to my knowledge, once all of the Loft-law covered tenants are out. This position and the fact that his potential plans get derailed

if he gets hit with a harassment conviction, puts us in a very strong position. Marty's is playing chicken with the harassment suite, but he also doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us leave. It's seems to me that this would be an ideal situation

to get a very high buyout. Otherwise he's stuck with us, potentially not paying rent, unable to buy us out, with severe consequences if he gets hit with another harassment suite and loses.

Did anyone talk with Margaret?

Did anyone give numbers?

Here's info from two real-estate professionals:

Our price per square foot can range from $1,300 to $1,600.

My unit is @ 1,700 sq.ft

@ $1,300 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.21M

@ $1,400 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.38M

@ $1,500 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.55M

@ $1,600 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.72M

That's market rate right now in our area.

Even if Marty bought us out for 1M a piece he'd be making out, especially considering that if the harassment suite goes through, which Margaret said that it will, especially with my case, his position is seriously compromised. Marty will spend exponentially

more just bringing the building up to code, not to mention the amount of time that the whole process would take...many years, it will take years to get the demo permit and evict us after getting the DOB to sign off on the legalization. As many have already said,

Marty has no intention once legalizing the building, but I think that he would like to demo it asap.

Also Margaret needs to subpoena the Narrative Conference record where everyone agreed to the PAA. We should figure out a time when we can all meet with her so we can all get on the same page.

Please update the group with where you're at with your number, what communication you've had with Margaret, and how you think we should move forward.

Thanks,

Christian

Also, we need to make sure that we are protected from Margaret collecting 10% of any future buyout negotiated by another lawyer or other avenue. Her contract states, as far as I understand it, that she get to collect this if we "authorize her to negotiate a buyout" which is exactly what we will be doing by submitting her numbers. We should protect ourselves from that just in case. We should be able to structure an agreement where it is a single instance, if the buyout does not go through we are not required to pay her 10% in the future if she doesn't negotiate and execute the buyout agreement.

Is it possible for you to add anything to this bill now, like our recent phone with Margret? So that I can get an idea of what we owe for that and then just send one payment for everything.

Thanks

I think it'd be good to come up w a number for Margaret by end of the week. If nothing else, just to have a starting point.

Reply to this email with your unit number and the amount you'd want for a buy out. This is for between us only, I think we should just tell Margaret the grand total.

I'll go first, I'm increasing my amount after our call w Margaret.

Here's a link to a google doc with our questions for Margaret tomorrow,

<https://docs.google.com/document/d/10GIATyTQhwGUc3P-hImj-1TmR0k1yBU9vKL77fYgTY/edit>

if you want to add or change anything please do it using "comments" or change the color of your font and add your thoughts to this as opposed to removing anything, just so we can keep track of everything.

I'm still volunteering to be our speaking representative, at least in the beginning of the meeting, just to keep things streamlined / get all these questions answered. If anyone has an objection to that, let me know.

Of course we want to get these questions answered before we consider our buyout number, but if we are seriously considering taking this opportunity to walk away, we should all be zeroing in on what we'd like to get paid and what we'd be ok with getting paid.

Talk soon and see you all tomorrow!

that through some kind of case.

Is there another way Marty can demo the building that we don't know about? One where we wouldn't get as much for our rights?

Is the DOB fining Marty for putting the steel polls up on Green St?

Is Marty's daughter taking over APC?

Point - Marty can't get hit with harassment.

Point - Kate, Erez, Christain would be fine with keeping the PAAs as is just not preferable.

Find out about subletting for Loft Board tenants.

We don't have to pay rent, but that's asking for trouble.

Look into how discovery works. Would have have to show every single this we spent money on and received money for?

number? Erez $750, Kate $750 (maybe a little lower), David $100 ?, Phil / Theo ?, Christain ?

Anyone else besides the Kolb's and Aaron (Margret told me Aaron will get covered)

What right do we have if city says building has to come down?

We need to start looking into other representation? Kozack?

Will getting PAAs give us leverage and increase value?

Does there need to be a certain number of units for units to remain under loft law

I was pretty careful speaking with her to keep conversation about me and not others, certainly not with specifics. I recall saying "you'll need to speak to them" when she volunteered info or asked about anybody else.

I don't disagree with you but in my case she has pointed out some problems that are valid and could end up screwing me if I continue with the same attitude I had a few months ago. I agree with her that I should negotiate a buyout if possible.

We could also sue Bob for all the $ that we've spent trying to get the PAA enforced. Margaret already said that she wouldn't represent us in a suit against Bob because they are friends, but that we would have grounds to sue him.

Getting the record will also hold Michael Bobbick accountable as well.

On Sun, Jul 17, 2022 at 11:45 PM Kathryn Downie <downiekathryn@hotmail.com> wrote:

Hey everyone,

I had a long talk with Margret, here is the gist and important points. We can talk about everything in more detail when we get together. I mostly passing on what she said as best I can.

It's in Margret's retainer that she gets 10% if she negotiates a buy out.

I really pressed her about why she is pushing us to sell.

She said she has done everything she can do to get the PAAs passed and she doesn't know what else to do. She said if Lisa was still alive it would have passed, if a couple other things had happened it would have passed.

She said she is worried that Marty's new layers are vicious and it makes her worried.

She said if the building gets demolished we only get what the city says which won't be much.

I asked about if Marty just sells, and the new owners have to buy us out? I'm not really sure how she answered that.

She went into a lengthy explanation about the joys of home ownership. That the the buy out should only be large enough to put a down payment on a house. I explained I wanted to stay in Greenpoint and I couldn't do that in GP.

I explained I was happy at my apartment so why would I sell to move somewhere smaller in a neighborhood I don't want to live when I can just stay here. She started pushing Hudson Valley and giving lots of examples of how her other clients use there buy out to buy property other places.

I told her I would be fine with the PAA as is. I would like to change it. Everyone agreed to have it my way at the NS at the Loft Board and then it just didn't end up in the plans. But I could take it as it is.

She said she mostly started pushing the buyouts because she doesn't know how else to get the PAAs through and David and Phil came to her asking her to negotiate a buyout so she thought it would be best for everyone especially because of Marty's new lawyers.

She asked why we didn't fill out the right paper work in the 45 days. I said Petrucci and Arthur were supposed to. She said P told her he wasn't hired to do that.

She talked at length about how much she likes Petrucci.

She said that just because something didn't go the way we want doesn't mean someone did something wrong.

She said Christain should only be asking for 1M. She said he would need all kind of proof about how he lost recordings and stuff like that for more.

She said Erez was in the best position - He is happy with his PAA, he has been there with no issue proving it and Marty wouldn't make him try.

We talke at length about my situation - that I thought it was crazy that I would loose everythign because during 2020 I might only be able to prove I spent 5 month there instead of 6. She said it would depend on the judge. She said it was fine if I was away for work if I could prove it. She said I might have to involve my work, that was fine I told he. She said I wouldn't just have to prove it. She said I would have to show every single bank statement, every debit

card transaction. I'll admitt I don't like the sound of that. I don't want every single thing I have done, every single thing I bought, every single thing I have been paid for scrutinized by multiply people .

I said I didn't understand why Iwas a target. She said she has no reason but what other people have said about me. I said I will scream if I hear that again. She said she knows I've been away, so I have been away,

and if Marty's lawyers ask me for a discovery I would have to prove it by showing every single thing I bought with my debit card. I said if we don't have a reason to think that Marty will do that then we should just move forward like everything is fine since

it is. She said if I ask for a big buyout it could give him reason to target me. I'll admit she made me nervous. I can't handle a big court case I can't handle showing everything I've purchased to a judge. I'll have to look into that and see if she's right about that. She said it happened to another client, and the court saw everythign she bought and it was really embarrassing.

She said Christain should ask for 1M, Erez $750, and me David, and Phil should split 1M. Sorry gang but I'm not walking away with $330. It would have to be my only option. My apartment is huge. I'm on the corner.

Marty can't build anything next to it either. I can sign off on the PAAs as is if need be. And I can live happily in my apartment in GP for many years. I can't handle a discovery from Marty - that's the only thing against me. I have to do some research.

She talked about other people in the building that aren't part of our FTA but I can't remember what she said.

She said yes we should ask higher but not too much higher or everything could get screwed.

Anyway - let's talk soon.

Yes, let's get a debit card issued for the TA bank account and have it on file at Margaret's office. That's the arrangement I have with them for my personal account. They ask for permission to bill the card or I just give them permission when I get a bill and it's done.

We should definitely make a list of questions and have a meeting as a group before our meeting with Margaret. Margaret tends not to answer questions directly a lot of the time. We should be explicit that she need to answer the questions directly before

we move on the the next question and wrap the meeting only when all of our questions are answered. It will be good to do it as a group so there is accountability. Margaret flip flops a lot. She wrote in an email that the harassment case is weak and not to

ask her to represent us in it. She explicitly told me that I especially have a strong case that would most likely win in court, now she is changing her tune, because in my opinion, she wants to cash out on the buyouts.

I, to my knowledge, never agreed to, nor signed anything defining what Margaret's cut of the buyout would be. I never hired her to negotiate any buyouts, nor was this agreed to when we discussed her taking over Petrucci's position. We need to review the

to review the contract that we signed as a group.

Thanks.

Peace,

Christian

Margaret is available to meet on Monday anytime before 1pm. Can we all make something in that window work?

Also, we should figure out a time to meet this weekend as a group before then to put together a master list of questions for Margeret so we're not wasting time (money).

Remember that Margaret can subpoena the Narrative Conference record that clearly has all parties agreeing to the PAA and also agreeing to put it in writing. I was sitting there and witnessed the whole thing.

I think if we got that evidence it would obviously make our case for the PAA but could also strengthen our position for negotiating higher buyouts.

As I said before, I'd like to get the PAA signed off on and rebuild my place and move back in but if the buyout were high enough, I'd consider leaving.

Thank you for spelling all this out, all good things to consider!

Sounds like we should schedule a group call with Margaret. In our last call we had talked about delegating one of us to do the talking while the rest of us listen in and chime in if there's something worth clarifying. Happy to be that person, but if someone feels strongly about it, happy to let them take the lead.

I'm going to reach out to Margaret to get some times that work for her and then we can all pick one that works best for us.

Also, who is responsible for paying Margaret for our group cost (700$)? Do we need to put more money into that pot? Please let us know what you need from us to get our balance paid.

Is there a good time we could meet in the near future before talking to Margaret so we can collect our thoughts / streamline our questions for when we do all have a call with her?

I'm available pretty much anytime over the next few days. Would be great to have this initial meeting by end of this weekend so we can get on a call w her first thing next week.

Greetings TA,

The main obstacle in the way of Marty filing for a demo permit and demolishing the building is the fact that we have loft law and he needs to bring the whole building up to code and signed off on by DOB before he can file for a demo permit. It makes sense

that Marty would want to demo the building. There are major structural issues that need to be dealt with on top of bringing the rest of the building up to code. It would be cheaper and much quicker to buy us out, not renew the 1-year long leases that the rest of the tenants who aren't covered by loft law, and clear the building. He could develop it himself or sell to a developer for a much higher price, if the building was empty. The Colbs said they wouldn't leave for less than a $1M buyout.

The harassment suit is dire for Marty if he has any intention of developing the building himself, as he cannot buy us out. It would also take the value of the building down if he were to sell to a developer.

Its my opinion that Marty intends to demolish the building. The mysterious flyer claims that that's what his plan is too. We should use this to get very high buyouts. Has anyone reached out to the email address on the flyer?

I don't particularly want to move out. I would like to get the PAA signed off on. That was the whole point of the harassment suite to begin with. That being said, if the buyout was high I would seriously consider it.

Marty doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us out so he can move along with his plan. Nothing can stop him, to my knowledge, once all of the Loft-law covered tenants are out. This position and the fact that his potential plans get derailed

if he gets hit with a harassment conviction, puts us in a very strong position. Marty's is playing chicken with the harassment suite, but he also doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us leave. It's seems to me that this would be an ideal situation

to get a very high buyout. Otherwise he's stuck with us, potentially not paying rent, unable to buy us out, with severe consequences if he gets hit with another harassment suite and loses.

Did anyone talk with Margaret?

Did anyone give numbers?

Here's info from two real-estate professionals:

Our price per square foot can range from $1,300 to $1,600.

My unit is @ 1,700 sq.ft

@ $1,300 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.21M

@ $1,400 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.38M

@ $1,500 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.55M

@ $1,600 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.72M

That's market rate right now in our area.

Even if Marty bought us out for 1M a piece he'd be making out, especially considering that if the harassment suite goes through, which Margaret said that it will, especially with my case, his position is seriously compromised. Marty will spend exponentially

more just bringing the building up to code, not to mention the amount of time that the whole process would take...many years, it will take years to get the demo permit and evict us after getting the DOB to sign off on the legalization. As many have already said,

Marty has no intention once legalizing the building, but I think that he would like to demo it asap.

Also Margaret needs to subpoena the Narrative Conference record where everyone agreed to the PAA. We should figure out a time when we can all meet with her so we can all get on the same page.

Please update the group with where you're at with your number, what communication you've had with Margaret, and how you think we should move forward.

Thanks,

Christian

if you want to add or change anything please do it using "comments" or change the color of your font and add your thoughts to this as opposed to removing anything, just so we can keep track of everything.

I'm still volunteering to be our speaking representative, at least in the beginning of the meeting, just to keep things streamlined / get all these questions answered. If anyone has an objection to that, let me know.

Of course we want to get these questions answered before we consider our buyout number, but if we are seriously considering taking this opportunity to walk away, we should all be zeroing in on what we'd like to get paid and what we'd be ok with getting paid.

Talk soon and see you all tomorrow!

Is there another way Marty can demo the building that we don't know about? One where we wouldn't get as much for our rights?

Is the DOB fining Marty for putting the steel polls up on Green St?

Is Marty's daughter taking over APC?

Point - Marty can't get hit with harassment.

Point - Kate, Erez, Christain would be fine with keeping the PAAs as is just not preferable.

Find out about subletting for Loft Board tenants.

We don't have to pay rent, but that's asking for trouble.

Look into how discovery works. Would have have to show every single this we spent money on and received money for?

What would out number be as a group if we took the buyout? Can we all have a different number? Erez $750, Kate $750 (maybe a little lower), David $100 ?, Phil / Theo ?, Christain ?

Anyone else besides the Kolb's and Aaron (Margret told me Aaron will get covered)

What right do we have if city says building has to come down?

We need to start looking into other representation? Kozack?

Will getting PAAs give us leverage and increase value?

Does there need to be a certain number of units for units to remain under loft law protection?

I don't disagree with you but in my case she has pointed out some problems that are valid and could end up screwing me if I continue with the same attitude I had a few months ago. I agree with her that I should negotiate a buyout if possible.

It's in Margret's retainer that she gets 10% if she negotiates a buy out.

I really pressed her about why she is pushing us to sell.

She said she has done everything she can do to get the PAAs passed and she doesn't know what else to do. She said if Lisa was still alive it would have passed, if a couple other things had happened it would have passed.

She said she is worried that Marty's new layers are vicious and it makes her worried.

She said if the building gets demolished we only get what the city says which won't be much.

I asked about if Marty just sells, and the new owners have to buy us out? I'm not really sure how she answered that.

She went into a lengthy explanation about the joys of home ownership. That the the buy out should only be large enough to put a down payment on a house. I explained I wanted to stay in Greenpoint and I couldn't do that in GP.

I explained I was happy at my apartment so why would I sell to move somewhere smaller in a neighborhood I don't want to live when I can just stay here. She started pushing Hudson Valley and giving lots of examples of how her other clients use there buy out to buy property other places.

I told her I would be fine with the PAA as is. I would like to change it. Everyone agreed to have it my way at the NS at the Loft Board and then it just didn't end up in the plans. But I could take it as it is.

She said she mostly started pushing the buyouts because she doesn't know how else to get the PAAs through and David and Phil came to her asking her to negotiate a buyout so she thought it would be best for everyone especially

because of Marty's new lawyers.

She asked why we didn't fill out the right paper work in the 45 days. I said Petrucci and Arthur were supposed to. She said P told her he wasn't hired to do that.

She talked at length about how much she likes Petrucci.

She said that just because something didn't go the way we want doesn't mean someone did something wrong.

She said Christain should only be asking for 1M. She said he would need all kind of proof about how he lost recordings and stuff like that for more.

She said Erez was in the best position - He is happy with his PAA, he has been there with no issue proving it and Marty wouldn't make him try.

We talke at length about my situation - that I thought it was crazy that I would loose everythign because during 2020 I might only be able to prove I spent 5 month there instead of 6. She said it would depend on the judge. She said it was fine if I was away for work if I could prove it. She said I might have to involve my work, that was fine I told he. She said I wouldn't just have to prove it. She said I would have to show every single bank statement, every debit

card transaction. I'll admitt I don't like the sound of that. I don't want every single thing I have done, every single thing I bought, every single thing I have been paid for scrutinized by multiply people .

I said I didn't understand why Iwas a target. She said she has no reason but what other people have said about me. I said I will scream if I hear that again. She said she knows I've been away, so I have been away,

and if Marty's lawyers ask me for a discovery I would have to prove it by showing every single thing I bought with my debit card. I said if we don't have a reason to think that Marty will do that then we should just move forward like everything is fine since

it is. She said if I ask for a big buyout it could give him reason to target me. I'll admit she made me nervous. I can't handle a big court case I can't handle showing everything I've purchased to a judge. I'll have to look into that and see if she's right about that. She said it happened to another client, and the court saw everythign she bought and it was really embarrassing.

She said Christain should ask for 1M, Erez $750, and me David, and Phil should split 1M. Sorry gang but I'm not walking away with $330. It would have to be my only option. My apartment is huge. I'm on the corner.

Marty can't build anythign next to it either. I can sign off on the PAAs as is if need be. And I can live happily in my apartment in GP for many years. I can't handle a discovery from Marty - that's the only thing against me. I have to do some research.

She talked about other people in the building that aren't part of our FTA but I can't remember what she said.

She said yes we should ask higher but not too much higher or everthing could get screwed.

Anyway - let's talk soon.

Yes, let's get a debit card issued for the TA bank account and have it on file at Margaret's office. That's the arrangement I have with them for my personal account. They ask for permission to bill the card or I just give them permission when I get a bill and it's done.

We should definitely make a list of questions and have a meeting as a group before our meeting with Margaret. Margaret tends not to answer questions directly a lot of the time. We should be explicit that she need to answer the questions directly before

we move on the the next question and wrap the meeting only when all of our questions are answered. It will be good to do it as a group so there is accountability. Margaret flip flops a lot. She wrote in an email that the harassment case is weak and not to

ask her to represent us in it. She explicitly told me that I especially have a strong case that would most likely win in court, now she is changing her tune, because in my opinion, she wants to cash out on the buyouts.

I, to my knowledge, never agreed to, nor signed anything defining what Margaret's cut of the buyout would be. I never hired her to negotiate any buyouts, nor was this agreed to when we discussed her taking over Petrucci's position. We need to review the contract. Has anyone else signed or discussed this with Margaret? She tried to say the Golden Drum would have to pay her a percentage of their buyout after they fired her and went with a different lawyer. We should all be on the same page about this. We need to review the contract that we signed as a group.

Thanks.

Peace,

Christian

Also, we should figure out a time to meet this weekend as a group before then to put together a master list of questions for Margeret so we're not wasting time (money).

I think if we got that evidence it would obviously make our case for the PAA but could also strengthen our position for negotiating higher buyouts.

As I said before, I'd like to get the PAA signed off on and rebuild my place and move back in but if the buyout were high enough, I'd consider leaving.

Thank you for spelling all this out, all good things to consider!

Sounds like we should schedule a group call with Margaret. In our last call we had talked about delegating one of us to do the talking while the rest of us listen in and chime in if there's something worth clarifying. Happy to be that person,

but if someone feels strongly about it, happy to let them take the lead.

I'm going to reach out to Margaret to get some times that work for her and then we can all pick one that works best for us.

Also, who is responsible for paying Margaret for our group cost (700$)? Do we need to put more money into that pot? Please let us know what you need from us to get our balance paid.

Is there a good time we could meet in the near future before talking to Margaret so we can collect our thoughts / streamline our questions for when we do all have a call with her?

I'm available pretty much anytime over the next few days. Would be great to have this initial meeting by end of this weekend so we can get on a call w her first thing next week.

Greetings TA,

The main obstacle in the way of Marty filing for a demo permit and demolishing the building is the fact that we have loft law and he needs to bring the whole building up to code and signed off on by DOB before he can file for a demo permit. It makes sense

that Marty would want to demo the building. There are major structural issues that need to be dealt with on top of bringing the rest of the building up to code. It would be cheaper and much quicker to buy us out, not renew the 1-year long leases that the rest of the tenants who aren't covered by loft law, and clear the building. He could develop it himself or sell to a developer for a much higher price, if the building was empty. The Colbs said they wouldn't leave for less than a $1M buyout.

The harassment suit is dire for Marty if he has any intention of developing the building himself, as he cannot buy us out. It would also take the value of the building down if he were to sell to a developer.

Its my opinion that Marty intends to demolish the building. The mysterious flyer claims that that's what his plan is too. We should use this to get very high buyouts. Has anyone reached out to the email address on the flyer?

I don't particularly want to move out. I would like to get the PAA signed off on. That was the whole point of the harassment suite to begin with. That being said, if the buyout was high I would seriously consider it.

Marty doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us out so he can move along with his plan. Nothing can stop him, to my knowledge, once all of the Loft-law covered tenants are out. This position and the fact that his potential plans get derailed

if he gets hit with a harassment conviction, puts us in a very strong position. Marty's is playing chicken with the harassment suite, but he also doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us leave. It's seems to me that this would be an ideal situation

to get a very high buyout. Otherwise he's stuck with us, potentially not paying rent, unable to buy us out, with severe consequences if he gets hit with another harassment suite and loses.

Did anyone talk with Margaret?

Did anyone give numbers?

Here's info from two real-estate professionals:

Our price per square foot can range from $1,300 to $1,600.

My unit is @ 1,700 sq.ft

@ $1,300 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.21M

@ $1,400 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.38M

@ $1,500 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.55M

@ $1,600 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.72M

That's market rate right now in our area.

Even if Marty bought us out for 1M a piece he'd be making out, especially considering that if the harassment suite goes through, which Margaret said that it will, especially with my case, his position is seriously compromised. Marty will spend exponentially

more just bringing the building up to code, not to mention the amount of time that the whole process would take...many years, it will take years to get the demo permit and evict us after getting the DOB to sign off on the legalization. As many have already said,

Marty has no intention once legalizing the building, but I think that he would like to demo it asap.

Also Margaret needs to subpoena the Narrative Conference record where everyone agreed to the PAA. We should figure out a time when we can all meet with her so we can all get on the same page.

Please update the group with where you're at with your number, what communication you've had with Margaret, and how you think we should move forward.

Thanks,

Christian

if you want to add or change anything please do it using "comments" or change the color of your font and add your thoughts to this as opposed to removing anything, just so we can keep track of everything.

I'm still volunteering to be our speaking representative, at least in the beginning of the meeting, just to keep things streamlined / get all these questions answered. If anyone has an objection to that, let me know.

Of course we want to get these questions answered before we consider our buyout number, but if we are seriously considering taking this opportunity to walk away, we should all be zeroing in on what we'd like to get paid and what we'd be ok with getting paid.

Talk soon and see you all tomorrow!

Discussed subpoenaing Loft Board meeting where everyone agreed on the PAAs. Can only do that through some kind of case.

Is there another way Marty can demo the building that we don't know about? One where we wouldn't get as much for our rights?

Is the DOB fining Marty for putting the steel polls up on Green St?

Is Marty's daughter taking over APC?

Point - Marty can't get hit with harassment.

Point - Kate, Erez, Christain would be fine with keeping the PAAs as is just not preferable.

Find out about subletting for Loft Board tenants.

We don't have to pay rent, but that's asking for trouble.

Look into how discovery works. Would have have to show every single this we spent money on and received money for?

What would out number be as a group if we took the buyout? Can we all have a different number? Erez $750, Kate $750 (maybe a little lower), David $100 ?, Phil / Theo ?, Christain ?

Anyone else besides the Kolb's and Aaron (Margret told me Aaron will get covered)

What right do we have if city says building has to come down?

We need to start looking into other representation? Kozack?

Will getting PAAs give us leverage and increase value?

Does there need to be a certain number of units for units to remain under loft law protection?

I was pretty careful speaking with her to keep conversation about me and not others, certainly not with specifics. I recall saying "you'll need to speak to them" when she volunteered info or asked about anybody else.

I don't disagree with you but in my case she has pointed out some problems that are valid and could end up screwing me if I continue with the same attitude I had a few months ago. I agree with her that I should negotiate a buyout if possible.

Also, if we get the NC record, it has Bob Petrucci asking for the PAA agreement in writing.

He's telling Margaret that he wasn't hired for that reason. That was the only reason that we had him there, for situations like that, and to get the agreements in a binding contract. We can ask him for our $ back. He'll probably just give it to us. Maybe.

We could also sue Bob for all the $ that we've spent trying to get the PAA enforced. Margaret already said that she wouldn't represent us in a suit against Bob because they are friends, but that we would have grounds to sue him.

Getting the record will also hold Michael Bobbick accountable as well.

Thanks for the information. Not that it matters at this point but I definitely didn't "come to her for a buyout." I received the same emails as the rest of you and when I asked her to clarify a few things she basically told me I had jeopardized

my loft and continues to tell me how vulnerable my situation is every time we speak. Im ok pursuing a buyout and moving on from the building but she really didn't advise me about any other way forward.

On Sun, Jul 17, 2022 at 11:45 PM Kathryn Downie <downiekathryn@hotmail.com> wrote:

Hey everyone,

I had a long talk with Margret, here is the gist and important points. We can talk about everything in more detail when we get together. I mostly passing on what she said as best I can.

It's in Margret's retainer that she gets 10% if she negotiates a buy out.

I really pressed her about why she is pushing us to sell.

She said she has done everything she can do to get the PAAs passed and she doesn't know what else to do. She said if Lisa was still alive it would have passed, if a couple other things had happened it would have passed.

She said she is worried that Marty's new layers are vicious and it makes her worried.

She said if the building gets demolished we only get what the city says which won't be much.

I asked about if Marty just sells, and the new owners have to buy us out? I'm not really sure how she answered that.

She went into a lengthy explanation about the joys of home ownership. That the the buy out should only be large enough to put a down payment on a house. I explained I wanted to stay in Greenpoint and I couldn't do that in GP.

I explained I was happy at my apartment so why would I sell to move somewhere smaller in a neighborhood I don't want to live when I can just stay here. She started pushing Hudson Valley and giving lots of examples of how her other clients use there buy out to buy property other places.

I told her I would be fine with the PAA as is. I would like to change it. Everyone agreed to have it my way at the NS at the Loft Board and then it just didn't end up in the plans. But I could take it as it is.

She said she mostly started pushing the buyouts because she doesn't know how else to get the PAAs through and David and Phil came to her asking her to negotiate a buyout so she thought it would be best for everyone especially

because of Marty's new lawyers.

She asked why we didn't fill out the right paper work in the 45 days. I said Petrucci and Arthur were supposed to. She said P told her he wasn't hired to do that.

She talked at length about how much she likes Petrucci.

She said that just because something didn't go the way we want doesn't mean someone did something wrong.

She said Christain should only be asking for 1M. She said he would need all kind of proof about how he lost recordings and stuff like that for more.

She said Erez was in the best position - He is happy with his PAA, he has been there with no issue proving it and Marty wouldn't make him try.

We talke at length about my situation - that I thought it was crazy that I would loose everythign because during 2020 I might only be able to prove I spent 5 month there instead of 6. She said it would depend on the judge. She said it was fine if I was away for work if I could prove it. She said I might have to involve my work, that was fine I told he. She said I wouldn't just have to prove it. She said I would have to show every single bank statement, every debit

card transaction. I'll admitt I don't like the sound of that. I don't want every single thing I have done, every single thing I bought, every single thing I have been paid for scrutinized by multiply people .

I said I didn't understand why Iwas a target. She said she has no reason but what other people have said about me. I said I will scream if I hear that again. She said she knows I've been away, so I have been away,

and if Marty's lawyers ask me for a discovery I would have to prove it by showing every single thing I bought with my debit card. I said if we don't have a reason to think that Marty will do that then we should just move forward like everything is fine since

it is. She said if I ask for a big buyout it could give him reason to target me. I'll admit she made me nervous. I can't handle a big court case I can't handle showing everything I've purchased to a judge. I'll have to look into that and see if she's right about that. She said it happened to another client, and the court saw everythign she bought and it was really embarrassing.

She said Christain should ask for 1M, Erez $750, and me David, and Phil should split 1M. Sorry gang but I'm not walking away with $330. It would have to be my only option. My apartment is huge. I'm on the corner.

Marty can't build anythign next to it either. I can sign off on the PAAs as is if need be. And I can live happily in my apartment in GP for many years. I can't handle a discovery from Marty - that's the only thing against me. I have to do some research.

She talked about other people in the building that aren't part of our FTA but I can't remember what she said.

She said yes we should ask higher but not too much higher or everthing could get screwed.

Anyway - let's talk soon.

Yes, let's get a debit card issued for the TA bank account and have it on file at Margaret's office. That's the arrangement I have with them for my personal account. They ask for permission to bill the card or I just give them permission when I get a bill and it's done.

We should definitely make a list of questions and have a meeting as a group before our meeting with Margaret. Margaret tends not to answer questions directly a lot of the time. We should be explicit that she need to answer the questions directly before

we move on the the next question and wrap the meeting only when all of our questions are answered. It will be good to do it as a group so there is accountability. Margaret flip flops a lot. She wrote in an email that the harassment case is weak and not to

ask her to represent us in it. She explicitly told me that I especially have a strong case that would most likely win in court, now she is changing her tune, because in my opinion, she wants to cash out on the buyouts.

I, to my knowledge, never agreed to, nor signed anything defining what Margaret's cut of the buyout would be. I never hired her to negotiate any buyouts, nor was this agreed to when we discussed her taking over Petrucci's position. We need to review the

to review the contract that we signed as a group.

Thanks.

Peace,

Christian

I think if we got that evidence it would obviously make our case for the PAA but could also strengthen our position for negotiating higher buyouts.

As I said before, I'd like to get the PAA signed off on and rebuild my place and move back in but if the buyout were high enough, I'd consider leaving.

Thank you for spelling all this out, all good things to consider!

Sounds like we should schedule a group call with Margaret. In our last call we had talked about delegating one of us to do the talking while the rest of us listen in and chime in if there's something worth clarifying. Happy to be that person,

but if someone feels strongly about it, happy to let them take the lead.

I'm going to reach out to Margaret to get some times that work for her and then we can all pick one that works best for us.

Also, who is responsible for paying Margaret for our group cost (700$)? Do we need to put more money into that pot? Please let us know what you need from us to get our balance paid.

Is there a good time we could meet in the near future before talking to Margaret so we can collect our thoughts / streamline our questions for when we do all have a call with her?

I'm available pretty much anytime over the next few days. Would be great to have this initial meeting by end of this weekend so we can get on a call w her first thing next week.

Greetings TA,

The main obstacle in the way of Marty filing for a demo permit and demolishing the building is the fact that we have loft law and he needs to bring the whole building up to code and signed off on by DOB before he can file for a demo permit. It makes sense

that Marty would want to demo the building. There are major structural issues that need to be dealt with on top of bringing the rest of the building up to code. It would be cheaper and much quicker to buy us out, not renew the 1-year long leases that the rest of the tenants who aren't covered by loft law, and clear the building. He could develop it himself or sell to a developer for a much higher price, if the building was empty. The Colbs said they wouldn't leave for less than a $1M buyout.

The harassment suit is dire for Marty if he has any intention of developing the building himself, as he cannot buy us out. It would also take the value of the building down if he were to sell to a developer.

Its my opinion that Marty intends to demolish the building. The mysterious flyer claims that that's what his plan is too. We should use this to get very high buyouts. Has anyone reached out to the email address on the flyer?

I don't particularly want to move out. I would like to get the PAA signed off on. That was the whole point of the harassment suite to begin with. That being said, if the buyout was high I would seriously consider it.

Marty doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us out so he can move along with his plan. Nothing can stop him, to my knowledge, once all of the Loft-law covered tenants are out. This position and the fact that his potential plans get derailed

if he gets hit with a harassment conviction, puts us in a very strong position. Marty's is playing chicken with the harassment suite, but he also doesn't want to give us the PAA because he wants us leave. It's seems to me that this would be an ideal situation

to get a very high buyout. Otherwise he's stuck with us, potentially not paying rent, unable to buy us out, with severe consequences if he gets hit with another harassment suite and loses.

Did anyone talk with Margaret?

Did anyone give numbers?

Here's info from two real-estate professionals:

Our price per square foot can range from $1,300 to $1,600.

My unit is @ 1,700 sq.ft

@ $1,300 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.21M

@ $1,400 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.38M

@ $1,500 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.55M

@ $1,600 x 1,700 square.ft = $2.72M

That's market rate right now in our area.

Even if Marty bought us out for 1M a piece he'd be making out, especially considering that if the harassment suite goes through, which Margaret said that it will, especially with my case, his position is seriously compromised. Marty will spend exponentially

more just bringing the building up to code, not to mention the amount of time that the whole process would take...many years, it will take years to get the demo permit and evict us after getting the DOB to sign off on the legalization. As many have already said,

Marty has no intention once legalizing the building, but I think that he would like to demo it asap.

Also Margaret needs to subpoena the Narrative Conference record where everyone agreed to the PAA. We should figure out a time when we can all meet with her so we can all get on the same page.

Please update the group with where you're at with your number, what communication you've had with Margaret, and how you think we should move forward.

Thanks,

Christian

I want to let you know that we have not yet been paid for our work last month despite my recent efforts to get us paid promptly. We are aware Kate mailed us a check but it's Aug. 25 and payment was due at least 3 weeks ago. Is it possible to change around payment arrangements so that this does not keep happening?

There may be no use in proposing buyouts now, it is so untimely compared to when it should have been done. I should add that we recently did an access hearing for Theo and I am pretty sure we will lose.

They really can't afford their own legal bills and their share of the TA bill it would appear. We haven't been fully paid by them this month. Certainly they would benefit from a buyout or need to be encouraged not to have legal work done that they can't afford.

I apologize, but as long as I am your lawyer, I think it's important for my emails to be answered. Please respond to the below email. Thank you.

The policy of our firm is that when we email a client, we expect a response within 24 hours unless we were advised in advance that someone will be away with no internet. (In limited circumstances, if someone so advise us, we might say that being away at that time is not a good idea.) You have litigation going on and we cannot have a situation where we receive no response. The timing within which I have to contact you and the time within which I need a response for litigation purposes, is not within my control. Unfortunately, we almost never hear from anyone in your group when they are going out of town. We particularly dislike situations where we care more about your case than you do.

We will be sending our next bills no later than Tues. I would have liked for the payment lag to have been understood and addressed within the last billing cycle. Most groups collect money in advance and most groups don't have someone administering payments who travels extensively and who always pays us very late. There is another option: some of our groups have someone pay us personally with a personal credit card and then they owe one another money, not

us. This seems to me more appropriate than owing your lawyer money.

Hey Margaret,

Apologies, I was in fact travelling when you sent your last email...

1. Noted RE expectation of response within 24 hours, first I'm hearing of that, and will act accordingly moving forward.
2. Will figure out a more streamlined way of paying you on time, totally agree that a 3 week delay is unacceptable and that mailing a check is not the best way to settle our balance. We'll figure out a more immediate system for paying.
3. Still waiting on Christian's buyout number, obviously his situation is a little more complicated, Christian, any movement on your end?
4. If we decide to move forward with any large legal work e.g. going further down the harassment lawsuit road, we'll confirm with you an estimate for the cost and make sure we have the funds. We do not want to take on legal work we cannot afford.

Thank you for your patience, it's a bit of juggling on our end which I'm sure you can appreciate.

Please CC me the next bill to Kate, I'll make sure it gets settled more expeditiously.

Hey everyone,

Got an email from Margeret about our group's tardiness in paying her, suffice to say, she'd appreciate it if we came up with a better system of paying our balances.

Paying by check through mail is not an ideal solution, so I'm going to propose a few alternatives.

1. Can you pay by debit card as soon as we get a bill and then pay yourself with the venmo account?

2. Since you travel much more than anyone else, maybe someone else taking over the bill payments makes more sense? I volunteer to take that on if the group is ok with that.

Margaret is frustrated with more than just our late payments. Namely our inability to come up with a buyout figure and general slowness to respond.

If everyone can try to be a little more alert / attentive for the next few weeks I think it'll go a long way. Most pressing is the upcoming bill which should be arriving on Tuesday. Let's see how much that bill is and figure out a reasonable amount for our next deposit.

Subject: Re: Margaret Payments

I will schedule an appointment with Margaret today to finalize. We need to address terms of the authorization that we are giving Margaret.

1. As it stands, she is entitled to collect 10% of any settlement we get, even if it's a future settlement negotiated by another lawyer. We need to take this out of the contract. Some of us have not given her authorization to negotiate yet, some of us have. Maybe we can change that loophole for everyone while we still can.

2. We are getting charged for hours on top of the 10%. Why? Shouldn't it be one or the other? What do you all think? She would be walking away with $300,000 if we went with the 3M collective settlement, which clearly is less than what we will ask for, but I'm using 3M on the low end to make a point. $300,000 plus billable hours seems excessive, in my opinion.

Let's come up with a consensus on these two issues and move forward.

Also we should see if Kozek is available for a meeting/interview.

Also, did Margaret meet with the new Executive Director of the Loft Board to discuss the PAA's? When did she say that was scheduled for? Anyone remember?

Paying by check through mail is not an ideal solution, so I'm going to propose a few alternatives.

1. Can you pay by debit card as soon as we get a bill and then pay yourself with the venmo account?

2. Since you travel much more than anyone else, maybe someone else taking over the bill payments makes more sense? I volunteer to take that on if the group is ok with that.

Margaret is frustrated with more than just our late payments. Namely our inability to come up with a buyout figure and general slowness to respond.

If everyone can try to be a little more alert / attentive for the next few weeks I think it'll go a long way. Most pressing is the upcoming bill which should be arriving on Tuesday. Let's see how much that bill is and figure out a reasonable amount for our next deposit.

2. There's no guarantee we're going to take a buyout so I doubt she'd work for a possible percentage of a buyout that never comes. We could try and add a clause in our contract that gives her permission to negotiate a buyout that pays us back for our legal fees?

Some of us have not given her authorization to negotiate yet, some of us have. Maybe we can change that loophole for everyone while we still can.

2. We are getting charged for hours on top of the 10%. Why? Shouldn't it be one or the other? What do you all think? She would be walking away with $300,000 if we went with the 3M collective settlement, which clearly is less than what we will ask for, but I'm using 3M on the low end to make a point. $300,000 plus billable hours seems excessive, in my opinion.

Let's come up with a consensus on these two issues and move forward.

Hey Margaret,

One point of clarification. Has anyone in our group of 5 signed a contract with you to negotiate a buyout and entitle you to a percentage of that buyout? Just want to get on the same page on where we are with that.

Thanks

Hey Margaret,

Apologies, I was in fact travelling when you sent your last email...

1. Noted RE expectation of response within 24 hours, first I'm hearing of that, and will act accordingly moving forward.
2. Will figure out a more streamlined way of paying you on time, totally agree that a 3 week delay is unacceptable and that mailing a check is not the best way to settle our balance. We'll figure out a more immediate system for paying.
3. Still waiting on Christian's buyout number, obviously his situation is a little more complicated, Christian, any movement on your end?
4. If we decide to move forward with any large legal work e.g. going further down the harassment lawsuit road, we'll confirm with you an estimate for the cost and make sure we have the funds. We do not want to take on legal work we cannot afford.

Thank you for your patience, it's a bit of juggling on our end which I'm sure you can appreciate.

Please CC me the next bill to Kate, I'll make sure it gets settled more expeditiously.

I apologize, but as long as I am your lawyer, I think it's important for my emails to be answered. Please respond to the below email. Thank you.

The policy of our firm is that when we email a client, we expect a response within 24 hours unless we were advised in advance that someone will be away with no internet. (In limited circumstances, if someone so advise us, we might say that being away at that time is not a good idea.) You have litigation going on and we cannot have a situation where we receive no response. The timing within which I have to contact you and the time within which I need a response for litigation purposes, is not within my control. Unfortunately, we almost never hear from anyone in your group when they are going out of town. We particularly dislike situations where we care more about your case than you do.

We will be sending our next bills no later than Tues. I would have liked for the payment lag to have been understood and addressed within the last billing cycle. Most groups collect money in advance and most groups don't have someone administering payments who travels extensively and who always pays us very late. There is another option: some of our groups have someone pay us personally with a personal credit card and then they owe one another money, not

us. This seems to me more appropriate than owing your lawyer money.

I'm writing to both of you as I am not quite sure who is in charge.

I want to let you know that we have not yet been paid for our work last month despite my recent efforts to get us paid promptly. We are aware Kate mailed us a check but it's Aug. 25 and payment was due at least 3 weeks ago. Is it possible to change around payment arrangements so that this does not keep happening?

There may be no use in proposing buyouts now, it is so untimely compared to when it should have been done. I should add that we recently did an access hearing for Theo and I am pretty sure we will lose.

They really can't afford their own legal bills and their share of the TA bill it would appear. We haven't been fully paid by them this month. Certainly they would benefit from a buyout or need to be encouraged not to have legal work done that they can't afford.

I think it's really annoying that Margret is frustrated us with not coming up with a number right away. We didn't hire her to negotiate a buyout. Most of us don't want to necessarily buyout so when she throws this at us I think it's messed up that she expects us to come up with one without a good deal of thought.

It really bothers me.

I put a bit more into the account to ensure there was enough to cover the check. $500 in total.

Can everyone please match that, as soon as you can? The zelle is my number 917-273-9366.

I really think we should do $700 each though.

Thanks Kate, will match that $500 today. Can everyone please confirm they're on board with this $500 influx into our group's legal pool?

I am also annoyed with Margeret, but I think she's just trying to be realistic about us getting a buyout now (based on the building's willingness). If we don't want buyouts then we can say that and that'll be that. The harassment case we have is also part of our bargaining power to get a good buyout now. If we don't want to take a buyout we would need to either drop the harassment suit (losing that leverage) or continue forward with it to increase the pressure on Marty (15-20k by Margarets estimation) Something to keep in mind if we decide to walk away.

I asked Margeret where we stand with her as far as how much she gets if we take a buyout while she is our lawyer / negotiator, here was her response :

Everyone in your group including you (Erez) has a retainer agreement with me that if you are bought out, we get 10%. The law permits 33%. We don't take Loft Law tenants unless they agree to that provision, as is true with all the other Loft Law lawyers. Bob Petrucci, my predecessor, takes 10 percent. Frazer, your lawyer before that, takes at least 20%.

So when we hired her, we entered into that agreement. Seems pretty standard.

Theo / Phil and David, anything to add on your end?

Hey everyone,

Got an email from Margeret about our group's tardiness in paying her, suffice to say, she'd appreciate it if we came up with a better system of paying our balances.

Paying by check through mail is not an ideal solution, so I'm going to propose a few alternatives.

1. Can you pay by debit card as soon as we get a bill and then pay yourself with the venmo account?

2. Since you travel much more than anyone else, maybe someone else taking over the bill payments makes more sense? I volunteer to take that on if the group is ok with that.

Margaret is frustrated with more than just our late payments. Namely our inability to come up with a buyout figure and general slowness to respond.

If everyone can try to be a little more alert / attentive for the next few weeks I think it'll go a long way. Most pressing is the upcoming bill which should be arriving on Tuesday. Let's see how much that bill is and figure out a reasonable amount for our next deposit.

Not sure on the time frame regarding the harassment, I'll clarify with her today. Kate I deposited $500 yesterday.

Any word from the bank as far as switching over to a debit card account? Also might be worth asking if we can wire the money using our existing account and how much a transaction fee that would entail.

I am also annoyed with Margeret, but I think she's just trying to be realistic about us getting a buyout now (based on the building's willingness). If we don't want buyouts then we can say that and that'll be that. The harassment case we have is also part of our bargaining power to get a good buyout now. If we don't want to take a buyout we would need to either drop the harassment suit (losing that leverage) or continue forward with it to increase the pressure on Marty (15-20k by Margarets estimation) Something to keep in mind if we decide to walk away.

I asked Margeret where we stand with her as far as how much she gets if we take a buyout while she is our lawyer / negotiator, here was her response :

Everyone in your group including you (Erez) has a retainer agreement with me that if you are bought out, we get 10%. The law permits 33%. We don't take Loft Law tenants unless they agree to that provision, as is true with all the other Loft Law lawyers. Bob Petrucci, my predecessor, takes 10 percent. Frazer, your lawyer before that, takes at least 20%.

So when we hired her, we entered into that agreement. Seems pretty standard.

I think it's really annoying that Margret is frustrated us with not coming up with a number right away. We didn't hire her to negotiate a buyout. Most of us don't want to necessarily buyout so when she throws this at us I think it's messed up that she expects us to come up with one without a good deal of thought.

It really bothers me.

I pit a bit more into the account to ensure there was enough to cover the check. $500 in total.

Can everyone please match that, as soon as you can? The zelle is my number 917-273-9366.

I really think we should do $700 each though.

2. There's no guarantee we're going to take a buyout so I doubt she'd work for a possible percentage of a buyout that never comes. We could try and add a clause in our contract that gives her permission to negotiate a buyout that pays us back for our legal

but I'm using 3M on the low end to make a point. $300,000 plus billable hours seems excessive, in my opinion.

Let's come up with a consensus on these two issues and move forward.

Also we should see if Kozek is available for a meeting/interview.

Also, did Margaret meet with the new Executive Director of the Loft Board to discuss the PAA's? When did she say that was scheduled for? Anyone remember?

Hey all

From Margeret regarding harassment timeline :

"Right now I am responding to a motion for summary judgment which if granted would result in the case being dismissed. My response is due Friday. The motion might be granted in part but I am almost certain that the important issues will remain."

I know she's reached out to some if not all of you looking for harassment detail verification, obviously if we can all respond in a timely manner, we can keep the option of pursuing harassment open.

If the case doesn't get thrown out tomorrow, Margeret will put together a timeline / cost breakdown of what we can expect if we continue going forward with the harassment lawsuit. She remains optimistic that it's our best leverage over Marty as far as getting a favourable buyout.

1. As it stands, she is entitled to collect 10% of any settlement we get, even if it's a future settlement negotiated by another lawyer. We need to take this out of the contract. Some of us have not given her authorization to negotiate yet, some of us have. Maybe we can change that loophole for everyone while we still can.

2. We are getting charged for hours on top of the 10%. Why? Shouldn't it be one or the other? What do you all think? She would be walking away with $300,000 if we went with the 3M collective settlement, which clearly is less than what we will ask for,

but I'm using 3M on the low end to make a point. $300,000 plus billable hours seems excessive, in my opinion.

Let's come up with a consensus on these two issues and move forward.

Also we should see if Kozek is available for a meeting/interview.

Also, did Margaret meet with the new Executive Director of the Loft Board to discuss the PAA's? When did she say that was scheduled for? Anyone remember?

Hey everyone,

Got an email from Margeret about our group's tardiness in paying her, suffice to say, she'd appreciate it if we came up with a better system of paying our balances.

Paying by check through mail is not an ideal solution, so I'm going to propose a few alternatives.

1. Can you pay by debit card as soon as we get a bill and then pay yourself with the venmo account?

2. Since you travel much more than anyone else, maybe someone else taking over the bill payments makes more sense? I volunteer to take that on if the group is ok with that.

Margaret is frustrated with more than just our late payments. Namely our inability to come up with a buyout figure and general slowness to respond.

Paying this new bill alone is $925 each.

Erez and I each put in $500.

There is $600 in our bank account now.

I think everyone should put in $500 on top of the $925 each so we have a balance of $2,100 in the account after we pay this bill.

Hey all

From Margeret regarding harassment timeline :

"Right now I am responding to a motion for summary judgment which if granted would result in the case being dismissed. My response is due Friday. The motion might be granted in part but I am almost certain that the important issues will remain."

I know she's reached out to some if not all of you looking for harassment detail verification, obviously if we can all respond in a timely manner, we can keep the option of pursuing harassment open.

If the case doesn't get thrown out tomorrow, Margeret will put together a timeline / cost breakdown of what we can expect if we continue going forward with the harassment lawsuit. She remains optimistic that it's our best leverage over Marty as far as getting a favourable buyout.

Not sure on the time frame regarding the harassment, I'll clarify with her today. Kate I deposited $500 yesterday.

Any word from the bank as far as switching over to a debit card account? Also might be worth asking if we can wire the money using our existing account and how much a transaction fee that would entail.

and everybody wants a more long term strategy/stays I'll need to ask Margaret to deal with my unit separately. matching 500 today!

I am also annoyed with Margeret, but I think she's just trying to be realistic about us getting a buyout now (based on the building's willingness). If we don't want buyouts then we can say that and that'll be that. The harassment case we have is also part of our bargaining power to get a good buyout now. If we don't want to take a buyout we would need to either drop the harassment suit (losing that leverage) or continue forward with it to increase the pressure on Marty (15-20k by Margaret's estimation) Something to keep in mind if we decide to walk away.

I asked Margeret where we stand with her as far as how much she gets if we take a buyout while she is our lawyer / negotiator, here was her response :

Everyone in your group including you (Erez) has a retainer agreement with me that if you are bought out, we get 10%. The law permits 33%. We don't take Loft Law tenants unless they agree to that provision, as is true with all the other Loft Law lawyers. Bob Petrucci, my predecessor, takes 10 percent. Frazer, your lawyer before that, takes at least 20%.

So when we hired her, we entered into that agreement. Seems pretty standard.

Theo / Phil and David, anything to add on your end?

I think it's really annoying that Margret is frustrated us with not coming up with a number right away. We didn't hire her to negotiate a buyout. Most of us don't want to necessarily buyout so when she throws this at us I think it's messed up that she expects us to come up with one without a good deal of thought.

It really bothers me.

I put a bit more into the account to ensure there was enough to cover the check. $500 in total.

1. I'll reach out and ask Margeret where we stand as far as contractually with her if a buyout offer goes through. I for one have not signed any contract giving her permission to negotiate on my behalf nor a percentage of whatever buyout I may

get. But it would be good to get clarification here.

2. There's no guarantee we're going to take a buyout so I doubt she'd work for a possible percentage of a buyout that never comes. We could try and add a clause in our contract that gives her permission to negotiate a buyout that pays us back for our legal fees?

I will schedule an appointment with Margaret today to finalize. We need to address terms of the authorization that we are giving Margaret.

1. As it stands, she is entitled to collect 10% of any settlement we get, even if it's a future settlement negotiated by another lawyer. We need to take this out of the contract. Some of us have not given her authorization to negotiate yet, some of us have. Maybe we can change that loophole for everyone while we still can.

2. We are getting charged for hours on top of the 10%. Why? Shouldn't it be one or the other? What do you all think? She would be walking away with $300,000 if we went with the 3M collective settlement, which clearly is less than what we will ask for,

but I'm using 3M on the low end to make a point. $300,000 plus billable hours seems excessive, in my opinion.

Let's come up with a consensus on these two issues and move forward.

Also we should see if Kozek is available for a meeting/interview.

Also, did Margaret meet with the new Executive Director of the Loft Board to discuss the PAA's? When did she say that was scheduled for? Anyone remember?

Hey everyone,

Got an email from Margeret about our group's tardiness in paying her, suffice to say, she'd appreciate it if we came up with a better system of paying our balances.

Paying by check through mail is not an ideal solution, so I'm going to propose a few alternatives.

1. Can you pay by debit card as soon as we get a bill and then pay yourself with the venmo account?

2. Since you travel much more than anyone else, maybe someone else taking over the bill payments makes more sense? I volunteer to take that on if the group is ok with that.

Margaret is frustrated with more than just our late payments. Namely our inability to come up with a buyout figure and general slowness to respond.

If everyone can try to be a little more alert / attentive for the next few weeks I think it'll go a long way. Most pressing is the upcoming bill which should be arriving on Tuesday. Let's see how much that bill is and figure out a reasonable amount for our next deposit.

Hey all

From Margeret regarding harassment timeline :

"Right now I am responding to a motion for summary judgment which if granted would result in the case being dismissed. My response is due Friday. The motion might be granted in part but I am almost certain that the important issues will remain."

I know she's reached out to some if not all of you looking for harassment detail verification, obviously if we can all respond in a timely manner, we can keep the option of pursuing harassment open.

If the case doesn't get thrown out tomorrow, Margeret will put together a timeline / cost breakdown of what we can expect if we continue going forward with the harassment lawsuit. She remains optimistic that it's our best leverage over Marty as far as getting a favourable buyout.

I am also annoyed with Margeret, but I think she's just trying to be realistic about us getting a buyout now (based on the building's willingness). If we don't want buyouts then we can say that and that'll be that. The harassment case we have is also part of our bargaining power to get a good buyout now. If we don't want to take a buyout we would need to either drop the harassment suit (losing that leverage) or continue forward with it to increase the pressure on Marty (15-20k by Margarets estimation) Something to keep in mind if we decide to walk away.

I asked Margeret where we stand with her as far as how much she gets if we take a buyout while she is our lawyer / negotiator, here was her response :

Everyone in your group including you (Erez) has a retainer agreement with me that if you are bought out, we get 10%. The law permits 33%. We don't take Loft Law tenants unless they agree to that provision, as is true with all the other Loft Law lawyers. Bob Petrucci, my predecessor, takes 10 percent. Frazer, your lawyer before that, takes at least 20%.

So when we hired her, we entered into that agreement. Seems pretty standard.

Theo / Phil and David, anything to add on your end?

I think it's really annoying that Margret is frustrated us with not coming up with a number right away. We didn't hire her to negotiate a buyout. Most of us don't want to necessarily buyout so when she throws this at us I think it's messed up that she expects us to come up with one without a good deal of thought.

It really bothers me.

So pursuing the harassment case will cost us 15-20k? It seems like we don't have a lot of time before we need to decide on the harassment suit. If we can give Margaret a number to negotiate I would like to do that. If now is a time to pursue a buyout and everybody wants a more long term strategy/stays I'll need to ask Margaret to deal with my unit separately. matching 500 today!

I am also annoyed with Margeret, but I think she's just trying to be realistic about us getting a buyout now (based on the building's willingness). If we don't want buyouts then we can say that and that'll be that. The harassment case we have is also part

If we don't want to take a buyout we would need to either drop the harassment suit (losing that leverage) or continue forward with it to increase the pressure on Marty (15-20k by Margarets estimation) Something to keep in mind if we decide to walk away.

I asked Margeret where we stand with her as far as how much she gets if we take a buyout while she is our lawyer / negotiator, here was her response :

Everyone in your group including you (Erez) has a retainer agreement with me that if you are bought out, we get 10%. The law permits 33%. We don't take Loft Law tenants unless they agree to that provision, as is true with all the other Loft Law lawyers. Bob Petrucci, my predecessor, takes 10 percent. Frazer, your lawyer before that, takes at least 20%.

So when we hired her, we entered into that agreement. Seems pretty standard.

Margaret is frustrated with more than just our late payments. Namely our inability to come up with a buyout figure and general slowness to respond.

Hey all

I know she's reached out to some if not all of you looking for harassment detail verification, obviously if we can all respond in a timely manner, we can keep the option of pursuing harassment open.

Hey all

From Margeret regarding harassment timeline :

"Right now I am responding to a motion for summary judgment which if granted would result in the case being dismissed. My response is due Friday. The motion might be granted in part but I am almost certain that the important issues will remain."

I know she's reached out to some if not all of you looking for harassment detail verification, obviously if we can all respond in a timely manner, we can keep the option of pursuing harassment open.

On Wed, Aug 31, 2022 at 9:49 AM erez horovitz <ehorovitz@gmail.com> wrote:

Not sure on the time frame regarding the harassment, I'll clarify with her today. Kate I deposited $500 yesterday.

Any word from the bank as far as switching over to a debit card account? Also might be worth asking if we can wire the money using our existing account and how much a transaction fee that would entail.

On Tue, Aug 30, 2022 at 1:32 PM David May <davidmortimermay@gmail.com> wrote:

So pursuing the harassment case will cost us 15-20k? It seems like we don't have a lot of time before we need to decide on the harassment suit. If we can give Margaret a number to negotiate I would like to do that. If now is a time to pursue a buyout and everybody wants a more long term strategy/stays I'll need to ask Margaret to deal with my unit separately. matching 500 today!

Thanks Kate, will match that $500 today. Can everyone please confirm they're on board with this $500 influx into our group's legal pool?

I am also annoyed with Margeret, but I think she's just trying to be realistic about us getting a buyout now (based on the building's willingness). If we don't want buyouts then we can say that and that'll be that. The harassment case we have is also part of our bargaining power to get a good buyout now. If we don't want to take a buyout we would need to either drop the harassment suit (losing that leverage) or continue forward with it to increase the pressure on Marty (15-20k by Margarets estimation) Something to keep in mind if we decide to walk away.

I asked Margeret where we stand with her as far as how much she gets if we take a buyout while she is our lawyer / negotiator, here was her response :

Everyone in your group including you (Erez) has a retainer agreement with me that if you are bought out, we get 10%. The law permits 33%. We don't take Loft Law tenants unless they agree to that provision, as is true

with all the other Loft Law lawyers. Bob Petrucci, my predecessor, takes 10 percent. Frazer, your lawyer before that, takes at least 20%.

So when we hired her, we entered into that agreement. Seems pretty standard.

Theo / Phil and David, anything to add on your end?

On Mon, Aug 29, 2022 at 6:26 PM Kathryn Downie <downiekathryn@hotmail.com> wrote:

I'll contact the bank and see if we can change the type of account we have to get a debit card. Otherwise I can get checks mailed to someone else if that's easier too.

I will be off the road and back in BK in 2 months.

I think it's really annoying that Margret is frustrated us with not coming up with a number right away. We didn't hire her to negotiate a buyout. Most of us don't want to necessarily buyout so when she throws this at us I think it's messed up that she expects us to come up with one without a good deal of thought.

It really bothers me.

I put a bit more into the account to ensure there was enough to cover the check. $500 in total.

Can everyone please match that, as soon as you can? The zelle is my number 917-273-9366.

I really think we should do $700 each though.

1. I'll reach out and ask Margeret where we stand as far as contractually with her if a buyout offer goes through. I for one have not signed any contract giving her permission to negotiate on my behalf nor a percentage of whatever buyout I may

get. But it would be good to get clarification here.

2. There's no guarantee we're going to take a buyout so I doubt she'd work for a possible percentage of a buyout that never comes. We could try and add a clause in our contract that gives her permission to negotiate a buyout that pays us back for our legal fees?

have. Maybe we can change that loophole for everyone while we still can.

2. We are getting charged for hours on top of the 10%. Why? Shouldn't it be one or the other? What do you all think? She would be walking away with $300,000 if we went with the 3M collective settlement, which clearly is less than what we will ask for,

but I'm using 3M on the low end to make a point. $300,000 plus billable hours seems excessive, in my opinion.

Let's come up with a consensus on these two issues and move forward.

Also we should see if Kozek is available for a meeting/interview.

Also, did Margaret meet with the new Executive Director of the Loft Board to discuss the PAA's? When did she say that was scheduled for? Anyone remember?

Paying by check through mail is not an ideal solution, so I'm going to propose a few alternatives.

1. Can you pay by debit card as soon as we get a bill and then pay yourself with the venmo account?

2. Since you travel much more than anyone else, maybe someone else taking over the bill payments makes more sense? I volunteer to take that on if the group is ok with that.

Margaret is frustrated with more than just our late payments. Namely our inability to come up with a buyout figure and general slowness to respond.

If everyone can try to be a little more alert / attentive for the next few weeks I think it'll go a long way. Most pressing is the upcoming bill which should be arriving on Tuesday. Let's see how much that bill is and figure out a reasonable amount for our next deposit.

"Right now I am responding to a motion for summary judgment which if granted would result in the case being dismissed. My response is due Friday. The motion might be granted in part but I am almost certain that the important issues will remain."

I know she's reached out to some if not all of you looking for harassment detail verification, obviously if we can all respond in a timely manner, we can keep the option of pursuing harassment open.

If the case doesn't get thrown out tomorrow, Margeret will put together a timeline / cost breakdown of what we can expect if we continue going forward with the harassment lawsuit. She remains optimistic that it's our best leverage over Marty as far as getting a favourable buyout.

I am also annoyed with Margeret, but I think she's just trying to be realistic about us getting a buyout now (based on the building's willingness). If we don't want buyouts then we can say that and that'll be that. The harassment case we have is also part of our bargaining power to get a good buyout now. If we don't want to take a buyout we would need to either drop the harassment suit (losing that leverage) or continue forward with it to increase the pressure on Marty (15-20k by Margarets estimation) Something to keep in mind if we decide to walk away.

I asked Margeret where we stand with her as far as how much she gets if we take a buyout while she is our lawyer / negotiator, here was her response :

Everyone in your group including you (Erez) has a retainer agreement with me that if you are bought out, we get 10%. The law permits 33%. We don't take Loft Law tenants unless they agree to that provision, as is true

with all the other Loft Law lawyers. Bob Petrucci, my predecessor, takes 10 percent. Frazer, your lawyer before that, takes at least 20%.

So when we hired her, we entered into that agreement. Seems pretty standard.

Theo / Phil and David, anything to add on your end?

I think it's really annoying that Margret is frustrated us with not coming up with a number right away. We didn't hire her to negotiate a buyout. Most of us don't want to necessarily buyout so when she throws this at us I think it's messed up that she expects us to come up with one without a good deal of thought.

It really bothers me.

I put a bit more into the account to ensure there was enough to cover the check. $500 in total.

Can everyone please match that, as soon as you can? The zelle is my number 917-273-9366.

I really think we should do $700 each though.

1. I'll reach out and ask Margeret where we stand as far as contractually with her if a buyout offer goes through. I for one have not signed any contract giving her permission to negotiate on my behalf nor a percentage of whatever buyout I may

get. But it would be good to get clarification here.

2. There's no guarantee we're going to take a buyout so I doubt she'd work for a possible percentage of a buyout that never comes. We could try and add a clause in our contract that gives her permission to negotiate a buyout that pays us back for our legal

fees?

I will schedule an appointment with Margaret today to finalize. We need to address terms of the authorization that we are giving Margaret.

have. Maybe we can change that loophole for everyone while we still can.

2. We are getting charged for hours on top of the 10%. Why? Shouldn't it be one or the other? What do you all think? She would be walking away with $300,000 if we went with the 3M collective settlement, which clearly is less than what we will ask for,

but I'm using 3M on the low end to make a point. $300,000 plus billable hours seems excessive, in my opinion.

Let's come up with a consensus on these two issues and move forward.

Also we should see if Kozek is available for a meeting/interview.

Also, did Margaret meet with the new Executive Director of the Loft Board to discuss the PAA's? When did she say that was scheduled for? Anyone remember?

Hey everyone,

Paying by check through mail is not an ideal solution, so I'm going to propose a few alternatives.

1. Can you pay by debit card as soon as we get a bill and then pay yourself with the venmo account?

2. Since you travel much more than anyone else, maybe someone else taking over the bill payments makes more sense? I volunteer to take that on if the group is ok with that.

Margaret is frustrated with more than just our late payments. Namely our inability to come up with a buyout figure and general slowness to respond.

If everyone can try to be a little more alert / attentive for the next few weeks I think it'll go a long way. Most pressing is the upcoming bill which should be arriving on Tuesday. Let's see how much that bill is and figure out a reasonable amount for our next deposit.

1. I'll reach out and ask Margeret where we stand as far as contractually with her if a buyout offer goes through. I for one have not signed any contract giving her permission to negotiate on my behalf nor a percentage of whatever buyout I may get. But it would be good to get clarification here.

2. There's no guarantee we're going to take a buyout so I doubt she'd work for a possible percentage of a buyout that never comes. We could try and add a clause in our contract that gives her permission to negotiate a buyout that pays us back for our legal fees?

I will schedule an appointment with Margaret today to finalize. We need to address terms of the authorization that we are giving Margaret.

1. As it stands, she is entitled to collect 10% of any settlement we get, even if it's a future settlement negotiated by another lawyer. We need to take this out of the contract. Some of us have not given her authorization to negotiate yet, some of us have. Maybe we can change that loophole for everyone while we still can.

2. We are getting charged for hours on top of the 10%. Why? Shouldn't it be one or the other? What do you all think? She would be walking away with $300,000 if we went with the 3M collective settlement, which clearly is less than what we will ask for, but I'm using 3M on the low end to make a point. $300,000 plus billable hours seems excessive, in my opinion.

Let's come up with a consensus on these two issues and move forward.

Also we should see if Kozek is available for a meeting/interview.

Also, did Margaret meet with the new Executive Director of the Loft Board to discuss the PAA's? When did she say that was scheduled for? Anyone remember?

Hey everyone,

Got an email from Margeret about our group's tardiness in paying her, suffice to say, she'd appreciate it if we came up with a better system of paying our balances.

Paying by check through mail is not an ideal solution, so I'm going to propose a few alternatives.

1. Can you pay by debit card as soon as we get a bill and then pay yourself with the venmo account?
2. Since you travel much more than anyone else, maybe someone else taking over the bill payments makes more sense? I volunteer to take that on if the group is ok with that.

Margaret is frustrated with more than just our late payments. Namely our inability to come up with a buyout figure and general slowness to respond.

If everyone can try to be a little more alert / attentive for the next few weeks I think it'll go a long way. Most pressing is the upcoming bill which should be arriving on Tuesday. Let's see how much that bill is and figure out a reasonable amount for our next deposit.

Hey all

From Margeret regarding harassment timeline :

"Right now I am responding to a motion for summary judgment which if granted would result in the case being dismissed. My response is due Friday. The motion might be granted in part but I am almost certain that the important issues will remain."

I know she's reached out to some if not all of you looking for harassment detail verification, obviously if we can all respond in a timely manner, we can keep the option of pursuing harassment open.

On Wed, Aug 31, 2022 at 9:49 AM erez horovitz <ehorovitz@gmail.com> wrote:

Not sure on the time frame regarding the harassment, I'll clarify with her today. Kate I deposited $500 yesterday.

So pursuing the harassment case will cost us 15-20k? It seems like we don't have a lot of time before we need to decide on the harassment suit. If we can give Margaret a number to negotiate I would like to do that. If now is a time to pursue a buyout and everybody wants a more long term strategy/stays I'll need to ask Margaret to deal with my unit separately. matching 500 today!

Thanks Kate, will match that $500 today. Can everyone please confirm they're on board with this $500 influx into our group's legal pool?

I am also annoyed with Margeret, but I think she's just trying to be realistic about us getting a buyout now (based on the building's willingness). If we don't want buyouts then we can say that and that'll be that. The harassment case we have is also part of our bargaining power to get a good buyout now. If we don't want to take a buyout we would need to either drop the harassment suit (losing that leverage) or continue forward with it to increase the pressure on Marty (15-20k by Margarets estimation) Something to keep in mind if we decide to walk away.

I asked Margeret where we stand with her as far as how much she gets if we take a buyout while she is our lawyer / negotiator, here was her response :

Everyone in your group including you (Erez) has a retainer agreement with me that if you are bought out, we get 10%. The law permits 33%. We don't take Loft Law tenants unless they agree to that provision, as is true

with all the other Loft Law lawyers. Bob Petrucci, my predecessor, takes 10 percent. Frazer, your lawyer before that, takes at least 20%.

So when we hired her, we entered into that agreement. Seems pretty standard.

Theo / Phil and David, anything to add on your end?

I think it's really annoying that Margret is frustrated us with not coming up with a number right away. We didn't hire her to negotiate a buyout. Most of us don't want to necessarily buyout so when she throws this at us I think it's messed up that she expects us to come up with one without a good deal of thought.

It really bothers me.

I put a bit more into the account to ensure there was enough to cover the check. $500 in total.

Hey everyone,

Got an email from Margeret about our group's tardiness in paying her, suffice to say, she'd appreciate it if we came up with a better system of paying our balances.

Paying by check through mail is not an ideal solution, so I'm going to propose a few alternatives.

1. Can you pay by debit card as soon as we get a bill and then pay yourself with the venmo account?

2. Since you travel much more than anyone else, maybe someone else taking over the bill payments makes more sense? I volunteer to take that on if the group is ok with that.

Margaret is frustrated with more than just our late payments. Namely our inability to come up with a buyout figure and general slowness to respond.

If everyone can try to be a little more alert / attentive for the next few weeks I think it'll go a long way. Most pressing is the upcoming bill which should be arriving on Tuesday. Let's see how much that bill is and figure out a reasonable amount for our next deposit.

Hey all

From Margeret regarding harassment timeline :

"Right now I am responding to a motion for summary judgment which if granted would result in the case being dismissed. My response is due Friday. The motion might be granted in part but I am almost certain that the important issues will remain."

I know she's reached out to some if not all of you looking for harassment detail verification, obviously if we can all respond in a timely manner, we can keep the option of pursuing harassment open.

On Wed, Aug 31, 2022 at 9:49 AM erez horovitz <ehorovitz@gmail.com> wrote:

Not sure on the time frame regarding the harassment, I'll clarify with her today. Kate I deposited $500 yesterday.

So pursuing the harassment case will cost us 15-20k? It seems like we don't have a lot of time before we need to decide on the harassment suit. If we can give Margaret a number to negotiate I would like to do that. If now is a time to pursue a buyout and everybody wants a more long term strategy/stays I'll need to ask Margaret to deal with my unit separately. matching 500 today!

I am also annoyed with Margeret, but I think she's just trying to be realistic about us getting a buyout now (based on the building's willingness). If we don't want buyouts then we can say that and that'll be that. The harassment case we have is also part of our bargaining power to get a good buyout now. If we don't want to take a buyout we would need to either drop the harassment suit (losing that leverage) or continue forward with it to increase the pressure on Marty (15-20k by Margarets estimation) Something to keep in mind if we decide to walk away.

I asked Margeret where we stand with her as far as how much she gets if we take a buyout while she is our lawyer / negotiator, here was her response :

Everyone in your group including you (Erez) has a retainer agreement with me that if you are bought out, we get 10%. The law permits 33%. We don't take Loft Law tenants unless they agree to that provision, as is true

with all the other Loft Law lawyers. Bob Petrucci, my predecessor, takes 10 percent. Frazer, your lawyer before that, takes at least 20%.

So when we hired her, we entered into that agreement. Seems pretty standard.

Theo / Phil and David, anything to add on your end?

I think it's really annoying that Margret is frustrated us with not coming up with a number right away. We didn't hire her to negotiate a buyout. Most of us don't want to necessarily buyout so when she throws this at us I think it's messed up that she expects us to come up with one without a good deal of thought.

It really bothers me.

I pit a bit more into the account to ensure there was enough to cover the check. $500 in total.

Can everyone please match that, as soon as you can? The zelle is my number 917-273-9366.

I really think we should do $700 each though.

get. But it would be good to get clarification here.

2. There's no guarantee we're going to take a buyout so I doubt she'd work for a possible percentage of a buyout that never comes. We could try and add a clause in our contract that gives her permission to negotiate a buyout that pays us back for our legal

fees?

Margaret is frustrated with more than just our late payments. Namely our inability to come up with a buyout figure and general slowness to respond.

If everyone can try to be a little more alert / attentive for the next few weeks I think it'll go a long way. Most pressing is the upcoming bill which should be arriving on Tuesday. Let's see how much that bill is and figure out a reasonable amount for our next deposit.

get. But it would be good to get clarification here.

2. There's no guarantee we're going to take a buyout so I doubt she'd work for a possible percentage of a buyout that never comes. We could try and add a clause in our contract that gives her permission to negotiate a buyout that pays us back for our legal fees?

Let's come up with a consensus on these two issues and move forward.

Paying by check through mail is not an ideal solution, so I'm going to propose a few alternatives.

1. Can you pay by debit card as soon as we get a bill and then pay yourself with the venmo account?

2. Since you travel much more than anyone else, maybe someone else taking over the bill payments makes more sense? I volunteer to take that on if the group is ok with that.

David still needs to pay $925 and Phil/Theo $1,425.

If you guys need a little more time to pay that's fine but if one of you could just put in another $400 for now so we can pay the bill?

Thanks,

I'm leaving to guide a trip early tomorrow morning but will be back on Monday and can put a check in the mail to Margret then.

1. Can you pay by debit card as soon as we get a bill and then pay yourself with the venmo account?

Hey all

From Margeret regarding harassment timeline :

"Right now I am responding to a motion for summary judgment which if granted would result in the case being dismissed. My response is due Friday. The motion might be granted in part but I am almost certain that the important issues will remain."

I know she's reached out to some if not all of you looking for harassment detail verification, obviously if we can all respond in a timely manner, we can keep the option of pursuing harassment open.

If the case doesn't get thrown out tomorrow, Margeret will put together a timeline / cost breakdown of what we can expect if we continue going forward with the harassment lawsuit. She remains optimistic that it's our best leverage over Marty as far as getting a favourable buyout.

So pursuing the harassment case will cost us 15-20k? It seems like we don't have a lot of time before we need to decide on the harassment suit. If we can give Margaret a number to negotiate I would like to do that. If now is a time to pursue a buyout and everybody wants a more long term strategy/stays I'll need to ask Margaret to deal with my unit separately. matching 500 today!

Thanks Kate, will match that $500 today. Can everyone please confirm they're on board with this $500 influx into our group's legal pool?

I am also annoyed with Margeret, but I think she's just trying to be realistic about us getting a buyout now (based on the building's willingness). If we don't want buyouts then we can say that and that'll be that. The harassment case we have is also part of our bargaining power to get a good buyout now. If we don't want to take a buyout we would need to either drop the harassment suit (losing that leverage) or continue forward with it to increase the pressure on Marty (15-20k by Margarets estimation) Something to keep in mind if we decide to walk away.

I asked Margeret where we stand with her as far as how much she gets if we take a buyout while she is our lawyer / negotiator, here was her response :

Everyone in your group including you (Erez) has a retainer agreement with me that if you are bought out, we get 10%. The law permits 33%. We don't take Loft Law tenants unless they agree to that provision, as is true

with all the other Loft Law lawyers. Bob Petrucci, my predecessor, takes 10 percent. Frazer, your lawyer before that, takes at least 20%.

So when we hired her, we entered into that agreement. Seems pretty standard.

Theo / Phil and David, anything to add on your end?

On Mon, Aug 29, 2022 at 6:26 PM Kathryn Downie <downiekathryn@hotmail.com> wrote:

I'll contact the bank and see if we can change the type of account we have to get a debit card. Otherwise I can get checks mailed to someone else if that's easier too.

I will be off the road and back in BK in 2 months.

I think it's really annoying that Margret is frustrated us with not coming up with a number right away. We didn't hire her to negotiate a buyout. Most of us don't want to necessarily buyout so when she throws this at us I think it's messed up that she expects us to come up with one without a good deal of thought.

It really bothers me.

I put a bit more into the account to ensure there was enough to cover the check. $500 in total.

Can everyone please match that, as soon as you can? The zelle is my number 917-273-9366.

I really think we should do $700 each though.

1. I'll reach out and ask Margeret where we stand as far as contractually with her if a buyout offer goes through. I for one have not signed any contract giving her permission to negotiate on my behalf nor a percentage of whatever buyout I may

get. But it would be good to get clarification here.

2. There's no guarantee we're going to take a buyout so I doubt she'd work for a possible percentage of a buyout that never comes. We could try and add a clause in our contract that gives her permission to negotiate a buyout that pays us back for our legal

fees?

I will schedule an appointment with Margaret today to finalize. We need to address terms of the authorization that we are giving Margaret.

1. As it stands, she is entitled to collect 10% of any settlement we get, even if it's a future settlement negotiated by another lawyer. We need to take this out of the contract. Some of us have not given her authorization to negotiate yet, some of us have. Maybe we can change that loophole for everyone while we still can.

2. We are getting charged for hours on top of the 10%. Why? Shouldn't it be one or the other? What do you all think? She would be walking away with $300,000 if we went with the 3M collective settlement, which clearly is less than what we will ask for,

but I'm using 3M on the low end to make a point. $300,000 plus billable hours seems excessive, in my opinion.

of our bargaining power to get a good buyout now. If we don't want to take a buyout we would need to either drop the harassment suit (losing that leverage) or continue forward with it to increase the pressure on Marty (15-20k by Margarets estimation) Something to keep in mind if we decide to walk away.

I asked Margeret where we stand with her as far as how much she gets if we take a buyout while she is our lawyer / negotiator, here was her response :

Everyone in your group including you (Erez) has a retainer agreement with me that if you are bought out, we get 10%. The law permits 33%. We don't take Loft Law tenants unless they agree to that provision, as is true

with all the other Loft Law lawyers. Bob Petrucci, my predecessor, takes 10 percent. Frazer, your lawyer before that, takes at least 20%.

So when we hired her, we entered into that agreement. Seems pretty standard.

Theo / Phil and David, anything to add on your end?

I think it's really annoying that Margret is frustrated us with not coming up with a number right away. We didn't hire her to negotiate a buyout. Most of us don't want to necessarily buyout so when she throws this at us I think it's messed up that she expects us to come up with one without a good deal of thought.

It really bothers me.

I pit a bit more into the account to ensure there was enough to cover the check. $500 in total.

Can everyone please match that, as soon as you can? The zelle is my number 917-273-9366.

I really think we should do $700 each though.

1. I'll reach out and ask Margeret where we stand as far as contractually with her if a buyout offer goes through. I for one have not signed any contract giving her permission to negotiate on my behalf nor a percentage of whatever buyout I may

get. But it would be good to get clarification here.

2. There's no guarantee we're going to take a buyout so I doubt she'd work for a possible percentage of a buyout that never comes. We could try and add a clause in our contract that gives her permission to negotiate a buyout that pays us back for our legal fees?

have. Maybe we can change that loophole for everyone while we still can.

2. We are getting charged for hours on top of the 10%. Why? Shouldn't it be one or the other? What do you all think? She would be walking away with $300,000 if we went with the 3M collective settlement, which clearly is less than what we will ask for,

but I'm using 3M on the low end to make a point. $300,000 plus billable hours seems excessive, in my opinion.

Let's come up with a consensus on these two issues and move forward.

Also we should see if Kozek is available for a meeting/interview.

Also, did Margaret meet with the new Executive Director of the Loft Board to discuss the PAA's? When did she say that was scheduled for? Anyone remember?

Paying by check through mail is not an ideal solution, so I'm going to propose a few alternatives.

1. Can you pay by debit card as soon as we get a bill and then pay yourself with the venmo account?

2. Since you travel much more than anyone else, maybe someone else taking over the bill payments makes more sense? I volunteer to take that on if the group is ok with that.

Margaret is frustrated with more than just our late payments. Namely our inability to come up with a buyout figure and general slowness to respond.

If everyone can try to be a little more alert / attentive for the next few weeks I think it'll go a long way. Most pressing is the upcoming bill which should be arriving on Tuesday. Let's see how much that bill is and figure out a reasonable amount for our next deposit.

Hey all

From Margeret regarding harassment timeline :

"Right now I am responding to a motion for summary judgment which if granted would result in the case being dismissed. My response is due Friday. The motion might be granted in part but I am almost certain that the important issues will remain."

I know she's reached out to some if not all of you looking for harassment detail verification, obviously if we can all respond in a timely manner, we can keep the option of pursuing harassment open.

If the case doesn't get thrown out tomorrow, Margeret will put together a timeline / cost breakdown of what we can expect if we continue going forward with the harassment lawsuit. She remains optimistic that it's our best leverage over Marty as far as getting a favourable buyout.

Hey all

From Margeret regarding harassment timeline :

"Right now I am responding to a motion for summary judgment which if granted would result in the case being dismissed. My response is due Friday. The motion might be granted in part but I am almost certain that the important issues will remain."

I know she's reached out to some if not all of you looking for harassment detail verification, obviously if we can all respond in a timely manner, we can keep the option of pursuing harassment open.

If the case doesn't get thrown out tomorrow, Margeret will put together a timeline / cost breakdown of what we can expect if we continue going forward with the harassment lawsuit. She remains optimistic that it's our best leverage over Marty as far as getting a favourable buyout.

everybody wants a more long term strategy/stays I'll need to ask Margaret to deal with my unit separately. matching 500 today!

Thanks Kate, will match that $500 today. Can everyone please confirm they're on board with this $500 influx into our group's legal pool?

I am also annoyed with Margeret, but I think she's just trying to be realistic about us getting a buyout now (based on the building's willingness). If we don't want buyouts then we can say that and that'll be that. The harassment case we have is also part of our bargaining power to get a good buyout now. If we don't want to take a buyout we would need to either drop the harassment suit (losing that leverage) or continue forward with it to increase the pressure on Marty (15-20k by Margarets estimation) Something to keep in mind if we decide to walk away.

I asked Margeret where we stand with her as far as how much she gets if we take a buyout while she is our lawyer / negotiator, here was her response :

Everyone in your group including you (Erez) has a retainer agreement with me that if you are bought out, we get 10%. The law permits 33%. We don't take Loft Law tenants unless they agree to that provision, as is true

with all the other Loft Law lawyers. Bob Petrucci, my predecessor, takes 10 percent. Frazer, your lawyer before that, takes at least 20%.

So when we hired her, we entered into that agreement. Seems pretty standard.

Theo / Phil and David, anything to add on your end?

I think it's really annoying that Margret is frustrated us with not coming up with a number right away. We didn't hire her to negotiate a buyout. Most of us don't want to necessarily buyout so when she throws this at us I think it's messed up that she expects us to come up with one without a good deal of thought.

It really bothers me.

I put a bit more into the account to ensure there was enough to cover the check. $500 in total.

Can everyone please match that, as soon as you can? The zelle is my number 917-273-9366.

I really think we should do $700 each though.

1. I'll reach out and ask Margeret where we stand as far as contractually with her if a buyout offer goes through. I for one have not signed any contract giving her permission to negotiate on my behalf nor a percentage of whatever buyout I may

get. But it would be good to get clarification here.

2. There's no guarantee we're going to take a buyout so I doubt she'd work for a possible percentage of a buyout that never comes. We could try and add a clause in our contract that gives her permission to negotiate a buyout that pays us back for our legal fees?

have. Maybe we can change that loophole for everyone while we still can.

2. We are getting charged for hours on top of the 10%. Why? Shouldn't it be one or the other? What do you all think? She would be walking away with $300,000 if we went with the 3M collective settlement, which clearly is less than what we will ask for,

but I'm using 3M on the low end to make a point. $300,000 plus billable hours seems excessive, in my opinion.

Let's come up with a consensus on these two issues and move forward.

Margaret is frustrated with more than just our late payments. Namely our inability to come up with a buyout figure and general slowness to respond.

Got it. Thanks for clarifying.

Once the correct amount is in the account, can you write yourself a check for the amount and pay the entire balance w your credit card? just to Margaret doesn't have to wait for it?

Hey all

From Margeret regarding harassment timeline :

"Right now I am responding to a motion for summary judgment which if granted would result in the case being dismissed. My response is due Friday. The motion might be granted in part but I am almost certain that the important issues will remain."

I know she's reached out to some if not all of you looking for harassment detail verification, obviously if we can all respond in a timely manner, we can keep the option of pursuing harassment open.

On Wed, Aug 31, 2022 at 9:49 AM erez horovitz <ehorovitz@gmail.com> wrote:

Not sure on the time frame regarding the harassment, I'll clarify with her today. Kate I deposited $500 yesterday.

Any word from the bank as far as switching over to a debit card account? Also might be worth asking if we can wire the money using our existing account and how much a transaction fee that would entail.

On Tue, Aug 30, 2022 at 1:32 PM David May <davidmortimermay@gmail.com> wrote:

So pursuing the harassment case will cost us 15-20k? It seems like we don't have a lot of time before we need to decide on the harassment suit. If we can give Margaret a number to negotiate I would like to do that. If now is a time to pursue a buyout and everybody wants a more long term strategy/stays I'll need to ask Margaret to deal with my unit separately. matching 500 today!

On Tue, Aug 30, 2022 at 9:41 AM erez horovitz <ehorovitz@gmail.com> wrote:

Thanks Kate, will match that $500 today. Can everyone please confirm they're on board with this $500 influx into our group's legal pool?

I am also annoyed with Margeret, but I think she's just trying to be realistic about us getting a buyout now (based on the building's willingness). If we don't want buyouts then we can say that and that'll be that. The harassment case we have is also part of our bargaining power to get a good buyout now. If we don't want to take a buyout we would need to either drop the harassment suit (losing that leverage) or continue forward with it to increase the pressure on Marty (15-20k by Margarets estimation) Something to keep in mind if we decide to walk away.

I asked Margeret where we stand with her as far as how much she gets if we take a buyout while she is our lawyer / negotiator, here was her response :

Everyone in your group including you (Erez) has a retainer agreement with me that if you are bought out, we get 10%. The law permits 33%. We don't take Loft Law tenants unless they agree to that provision, as is true

with all the other Loft Law lawyers. Bob Petrucci, my predecessor, takes 10 percent. Frazer, your lawyer before that, takes at least 20%.

So when we hired her, we entered into that agreement. Seems pretty standard.

Theo / Phil and David, anything to add on your end?

On Mon, Aug 29, 2022 at 6:26 PM Kathryn Downie <downiekathryn@hotmail.com> wrote:

I'll contact the bank and see if we can change the type of account we have to get a debit card. Otherwise I can get checks mailed to someone else if that's easier too.

I will be off the road and back in BK in 2 months.

I think it's really annoying that Margret is frustrated us with not coming up with a number right away. We didn't hire her to negotiate a buyout. Most of us don't want to necessarily buyout so when she throws this at us I think it's messed up that she expects us to come up with one without a good deal of thought.

It really bothers me.

I put a bit more into the account to ensure there was enough to cover the check. $500 in total.

Can everyone please match that, as soon as you can? The zelle is my number 917-273-9366.

I really think we should do $700 each though.

1. I'll reach out and ask Margeret where we stand as far as contractually with her if a buyout offer goes through. I for one have not signed any contract giving her permission to negotiate on my behalf nor a percentage of whatever buyout I may

get. But it would be good to get clarification here.

2. There's no guarantee we're going to take a buyout so I doubt she'd work for a possible percentage of a buyout that never comes. We could try and add a clause in our contract that gives her permission to negotiate a buyout that pays us back for our legal fees?

On Mon, Aug 29, 2022 at 12:05 PM Christian Gray <christiangray3@protonmail.com> wrote:

I will schedule an appointment with Margaret today to finalize. We need to address terms of the authorization that we are giving Margaret.

1. As it stands, she is entitled to collect 10% of any settlement we get, even if it's a future settlement negotiated by another lawyer. We need to take this out of the contract. Some of us have not given her authorization to negotiate yet, some of us have. Maybe we can change that loophole for everyone while we still can.

2. We are getting charged for hours on top of the 10%. Why? Shouldn't it be one or the other? What do you all think? She would be walking away with $300,000 if we went with the 3M collective settlement, which clearly is less than what we will ask for,

but I'm using 3M on the low end to make a point. $300,000 plus billable hours seems excessive, in my opinion.

Let's come up with a consensus on these two issues and move forward.

Also we should see if Kozek is available for a meeting/interview.

Also, did Margaret meet with the new Executive Director of the Loft Board to discuss the PAA's? When did she say that was scheduled for? Anyone remember?

Hey everyone,

Got an email from Margeret about our group's tardiness in paying her, suffice to say, she'd appreciate it if we came up with a better system of paying our balances.

Paying by check through mail is not an ideal solution, so I'm going to propose a few alternatives.

1. Can you pay by debit card as soon as we get a bill and then pay yourself with the venmo account?

2. Since you travel much more than anyone else, maybe someone else taking over the bill payments makes more sense? I volunteer to take that on if the group is ok with that.

Margaret is frustrated with more than just our late payments. Namely our inability to come up with a buyout figure and general slowness to respond.

From Margeret regarding harassment timeline :

"Right now I am responding to a motion for summary judgment which if granted would result in the case being dismissed. My response is due Friday. The motion might be granted in part but I am almost certain that the important issues will remain."

I know she's reached out to some if not all of you looking for harassment detail verification, obviously if we can all respond in a timely manner, we can keep the option of pursuing harassment open.

If the case doesn't get thrown out tomorrow, Margeret will put together a timeline / cost breakdown of what we can expect if we continue going forward with the harassment lawsuit. She remains optimistic that it's our best leverage over Marty as far as getting a favourable buyout.

I am also annoyed with Margeret, but I think she's just trying to be realistic about us getting a buyout now (based on the building's willingness). If we don't want buyouts then we can say that and that'll be that. The harassment case we have is also part of our bargaining power to get a good buyout now. If we don't want to take a buyout we would need to either drop the harassment suit (losing that leverage) or continue forward with it to increase the pressure on Marty (15-20k by Margarets estimation) Something to keep in mind if we decide to walk away.

I asked Margeret where we stand with her as far as how much she gets if we take a buyout while she is our lawyer / negotiator, here was her response :

Everyone in your group including you (Erez) has a retainer agreement with me that if you are bought out, we get 10%. The law permits 33%. We don't take Loft Law tenants unless they agree to that provision, as is true

with all the other Loft Law lawyers. Bob Petrucci, my predecessor, takes 10 percent. Frazer, your lawyer before that, takes at least 20%.

So when we hired her, we entered into that agreement. Seems pretty standard.

I think it's really annoying that Margret is frustrated us with not coming up with a number right away. We didn't hire her to negotiate a buyout. Most of us don't want to necessarily buyout so when she throws this at us I think it's messed up that she expects us to come up with one without a good deal of thought.

I put a bit more into the account to ensure there was enough to cover the check. $500 in total.

1. I'll reach out and ask Margeret where we stand as far as contractually with her if a buyout offer goes through. I for one have not signed any contract giving her permission to negotiate on my behalf nor a percentage of whatever buyout I may

get. But it would be good to get clarification here.

2. There's no guarantee we're going to take a buyout so I doubt she'd work for a possible percentage of a buyout that never comes. We could try and add a clause in our contract that gives her permission to negotiate a buyout that pays us back for our legal fees?

have. Maybe we can change that loophole for everyone while we still can.

2. We are getting charged for hours on top of the 10%. Why? Shouldn't it be one or the other? What do you all think? She would be walking away with $300,000 if we went with the 3M collective settlement, which clearly is less than what we will ask for,

but I'm using 3M on the low end to make a point. $300,000 plus billable hours seems excessive, in my opinion.

Let's come up with a consensus on these two issues and move forward.

1. Can you pay by debit card as soon as we get a bill and then pay yourself with the venmo account?

2. Since you travel much more than anyone else, maybe someone else taking over the bill payments makes more sense? I volunteer to take that on if the group is ok with that.

Margaret is frustrated with more than just our late payments. Namely our inability to come up with a buyout figure and general slowness to respond.

If everyone can try to be a little more alert / attentive for the next few weeks I think it'll go a long way. Most pressing is the upcoming bill which should be arriving on Tuesday. Let's see how much that bill is and figure out a reasonable amount for

Hey all

From Margeret regarding harassment timeline :

"Right now I am responding to a motion for summary judgment which if granted would result in the case being dismissed. My response is due Friday. The motion might be granted in part but I am almost certain that the important issues will remain."

I know she's reached out to some if not all of you looking for harassment detail verification, obviously if we can all respond in a timely manner, we can keep the option of pursuing harassment open.

On Wed, Aug 31, 2022 at 9:49 AM erez horovitz <ehorovitz@gmail.com> wrote:

Not sure on the time frame regarding the harassment, I'll clarify with her today. Kate I deposited $500 yesterday.

Any word from the bank as far as switching over to a debit card account? Also might be worth asking if we can wire the money using our existing account and how much a transaction fee that would entail.

On Tue, Aug 30, 2022 at 1:32 PM David May <davidmortimermay@gmail.com> wrote:

So pursuing the harassment case will cost us 15-20k? It seems like we don't have a lot of time before we need to decide on the harassment suit. If we can give Margaret a number to negotiate I would like to do that. If now is a time to pursue a buyout and everybody wants a more long term strategy/stays I'll need to ask Margaret to deal with my unit separately. matching 500 today!

On Tue, Aug 30, 2022 at 9:41 AM erez horovitz <ehorovitz@gmail.com> wrote:

Thanks Kate, will match that $500 today. Can everyone please confirm they're on board with this $500 influx into our group's legal pool?

I am also annoyed with Margeret, but I think she's just trying to be realistic about us getting a buyout now (based on the building's willingness). If we don't want buyouts then we can say that and that'll be that. The harassment case we have is also part of our bargaining power to get a good buyout now. If we don't want to take a buyout we would need to either drop the harassment suit (losing that leverage) or continue forward with it to increase the pressure on Marty (15-20k by Margarets estimation) Something to keep in mind if we decide to walk away.

I asked Margeret where we stand with her as far as how much she gets if we take a buyout while she is our lawyer / negotiator, here was her response :

Everyone in your group including you (Erez) has a retainer agreement with me that if you are bought out, we get 10%. The law permits 33%. We don't take Loft Law tenants unless they agree to that provision, as is true

with all the other Loft Law lawyers. Bob Petrucci, my predecessor, takes 10 percent. Frazer, your lawyer before that, takes at least 20%.

So when we hired her, we entered into that agreement. Seems pretty standard.

Theo / Phil and David, anything to add on your end?

On Mon, Aug 29, 2022 at 6:26 PM Kathryn Downie <downiekathryn@hotmail.com> wrote:

I'll contact the bank and see if we can change the type of account we have to get a debit card. Otherwise I can get checks mailed to someone else if that's easier too.

I will be off the road and back in BK in 2 months.

I think it's really annoying that Margret is frustrated us with not coming up with a number right away. We didn't hire her to negotiate a buyout. Most of us don't want to necessarily buyout so when she throws this at us I think it's messed up that she expects us to come up with one without a good deal of thought.

It really bothers me.

I put a bit more into the account to ensure there was enough to cover the check. $500 in total.

Can everyone please match that, as soon as you can? The zelle is my number 917-273-9366.

I really think we should do $700 each though.

1. I'll reach out and ask Margeret where we stand as far as contractually with her if a buyout offer goes through. I for one have not signed any contract giving her permission to negotiate on my behalf nor a percentage of whatever buyout I may

get. But it would be good to get clarification here.

2. There's no guarantee we're going to take a buyout so I doubt she'd work for a possible percentage of a buyout that never comes. We could try and add a clause in our contract that gives her permission to negotiate a buyout that pays us back for our legal fees?

On Mon, Aug 29, 2022 at 12:05 PM Christian Gray <christiangray3@protonmail.com> wrote:

I will schedule an appointment with Margaret today to finalize. We need to address terms of the authorization that we are giving Margaret.

1. As it stands, she is entitled to collect 10% of any settlement we get, even if it's a future settlement negotiated by another lawyer. We need to take this out of the contract. Some of us have not given her authorization to negotiate yet, some of us have. Maybe we can change that loophole for everyone while we still can.

2. We are getting charged for hours on top of the 10%. Why? Shouldn't it be one or the other? What do you all think? She would be walking away with $300,000 if we went with the 3M collective settlement, which clearly is less than what we will ask for,

but I'm using 3M on the low end to make a point. $300,000 plus billable hours seems excessive, in my opinion.

Let's come up with a consensus on these two issues and move forward.

Also we should see if Kozek is available for a meeting/interview.

Also, did Margaret meet with the new Executive Director of the Loft Board to discuss the PAA's? When did she say that was scheduled for? Anyone remember?

Hey everyone,

Got an email from Margeret about our group's tardiness in paying her, suffice to say, she'd appreciate it if we came up with a better system of paying our balances.

Paying by check through mail is not an ideal solution, so I'm going to propose a few alternatives.

1. Can you pay by debit card as soon as we get a bill and then pay yourself with the venmo account?

2. Since you travel much more than anyone else, maybe someone else taking over the bill payments makes more sense? I volunteer to take that on if the group is ok with that.

Margaret is frustrated with more than just our late payments. Namely our inability to come up with a buyout figure and general slowness to respond.

If everyone can try to be a little more alert / attentive for the next few weeks I think it'll go a long way. Most pressing is the upcoming bill which should be arriving on Tuesday. Let's see how much that bill is and figure out a reasonable amount for our next deposit.

Hey all

From Margeret regarding harassment timeline :

"Right now I am responding to a motion for summary judgment which if granted would result in the case being dismissed. My response is due Friday. The motion might be granted in part but I am almost certain that the important issues will remain."

I know she's reached out to some if not all of you looking for harassment detail verification, obviously if we can all respond in a timely manner, we can keep the option of pursuing harassment open.

everybody wants a more long term strategy/stays I'll need to ask Margaret to deal with my unit separately. matching 500 today!

I am also annoyed with Margeret, but I think she's just trying to be realistic about us getting a buyout now (based on the building's willingness). If we don't want buyouts then we can say that and that'll be that. The harassment case we have is also part of our bargaining power to get a good buyout now. If we don't want to take a buyout we would need to either drop the harassment suit (losing that leverage) or continue forward with it to increase the pressure on Marty (15-20k by Margarets estimation) Something to keep in mind if we decide to walk away.

I asked Margeret where we stand with her as far as how much she gets if we take a buyout while she is our lawyer / negotiator, here was her response :

Everyone in your group including you (Erez) has a retainer agreement with me that if you are bought out, we get 10%. The law permits 33%. We don't take Loft Law tenants unless they agree to that provision, as is true

with all the other Loft Law lawyers. Bob Petrucci, my predecessor, takes 10 percent. Frazer, your lawyer before that, takes at least 20%.

So when we hired her, we entered into that agreement. Seems pretty standard.

Theo / Phil and David, anything to add on your end?

I will be off the road and back in BK in 2 months.

I think it's really annoying that Margret is frustrated us with not coming up with a number right away. We didn't hire her to negotiate a buyout. Most of us don't want to necessarily buyout so when she throws this at us I think it's messed up that she expects us to come up with one without a good deal of thought.

It really bothers me.

I pit a bit more into the account to ensure there was enough to cover the check. $500 in total.

Can everyone please match that, as soon as you can? The zelle is my number 917-273-9366.

I really think we should do $700 each though.

1. I'll reach out and ask Margeret where we stand as far as contractually with her if a buyout offer goes through. I for one have not signed any contract giving her permission to negotiate on my behalf nor a percentage of whatever buyout I may get. But it would be good to get clarification here.

2. There's no guarantee we're going to take a buyout so I doubt she'd work for a possible percentage of a buyout that never comes. We could try and add a clause in our contract that gives her permission to negotiate a buyout that pays us back for our legal fees?

On Mon, Aug 29, 2022 at 12:05 PM Christian Gray <christiangray3@protonmail.com> wrote:

I will schedule an appointment with Margaret today to finalize. We need to address terms of the authorization that we are giving Margaret.

1. As it stands, she is entitled to collect 10% of any settlement we get, even if it's a future settlement negotiated by another lawyer. We need to take this out of the contract. Some of us have not given her authorization to negotiate yet, some of us have. Maybe we can change that loophole for everyone while we still can.

2. We are getting charged for hours on top of the 10%. Why? Shouldn't it be one or the other? What do you all think? She would be walking away with $300,000 if we went with the 3M collective settlement, which clearly is less than what we will ask for, but I'm using 3M on the low end to make a point. $300,000 plus billable hours seems excessive, in my opinion.

Let's come up with a consensus on these two issues and move forward.

Also we should see if Kozek is available for a meeting/interview.

Also, did Margaret meet with the new Executive Director of the Loft Board to discuss the PAA's? When did she say that was scheduled for? Anyone remember?

Paying by check through mail is not an ideal solution, so I'm going to propose a few alternatives.

1. Can you pay by debit card as soon as we get a bill and then pay yourself with the venmo account?
2. Since you travel much more than anyone else, maybe someone else taking over the bill payments makes more sense? I volunteer to take that on if the group is ok with that.

Margaret is frustrated with more than just our late payments. Namely our inability to come up with a buyout figure and general slowness to respond.

If everyone can try to be a little more alert / attentive for the next few weeks I think it'll go a long way. Most pressing is the upcoming bill which should be arriving on Tuesday. Let's see how much that bill is and figure out a reasonable amount for our next deposit.

Hey all

From Margeret regarding harassment timeline :

"Right now I am responding to a motion for summary judgment which if granted would result in the case being dismissed. My response is due Friday. The motion might be granted in part but I am almost certain that the important issues will remain."

I know she's reached out to some if not all of you looking for harassment detail verification, obviously if we can all respond in a timely manner, we can keep the option of pursuing harassment open.

If the case doesn't get thrown out tomorrow, Margeret will put together a timeline / cost breakdown of what we can expect if we continue going forward with the harassment lawsuit. She remains optimistic that it's our best leverage over Marty as far as getting a favourable buyout.

On Wed, Aug 31, 2022 at 9:49 AM erez horovitz <ehorovitz@gmail.com> wrote:

Not sure on the time frame regarding the harassment, I'll clarify with her today. Kate I deposited $500 yesterday.

Any word from the bank as far as switching over to a debit card account? Also might be worth asking if we can wire the money using our existing account and how much a transaction fee that would entail.

On Tue, Aug 30, 2022 at 1:32 PM David May <davidmortimermay@gmail.com> wrote:

So pursuing the harassment case will cost us 15-20k? It seems like we don't have a lot of time before we need to decide on the harassment suit. If we can give Margaret a number to negotiate I would like to do that. If now is a time to pursue a buyout and everybody wants a more long term strategy/stays I'll need to ask Margaret to deal with my unit separately. matching 500 today!

On Tue, Aug 30, 2022 at 9:41 AM erez horovitz <ehorovitz@gmail.com> wrote:

Thanks Kate, will match that $500 today. Can everyone please confirm they're on board with this $500 influx into our group's legal pool?

I am also annoyed with Margeret, but I think she's just trying to be realistic about us getting a buyout now (based on the building's willingness). If we don't want buyouts then we can say that and that'll be that. The harassment case we have is also part of our bargaining power to get a good buyout now. If we don't want to take a buyout we would need to either drop the harassment suit (losing that leverage) or continue forward with it to increase the pressure on Marty (15-20k by Margarets estimation) Something to keep in mind if we decide to walk away.

I asked Margeret where we stand with her as far as how much she gets if we take a buyout while she is our lawyer / negotiator, here was her response :

Everyone in your group including you (Erez) has a retainer agreement with me that if you are bought out, we get 10%. The law permits 33%. We don't take Loft Law tenants unless they agree to that provision, as is true

with all the other Loft Law lawyers. Bob Petrucci, my predecessor, takes 10 percent. Frazer, your lawyer before that, takes at least 20%.

So when we hired her, we entered into that agreement. Seems pretty standard.

Theo / Phil and David, anything to add on your end?

On Mon, Aug 29, 2022 at 6:26 PM Kathryn Downie <downiekathryn@hotmail.com> wrote:

I'll contact the bank and see if we can change the type of account we have to get a debit card. Otherwise I can get checks mailed to someone else if that's easier too.

I will be off the road and back in BK in 2 months.

I think it's really annoying that Margret is frustrated us with not coming up with a number right away. We didn't hire her to negotiate a buyout. Most of us don't want to necessarily buyout so when she throws this at us I think it's messed up that she expects us to come up with one without a good deal of thought.

It really bothers me.

I put a bit more into the account to ensure there was enough to cover the check. $500 in total.

Can everyone please match that, as soon as you can? The zelle is my number 917-273-9366.

I really think we should do $700 each though.

1. I'll reach out and ask Margeret where we stand as far as contractually with her if a buyout offer goes through. I for one have not signed any contract giving her permission to negotiate on my behalf nor a percentage of whatever buyout I may

get. But it would be good to get clarification here.

2. There's no guarantee we're going to take a buyout so I doubt she'd work for a possible percentage of a buyout that never comes. We could try and add a clause in our contract that gives her permission to negotiate a buyout that pays us back for our legal fees?

On Mon, Aug 29, 2022 at 12:05 PM Christian Gray <christiangray3@protonmail.com> wrote:

I will schedule an appointment with Margaret today to finalize. We need to address terms of the authorization that we are giving Margaret.

1. As it stands, she is entitled to collect 10% of any settlement we get, even if it's a future settlement negotiated by another lawyer. We need to take this out of the contract. Some of us have not given her authorization to negotiate yet, some of us have. Maybe we can change that loophole for everyone while we still can.

2. We are getting charged for hours on top of the 10%. Why? Shouldn't it be one or the other? What do you all think? She would be walking away with $300,000 if we went with the 3M collective settlement, which clearly is less than what we will ask for,

but I'm using 3M on the low end to make a point. $300,000 plus billable hours seems excessive, in my opinion.

Let's come up with a consensus on these two issues and move forward.

Also we should see if Kozek is available for a meeting/interview.

Also, did Margaret meet with the new Executive Director of the Loft Board to discuss the PAA's? When did she say that was scheduled for? Anyone remember?

Hey everyone,

Got an email from Margeret about our group's tardiness in paying her, suffice to say, she'd appreciate it if we came up with a better system of paying our balances.

Paying by check through mail is not an ideal solution, so I'm going to propose a few alternatives.

1. Can you pay by debit card as soon as we get a bill and then pay yourself with the venmo account?

2. Since you travel much more than anyone else, maybe someone else taking over the bill payments makes more sense? I volunteer to take that on if the group is ok with that.

Margaret is frustrated with more than just our late payments. Namely our inability to come up with a buyout figure and general slowness to respond.

If everyone can try to be a little more alert / attentive for the next few weeks I think it'll go a long way. Most pressing is the upcoming bill which should be arriving on Tuesday. Let's see how much that bill is and figure out a reasonable amount for our next deposit.

Hey all

From Margeret regarding harassment timeline :

"Right now I am responding to a motion for summary judgment which if granted would result in the case being dismissed. My response is due Friday. The motion might be granted in part but I am almost certain that the important issues will remain."

I know she's reached out to some if not all of you looking for harassment detail verification, obviously if we can all respond in a timely manner, we can keep the option of pursuing harassment open.

If the case doesn't get thrown out tomorrow, Margeret will put together a timeline / cost breakdown of what we can expect if we continue going forward with the harassment lawsuit. She remains optimistic that it's our best leverage over Marty as far as getting a favourable buyout.

On Wed, Aug 31, 2022 at 9:49 AM erez horovitz <ehorovitz@gmail.com> wrote:

Not sure on the time frame regarding the harassment, I'll clarify with her today. Kate I deposited $500 yesterday.

Any word from the bank as far as switching over to a debit card account? Also might be worth asking if we can wire the money using our existing account and how much a transaction fee that would entail.

On Tue, Aug 30, 2022 at 1:32 PM David May <davidmortimermay@gmail.com> wrote:

So pursuing the harassment case will cost us 15-20k? It seems like we don't have a lot of time before we need to decide on the harassment suit. If we can give Margaret a number to negotiate I would like to do that. If now is a time to pursue a buyout and everybody wants a more long term strategy/stays I'll need to ask Margaret to deal with my unit separately. matching 500 today!

On Tue, Aug 30, 2022 at 9:41 AM erez horovitz <ehorovitz@gmail.com> wrote:

Thanks Kate, will match that $500 today. Can everyone please confirm they're on board with this $500 influx into our group's legal pool?

I am also annoyed with Margeret, but I think she's just trying to be realistic about us getting a buyout now (based on the building's willingness). If we don't want buyouts then we can say that and that'll be that. The harassment case we have is also part of our bargaining power to get a good buyout now. If we don't want to take a buyout we would need to either drop the harassment suit (losing that leverage) or continue forward with it to increase the pressure on Marty (15-20k by Margarets estimation) Something to keep in mind if we decide to walk away.

I asked Margeret where we stand with her as far as how much she gets if we take a buyout while she is our lawyer / negotiator, here was her response :

Everyone in your group including you (Erez) has a retainer agreement with me that if you are bought out, we get 10%. The law permits 33%. We don't take Loft Law tenants unless they agree to that provision, as is true

with all the other Loft Law lawyers. Bob Petrucci, my predecessor, takes 10 percent. Frazer, your lawyer before that, takes at least 20%.

So when we hired her, we entered into that agreement. Seems pretty standard.

Theo / Phil and David, anything to add on your end?

On Mon, Aug 29, 2022 at 6:26 PM Kathryn Downie <downiekathryn@hotmail.com> wrote:

I'll contact the bank and see if we can change the type of account we have to get a debit card. Otherwise I can get checks mailed to someone else if that's easier too.

I will be off the road and back in BK in 2 months.

I think it's really annoying that Margret is frustrated us with not coming up with a number right away. We didn't hire her to negotiate a buyout. Most of us don't want to necessarily buyout so when she throws this at us I think it's messed up that she expects us to come up with one without a good deal of thought.

It really bothers me.

I put a bit more into the account to ensure there was enough to cover the check. $500 in total.

Can everyone please match that, as soon as you can? The zelle is my number 917-273-9366.

I really think we should do $700 each though.

1. I'll reach out and ask Margeret where we stand as far as contractually with her if a buyout offer goes through. I for one have not signed any contract giving her permission to negotiate on my behalf nor a percentage of whatever buyout I may

get. But it would be good to get clarification here.

2. There's no guarantee we're going to take a buyout so I doubt she'd work for a possible percentage of a buyout that never comes. We could try and add a clause in our contract that gives her permission to negotiate a buyout that pays us back for our legal fees?

On Mon, Aug 29, 2022 at 12:05 PM Christian Gray <christiangray3@protonmail.com> wrote:

I will schedule an appointment with Margaret today to finalize. We need to address terms of the authorization that we are giving Margaret.

1. As it stands, she is entitled to collect 10% of any settlement we get, even if it's a future settlement negotiated by another lawyer. We need to take this out of the contract. Some of us have not given her authorization to negotiate yet, some of us have. Maybe we can change that loophole for everyone while we still can.

2. We are getting charged for hours on top of the 10%. Why? Shouldn't it be one or the other? What do you all think? She would be walking away with $300,000 if we went with the 3M collective settlement, which clearly is less than what we will ask for,

but I'm using 3M on the low end to make a point. $300,000 plus billable hours seems excessive, in my opinion.

Let's come up with a consensus on these two issues and move forward.

Also we should see if Kozek is available for a meeting/interview.

Also, did Margaret meet with the new Executive Director of the Loft Board to discuss the PAA's? When did she say that was scheduled for? Anyone remember?

Hey everyone,

Got an email from Margeret about our group's tardiness in paying her, suffice to say, she'd appreciate it if we came up with a better system of paying our balances.

Paying by check through mail is not an ideal solution, so I'm going to propose a few alternatives.

1. Can you pay by debit card as soon as we get a bill and then pay yourself with the venmo account?

2. Since you travel much more than anyone else, maybe someone else taking over the bill payments makes more sense? I volunteer to take that on if the group is ok with that.

Margaret is frustrated with more than just our late payments. Namely our inability to come up with a buyout figure and general slowness to respond.

If everyone can try to be a little more alert / attentive for the next few weeks I think it'll go a long way. Most pressing is the upcoming bill which should be arriving on Tuesday. Let's see how much that bill is and figure out a reasonable amount for our next deposit.

Hey,

Just an update, we didn't get to speak w Margaret last week, gonna try again this week. The meeting is a little more challenging to set up as Christian needs to meet with her husband as well so he can make sense of his damages claim against Marty and how that affects his buyout arrangement.

Hey all

Just wanted to touch base with everyone as it's been a little while. We still haven't submitted a formal buyout number to Margaret, but Christian (and I) are scheduled to have a call with her tomorrow that will hopefully get us closer to that goal (if that's in the cards).

I'll update everyone again after that call.

Subject: Update

I have just today learned that Loft Board staff is recommending that Lockhart be required to provide access to his unit for legalization based on the most recent access application. The decision is likely to be made at the Loft Board meeting this Thursday. There are defects in the proposed order which I have brought to the attention of the tenant rep on the Loft Board but I think it likely that the board will approve the order.

I need to hear from you regarding a buyout number for your unit no later than Monday (if you wait till Monday, early in the day please as time to Thurs. is short) and I hope you have understood you should not propose more than $1.5M and that other tenants are suffering due to your indecision. For example, Lockhart is willing to take a buyout rather than end up with an apartment with no bedrooms but there is interest in buying out that unit at a reasonable price only as part of a group buyout.

The Loft Board order that may be voted for Lockhart Thurs. may make it impossible to continue to litigate the PAA issue. Obviously I had to raise that issue in the case. The proposed order rejects our position on the PAA's and may be dispositive on this issue for everyone.

Your settlement position seems to assume you will win every issue in your case and that the tenants will also prevail in all related litigation. Here is a signal that I have done the best I could for Phil and Theo and that they are probably about to lose.

The smartest thing to do would be to propose a group buyout well before the Thurs. Loft Board meeting.

I need to hear from you regarding a buyout number for your unit no later than Monday (if you wait till Monday, early in the day please as time to Thurs. is short) and I hope you have understood you should not propose more than $1.5M and that other tenants are suffering due to your indecision. For example, Lockhart is willing to take a buyout rather than end up with an apartment with no bedrooms but there is interest in buying out that unit at a reasonable price only as part of a group buyout.

The Loft Board order that may be voted for Lockhart Thurs. may make it impossible to continue to litigate the PAA issue. Obviously I had to raise that issue in the ehri case. The proposed order rejects our position on the PAA's and may be dispositive on this issue for everyone.

Your settlement position seems to assume you will win every issue in your case and that the tenants will also prevail in all related litigation. Here is a signal that I have done the best I could for Phil and Theo and that they are probably about to lose.

The smartest thing to do would be to propose a group buyout well before the Thurs.Loft Board meeting.

I suggest $275,000 to David May, 500,000 to Theo's unit and Kate's unit each, $800,000 to Erez and the balance to Christian with a total cap at $3.5M.

I need to know by noon tomorrow. Please don't ask for more time. We cannot represent you if you don't let us act now. Please understand that we are not able to go forward if you don't follow our advice. This needs to be made a deal long Thanks for the update. That's quite an ultimatum on short notice.

That proposal adds up to 3.5 mil. So why not 4 mil?

Also, am not fully convinced that some units are more valuable than others. For example, G12 has second floor southern exposure giving it more sunlight through the windows, is easily accessible to the street and is in a more private area of the building with just four neighboring units, and has other favorable qualities.

Wouldn't all differences in the units other than perhaps square footage become "moot" if the building is coming down and the property is developed at some unknown point?

By the way has everyone heard that Marty is now only "consultant" to American Package and his daughter Michelle is now president?

Obviously, Chris Gray has gone through probably the most hardship in the last few years. G12 has also endured repetitive and costly harassment in this period. Everyone here has a story.

Sorry if all this isn't necessarily provoking a quick response from us to Margaret's challenge.

I have just today learned that Loft Board staff is recommending that Lockhart be required to provide access to his unit for legalization based on the most recent access application. The decision is likely to be made at the Loft Board meeting this Thursday.

There are defects in the proposed order which I have brought to the attention of the tenant rep on the Loft Board but I think it likely that the board will approve the order.

I need to hear from you regarding a buyout number for your unit no later than Monday (if you wait till Monday, early in the day please as time to Thurs. is short) and I hope you have understood you should not propose more than $1.5M and that other tenants are suffering due to your indecision. For example, Lockhart is willing to take a buyout rather than end up with an apartment with no bedrooms but there is interest in buying out that unit at a reasonable price only as part of a group buyout.

The Loft Board order that may be voted for Lockhart Thurs. may make it impossible to continue to litigate the PAA issue. Obviously I had to raise that issue in the case. The proposed order rejects our position on the PAA's and may be dispositive on this issue for everyone.

Your settlement position seems to assume you will win every issue in your case and that the tenants will also prevail in all related litigation. Here is a signal that I have done the best I could for Phil and Theo and that they are probably about to lose.

The smartest thing to do would be to propose a group buyout well before the Thurs. Loft Board meeting.

All good points,

I'm frustrated by Margaret's timeline and unwillingness to ask for more than this seemingly arbitrary 3.5million. I don't want to spoil anyones buyout ambitions, but at this point I'm leaning towards firing her and finding new representation.

Going to speak to Christian this morning and see where he stands on these numbers.

Anyone else have any strong positions on this? David? Kate? How do these numbers sit w you? And how does the prospect of moving forward with a new lawyer sound?

Either way Margaret has set an ultimatum to reply by 12 noon today either agreeing to these numbers or firing her. Not sure if she's a Gary Cooper fan, but high noon seems as arbitrary as the 3.5 million...

That proposal adds up to 3.5 mil. So why not 4 mil?

Also, am not fully convinced that some units are more valuable than others. For example, G12 has second floor southern exposure giving it more sunlight through the windows, is easily accessible to the street and is in a more private area of the building with just four neighboring units, and has other favorable qualities.

Wouldn't all differences in the units other than perhaps square footage become "moot" if the building is coming down and the property is developed at some unknown point?

By the way has everyone heard that Marty is now only "consultant" to American Package and his daughter Michelle is now president?

Obviously, Chris Gray has gone through probably the most hardship in the last few years. G12 has also endured repetitive and costly harassment in this period. Everyone here has a story.

Sorry if all this isn't necessarily provoking a quick response from us to Margaret's challenge.

To: erez horovitz <ehorovitz@gmail.com>

There is one bad thing probably coming down the pike and 5 other bad things that will or may also happen. The occurrence of any of these things will impair your bargaining power probably for years. There are people in your group who do want to leave the building and don't want impaired bargaining power and don't want to wait years.

We already know that the Loft Board is likely to vote on Thurs. that Phil and Theo have to have their unit legalized per the owner's plans.

I raised the issue of the PAA's in their case and the Loft Board did not accept my arguments. That could prevent any of you from being legalized with the PAA's.

There is a pending motion to dismiss in the harassment case. We may lose some causes of action as a result. If we do, our bargaining power is harmed probably for years.

We have a pending application at the Loft Board for review by the full Loft Board of the decision of the former executive director that the landlord need not do PAA's. When that is decided, if we lose, which may well happen, our bargaining power is harmed probably for years.

In Christian's HP case, the landlord has agreed to do more work but not the scope of work Christian wants.

The Lockhart unit is facing multiple litigations they can't afford.

It is important that people know these things and take into account that we cannot do the harassment case, that is, bring it to trial, unless everyone is willing not to be bought out probably forever. Also,

I caught the landlord's experts committing perjury in the HP case and that is why the landlord is back at the bargaining table now. That has to be worked out before the next court date in that case.

Finally, my credibility as a lawyer is being undermined first and most directly in that I agreed to get back to the landlord lawyer yesterday at least on a buyout for Christian. My partner and I spoke with him last week and told him to respond by Friday or latest Monday. I have lost credibility by not doing that. I can only be successful for you with that credibility.

My credibility is not helped by all the cases I am losing in trying to get you PAA's, avoidance of legalizing the Lockhart unit, etc.

Back in June she told me I could ask for over 300k, but she didn't move forward with it for me, suggesting instead that we all negotiate together. Since then she keeps encouraging a group buyout and the number she says I should expect to get keeps shrinking. A month ago I asked if I went solo could I get the 200k 2019 deal- she told me a week ago that the only deal for me currently is the standing 125k offer from the landlord (unless more join me).

While I don't appreciate Margaret's approach etc, I am still planning on leaving the building. Unless she is exaggerating, It sounds like I should be wary of an eviction case. I'm not sure why she decided 275 for my unit but it's more than the 125 she is now suggesting I'd get alone. If the group wants to stick it out and move on from Margaret I will probably pursue whatever buyout is available right now with her.

So was that a no from you Phil? Kate? Im curious what Chris thinks.

Here's what she wrote to G12 on Monday:

We cannot assume anything till after the meeting Thurs. However, there are ways to appeal that we will have to discuss verbally, not by email.

I believe your best bet would be a buyout and that you should decide about one before Thurs.

Subject: Buyout offer

Hey Margaret,

Just had a meeting with Christian, Phil and Theo and David and Kate.

Here's where we stand as a group...

Christian : 1.5 million

Erez : 1 million

Kate : 600k

Phil + Theo 600k

David : 300k

That brings us to 4 million. We as a group agree to this number as our offer to the building.

Additionally, we are wondering if there is room to ask for a year (or two) of rent free in our spaces, as well as having our legal fees covered.

Thanks

Erez

Subject: Re: Buyout offer

All, the only buyout number I accept in this group is Christian's.

David, you told me you would take the $125,000 they are offering so far. I feel getting you $275,000 as I proposed is fair. If I cannot get you $275, I think you should take less.

Kate and Phil/Theo: We talked about getting you $400,000, so I don't know why $500,000 would not do the trick. By the way, if I can't get $500.000, I think you should take $400,000.

Erez, either you or someone else said your number was $800,000.

Perjury has been discovered in the landlord's papers in Christian's case. At the moment, I will put forward Christian's number alone. It would behoove the rest of you to be on his coat tails. That means a QUICK response to my comments above.

I have investigated enough to know the landlord's budget is either $3.5M or $3.35 M. I cannot make proposals with no chance of success.

To be clear, my number is 1.5M plus any percentage Goodfard & Sandercock is charging for their services. This is not an authorization to go ahead as a single unit. At this point, I will only move forward as a group, in a group buyout, and with everyone in the group feeling at peace with their decision. I do not authorize moving forward with the 1.65M total settlement for my Loft Law rights until the group comes to a consensus and has all voted to move forward.

Peace,

Subject: New lawyer

Hey all,

Margaret is unwilling to bring forward the 4 million number we agreed on. I've reached out to another loft law lawyer, Michael Kozek, who is open to taking on our case.

At this point he is recommending we have an initial meeting, just to see if jumping ship makes sense. Obviously time is of the essence, can everyone be available tomorrow morning for a zoom meeting?

In the meantime, let's not contact Margaret until we hear what he has to say.

Initial meeting will be $250 and if we decide to hire him, initial retainer would be 5k.

For what it's worth, he was sympathetic with our situation and not surprised to hear of our frustrations with Margeret.

I'm proposing 10am as a time tomorrow, let me know if that works.

At this point he is recommending we have an initial meeting, just to see if jumping ship makes sense. Obviously time is of the essence, can everyone be available tomorrow morning for a zoom meeting?

In the meantime, let's not contact Margaret until we hear what he has to say.

Initial meeting will be $250 and if we decide to hire him, initial retainer would be 5k.

For what it's worth, he was sympathetic with our situation and not surprised to hear of our frustrations with Margeret.

I'm proposing 10am as a time tomorrow, let me know if that works.

Good morning,

I'll ask if we can do later, but Kate you haven't given me a time option that works for you... I'll ask Kozek if he has anything in the early afternoon.

I asked everyone if they could do 10am, and everyone (except for Theo) replied that they could.

This is just unnecessary added stress to an already very stressful situation. I understand mistakes happen and this was a particularly last minute thing, just expressing my frustration.

When emailed about the time I had said any time after 11 or 12.

7am was just too early when it was my first day off in so long and didn't finish until after 11pm.

Subject: buyouts

The only person for whom I made a buyout proposal is Christian.

The landlord has offered $125,000 per unit unless everyone I represent is bought out. The only possible exception to this is Christian.

I know with relative certainty what their budget is: either $3.35M or 3.5M.

There is no point in my proposing buyouts that exceed that level.

If you want me to make a proposal within the numbers the landlord is willing to pay, you would have to let me know that.

I do not know whether Erez shared my concerns about the litigation status of your building reflected below.

This list does not encompass the possibility that you would get sued for primary residence.

No one's rights in this economy are worth $750,000. That the landlord could sue you for primary residence reduces the value of your rights by 50%.

Subject: Your building

There is one bad thing probably coming down the pike and 5 other bad things that will or may also happen. The occurrence of any of these things will impair your bargaining power probably for years. There are people in your group who do want to leave the building and don't want impaired bargaining power and don't want to wait years.

We already know that the Loft Board is likely to vote on Thurs. that Phil and Theo have to have their unit legalized per the owner's plans.

I raised the issue of the PAA's in their case and the Loft Board did not accept my arguments. That could prevent any of you from being legalized with the PAA's.

There is a pending motion to dismiss in the harassment case. We may lose some causes of action as a result. If we do, our bargaining power is harmed probably for years.

We have a pending application at the Loft Board for review by the full Loft Board of the decision of the former executive director that the landlord need not do PAA's. When that is decided, if we lose, which may well happen, our bargaining power is harmed probably for years.

In Christian's HP case, the landlord has agreed to do more work but not the scope of work Christian wants.

The Lockhart unit is facing multiple litigations they can't afford.

It is important that people know these things and take into account that we cannot do the harassment case, that is, bring it to trial, unless everyone is willing not to be bought out probably forever. Also, I caught the landlord's experts committing perjury in the HP case and that is why the landlord is back at the bargaining table now. That has to be worked out before the next court date in that case.

Finally, my credibility as a lawyer is being undermined first and most directly in that I agreed to get back to the landlord lawyer yesterday at least on a buyout for Christian. My partner and I spoke with him last week and told him to respond by Friday or latest Monday. I have lost credibility by not doing that. I can only be successful for you with that credibility.

My credibility is not helped by all the cases I am losing in trying to get you PAA's, avoidance of legalizing the Lockhart unit, etc.

Subject: Re: buyouts

The point of my once again pressing a joint buyout and at the risk of being too specific, is that Theo and Phil have a huge problem as of and after tomorrow's Loft Board meeting and also that David wants to leave the building and can do much better (but much less well than the rest of you) as part of a group.

I would like to suggest again that by tomorrow morning first thing, you all approve buyouts at the level I suggested in the first place.

Christian already has a buyout proposal in. I know what David is prepared to do. The rest of you are in my opinion overpricing your rights and thereby, screwing your neighbors.

I'd appreciate if you stop ignoring me.

Subject: buyouts

The only person for whom I made a buyout proposal is Christian.

The landlord has offered $125,000 per unit unless everyone I represent is bought out. The only possible exception to this is Christian.

I know with relative certainty what their budget is: either $3.35M or 3.5M.

There is no point in my proposing buyouts that exceed that level.

If you want me to make a proposal within the numbers the landlord is willing to pay, you would have to let me know that.

Subject: Landlord issues

The landlord is not interested in buying anyone out at the price points you have suggested. I believe he will buy David out at $125,000 which is the number offered any unit wanting to leave now without the other units leaving.

We are about to lose, that is, not win, parts of our litigation which is why I told you to come up with reasonable settlement positions and have been recommending that for months. The proposals recently made were too late and too high.

Hey all,

As it stands, Kate, Chritian and myself would like to fire Margeret and hire Kozek moving forward.

Phil + Theo and David are still up in the air, obviously the sooner the better but I know both of your situations are different and require more thought. Phil + Theo good luck today on your access hearing, keep us posted on the outcome.

Obviously Margaret has been reaching out, I'm going to abstain from responding until we as a group have clarity on how we want to proceed.

Also, thanks to everyone for acting so quickly these past few days, hopefully calmer water ahead.

Hello folks,

Theo and I were outvoted by the Loft Board on Thursday for the Access case. Chuck Delaney, the tenant representative voted in our favor. We are now weighing our options. An appeal is a possibility. If you have any ideas or comments let me know. Also we are still considering the idea of a new TA representative. Thank you all for your thoughts and concern.

Christian, Kate and Erez, we understand you consulted with a different lawyer. We also appreciate that you deserve to work with counsel where your views are shared by your attorney. For this reason, we are not really willing to work with you anymore and would ask you to pay your final bill and to retain either the person you already consulted with, or some other attorney of your choice.

Christian, we assume you will transfer all your cases to new counsel.

It is our understanding that Theo and Phil are unlikely to join you with new counsel, and we will continue to work with them if that is what they want. We are also willing to continue to work with David May, from whom we have not yet heard as to his future plans, as we don't have differences of opinion with him, that I know of.

To the extent that any of you referred 2 units that are not yet covered but for whom we applied for protected occupancy, I have notified them of our willingness to continue with them and I have no reason to think they want to change counsel.

Good luck, Christian, Kate and Erez. Please note that there are paperwork procedures to follow for all the cases, that I would ask you to do promptly so that neither my firm nor your replacement counsel gets into trouble for not attending to proper protocol.

Thanks everyone.

That said, we should make this pivot as soon as possible. Knowing it'll likely be the 3 of us, how quickly can we all come up with the $1666 each needed to get him on retainer? As well as settling up whatever balance we have w Margaret.

This is a stressful moment, but ultimately we didn't want to go, and we're finding representation that reflects that.

Hey,

I'd like to move forward with Kozek transition, I don't like being between representation especially at this moment.

If David or Theo and Phil decide to come along, they can buy into our retainer.

Just confirming you're both on board with this before reaching out to Kozek to formally ask him to be our new lawyer.

Hey Michael,

I'm reaching out on behalf of Kate, Christain (cc'd) and myself hoping to hire you as our lawyer moving forward.

The other 2 units (David and Theo) are still deciding, but whether they decide to join us or not doesn't affect our decision.

Margaret was made aware we spoke to you and sent an email recommending we stop using her as council. Obviously we'd like to move forward with this transition as quickly and as amicably as possible. Please let us know what you need on our end, looking forward to working with you moving forward.

I'll get in touch with David directly today and talk with him about moving over with us. Maybe we can get Kozek to offset David's legal fees in the buyout, but still taking his 10% or maybe a slight adjustment to accommodate for David. It's still a chunk of $ for Kozek that he wouldn't be getting from David's buyout if Margaret brokers the deal.

Erez,

Thank you for letting me know. I look forward to working with you on this. Please note that I spoke to David today and I suspect that he will be in touch with you about potentially joining as well. For the purposes of putting together the engagement letter, we will need full names, addresses, and phone numbers for each of you. As soon as we have that, we will prepare the EL package and email it over. Once we're engaged, we'll set up another meeting to discuss next steps.

Best,

Mike

Erez,

Thank you for letting me know. I look forward to working with you on this. Please note that I spoke to David today and I suspect that he will be in touch with you about potentially joining as well. For the purposes of putting together the engagement letter, we will need full names, addresses, and phone numbers for each of you. As soon as we have that, we will prepare the EL package and email it over. Once we're engaged, we'll set up another meeting to discuss next steps.

Hey Michael,

I'm reaching out on behalf of Kate, Christain (cc'd) and myself hoping to hire you as our lawyer moving forward.

The other 2 units (David and Theo) are still deciding, but whether they decide to join us or not doesn't affect our decision.

Margaret was made aware we spoke to you and sent an email recommending we stop using her as council. Obviously we'd like to move forward with this transition as quickly and as amicably as possible.

Please let us know what you need on our end, looking forward to working with you moving forward.

Hey Michael,

I'm reaching out on behalf of Kate, Christain (cc'd) and myself hoping to hire you as our lawyer moving forward.

The other 2 units (David and Theo) are still deciding, but whether they decide to join us or not doesn't affect our decision.

Margaret was made aware we spoke to you and sent an email recommending we stop using her as council. Obviously we'd like to move forward with this transition as quickly and as amicably as possible.

Please let us know what you need on our end, looking forward to working with you moving forward.

Dear Tenants at 226 Franklin,

As discussed with Michael Kozek, please see the attached engagement documents. Review the Letter and Terms carefully. If they are acceptable, please sign where indicated on the engagement letter, and sign the terms of engagement documents as well. Please also make sure to have each unit fill out and send back individual Client Intake Forms, also attached.

We accept retainer and all future payments by cash, check, or credit card. You can most easily make your retainer payments by card using our secure online portal

Please let us know how you intend to pay the retainer—we will not begin work on your behalf until it is received. If you have any additional questions regarding the documents or if you need additional information, I will be happy to help.

We look forward to working with you on this matter. Until then, be well and all the best.

Hey all,

Let's fill out this paper work and get the 2500 dollar retainer paid asap.

That's 625 per person.

I think this would be a good opportunity to switch banks Kate.

There's a bank called Chime that doesn't require a minimum balance, doesn't cost any money to keep open and will give us a free debit card so we can make our payments more seamlessly.

If everyone is in agreement I can open that up and that first 625 can go straight in there.

Kate are we settled up w a Margaret?

Hey all,

Let's fill out this paper work and get the 2500 dollar retainer paid asap.

That's 625 per person.

I think this would be a good opportunity to switch banks Kate.

There's a bank called Chime that doesn't require a minimum balance, doesn't cost any money to keep open and will give us a free debit card so we can make our payments more seamlessly.

If everyone is in agreement I can open that up and that first 625 can go straight in there.

All sounds good to me. Erez, do you want to open the Chime account and then we'll each deposit the $625 directly into it? Let us know how you'd like the $625 and deposit info. Thanks! Peace

Hey all,

Let's fill out this paper work and get the 2500 dollar retainer paid asap.

That's 625 per person.

I think this would be a good opportunity to switch banks Kate.

There's a bank called Chime that doesn't require a minimum balance, doesn't cost any money to keep open and will give us a free debit card so we can make our payments more seamlessly.

If everyone is in agreement I can open that up and that first 625 can go straight in there.

Kate are we settled up w a Margaret?

Dear Tenants at 226 Franklin,

As discussed with Michael Kozek, please see the attached engagement documents. Review the Letter and Terms carefully. If they are acceptable, please sign where indicated on the engagement letter, and sign the terms of engagement documents as well. Please also make sure to have each unit fill out and send back individual Client Intake Forms, also attached.

We accept retainer and all future payments by cash, check, or credit card. You can most easily make your retainer payments by card using our secure online portal

Please let us know how you intend to pay the retainer—we will not begin work on your behalf until it is received. If you have any additional questions regarding the documents or if you need additional information, I will be happy to help.

We look forward to working with you on this matter. Until then, be well and all the best.

You don't need to open an account, you just need to sign up, that'll allow you to make payments via debit card.

Aww man, I don't know if other people had this problem but I singed up for Chime, linked my bank account, and then went to pay Erez the $625 but it said my Chime account was empty so then I needed transfer from my bank account to Chime and then pay Erez. Annoying but fine. After I did the transfer my Chine is still empty and won't have funds for 7 days.

So my $625 is unavailable for 7 days and I'm kind of short right so don't really have another $625 to now Zelle.

Not sure what to do.

Been waiting on homd with Chime for over 15 minutes.

I don't see any way to cancel the transfer.

You don't need to open an account, you just need to sign up, that'll allow you to make payments via debit card.

Damn. Yeah, you can just pay with your debit card, shouldn't have to link a bank account ...

Aww man, I don't know if other people had this problem but I signed up for Chime, linked my bank account, and then went to pay Erez the $625 but it said my Chime account was empty so then I needed transfer from my bank account to Chime and then pay Erez. Annoying but fine. After I did the transfer my Chime is still empty and won't have funds for 7 days.

So my $625 is unavailable for 7 days and I'm kind of short right so don't really have another $625 to now Zelle.

Not sure what to do.

Been waiting on homd with Chime for over 15 minutes.

I don't see any way to cancel the transfer.

You don't need to open an account, you just need to sign up, that'll allow you to make payments via debit card.

Hi folks,

Thanks for sending along all the paperwork so quickly. Please find attached here a fully executed copy of the group's engagement letter, signed and dated today by Michael Kozek. You'll also find attached fully executed copies of the different terms of engagement documents for each tenant. The only remaining piece is the retainer payment. You can make the payment using the link I included in the original email. For convenience, it follows below:

<https://secure.lawpay.com/pages/weenkozek/trust>

Once the retainer payment is made, we will conclude the engagement process and take things from there.

Thanks again for your time and attention. We're looking forward to working with you!

Thanks! You should have received a confirmation note from me under separate cover confirming the receipt of retainer funds. Thanks again for handling that.

You each should be receiving an invitation shortly to establish login credentials for MyCase, our online client portal. We use MyCase to track attorney time spent on your matter, account for your group's retainer money, and generate future invoices. If you have any questions or trouble setting things up on MyCase, don't hesitate to let me know.

Otherwise, Michael Kozek will be following up at his earliest opportunity with the next steps in your case. Be well in the meantime, and all the best.

Michael

Hi folks,

Thanks for sending along all the paperwork so quickly. Please find attached here a fully executed copy of the group's engagement letter, signed and dated today by Michael Kozek. You'll also find attached fully executed copies of the different terms of engagement documents for each tenant. The only remaining piece is the retainer payment. You can make the payment using the link I included in the original email. For convenience, it follows below:

Once the retainer payment is made, we will conclude the engagement process and take things from there.

Thanks again for your time and attention. We're looking forward to working with you!

We accept retainer and all future payments by cash, check, or credit card. You can most easily make your retainer payments by card using our secure online portal

Monday would definitely be better because I'm going to Yosemite today to volunteer and Friday I might have a big multi pitch climb planned.

It's possible could to a late evening meeting (like 9pm est)

Mon would definitely be best. Or Tuesday morning

Hi folks,

Thanks for sending along all the paperwork so quickly. Please find attached here a fully executed copy of the group's engagement letter, signed and dated today by Michael Kozek. You'll also find attached fully executed copies of the different terms of engagement documents for each tenant. The only remaining piece is the retainer payment. You can make the payment using the link I included in the original email. For convenience, it follows below:

Once the retainer payment is made, we will conclude the engagement process and take things from there.

Thanks again for your time and attention. We're looking forward to working with you!

As discussed with Michael Kozek, please see the attached engagement documents. Review the Letter and Terms carefully. If they are acceptable, please sign where indicated on the engagement letter, and sign the terms of engagement documents as well. We accept retainer and all future payments by cash, check, or credit card. You can most easily make your retainer payments by card using our secure online portal

Please let us know how you intend to pay the retainer—we will not begin work on your behalf until it is received. If you have any additional questions regarding the documents or if you need additional information, I will be happy to help.

We look forward to working with you on this matter. Until then, be well and all the best.

You can make the payment using the link I included in the original email. For convenience, it follows below:

Once the retainer payment is made, we will conclude the engagement process and take things from there.

Thanks again for your time and attention. We're looking forward to working with you!

It looks like I actually won't have service in an hour and will be right in the middle of my volunteer work. I was hoping I could get away but it just isn't looking that way.

I hate now missing a second meeting.

If it's possible to reschedule that would be preferable for me if not, then can someone please record the session and I can follow up with questions?

I just don't understand the new plan or know anything about Kozek yet.

I don't know, I'm pretty bummed. I should have known better than to think today would work. ■■

It looks like I actually won't have service in an hour and will be right in the middle of my volunteer work. I was hoping I could get away but it just isn't looking that way.

I hate now missing a second meeting.

If it's possible to reschedule that would be preferable for me if not, then can someone please record the session and I can follow up with questions?

I just don't understand the new plan or know anything about Kozek yet.

I don't know, I'm pretty bummed. I should have known better than to think today would work. ■

I mostly just want to know the game plan.

Is everyone wanting to get the Cof0 or still keep options open to sell?

If we need to sublet at any point can we? What does that entail?

Can we get the plans the way we want?

Is kozek worried about Marty's new lawyers the way Margret was? Does he think they're going to challenge each of us?

What are his biggest concerns about our case?

Seperate question- are Phil and Theo definitely not joining us?

If I think of anything else I'll try and text it.

If anyone could record it though that would be better but thanks for taking notes.

Subject: Letter to Margaret

Hey all, same letter as in the thread w Michael, just wanted to get approval from you before i sent it off here...

Margaret,

Apologies for the delayed response, we've spent the past few weeks deciding how best to move forward as a tenants group.

While we appreciate your efforts during your time as our legal representation, this email confirms that we are terminating your services for all matters, as you invited, effective immediately. We do not and no longer believe that you represented our interests, as demonstrated by, amongst other matters, your setting of ultimatums, unwillingness to advocate for us, and refusal to present our position on settlement.

We have retained Ween & Kozek to take over our representation in all matters going forward. Please coordinate with their office to turn over the file and provide any relevant background.

Please send us final invoices for any outstanding work and we will settle them up immediately.

Thank you,

-Kathryn Downie, Christian Gray, Erez Horovitz, David May

Also, Kate, really not much discussed, mainly focused on firing Margaret (see letter in previous email which they drafted for us). The questions you posed will be answered once they take over / in the next round of meetings with them once they get caught up.

Subject: 226 Franklin - Admin Appeal
Folks,

I reached out to Margaret Sandercock today to facilitate the subs of counsel and transfer of the files. She mentioned that there is a 4th matter she was working on that we should sub in on:

"You should note there is one other matter that you should be taking over. We have a pending application for review by the full LB of a decision by the prior executive director that the Loft Board will not enforce the commitment of the landlord to do PAA's for all the units you are taking over, and also Hubbard and Lockhart. The architect being used for that is Neratoff."

Do you have the administrative determination this refers to and the application / papers filed seeking to appeal it? Please send as soon as you can so we can review. (I have asked her for them as well if you are unable to find them).

She also stated they would issue the final invoices soon, and as soon as they are paid, send us the files.

I expect to send you the subs of counsel today or tomorrow to get started as each of you have to sign them as well before a notary public.

Best,

Nina

Margaret,

Apologies for the delayed response, we've spent the past few weeks deciding how best to move forward as a tenants group.

While we appreciate your efforts during your time as our legal representation, this email confirms that we are terminating your services for all matters, as you invited, effective immediately. We do not and no longer believe that you represented our interests, as demonstrated by, amongst other matters, your setting of ultimatums, unwillingness to advocate for us, and refusal to present our position on settlement.

We have retained Ween & Kozek to take over our representation in all matters going forward. Please coordinate with their office to turn over the file and provide any relevant background.

Please send us final invoices for any outstanding work and we will settle them up immediately.

Subject: 226 Franklin - Sub of counsel OATH Harassment application

Folks,

Attached is the substitution of counsel for the OATH harassment application. Please sign it in the line indicated with your name before a notary public. The notary should then complete, sign and stamp the acknowledgment at the bottom of page 2 or the last page. You can each have it signed and notarized and pass the document along, or sign separate versions I can put together in one pdf later.

You can print this document and bring it to sign before a notary or any local bank may have a notary on staff and do it for free or for a small charge, just need to call them and ask what time the notary is in.

We can also set up appointments for video notarization (but this is billable time which is less cost effective). For video notarization, you should have your ID, and be able to either print the affidavit and sign it in front of me via video meeting or have the ability to electronically sign with adobe or other programs, and share your screen so I can "watch" you sign.

Let me know how you want to proceed with notarizations.

Best,

Nina

Thanks Michael, here's my slightly modified version of your letter:

Margaret,

Apologies for the delayed response, we've spent the past few weeks deciding how best to move forward as a tenants group.

While we appreciate your efforts during your time as our legal representation, this email confirms that we are terminating your services for all matters, as you invited, effective immediately. We do not and no longer believe that you represented our interests, as demonstrated by, amongst other matters, your setting of ultimatums, unwillingness to advocate for us, and refusal to present our position on settlement.

We have retained Ween & Kozek to take over our representation in all matters going forward. Please coordinate with their office to turn over the file and provide any relevant background.

Please send us final invoices for any outstanding work and we will settle them up immediately.

Thank you,

Folks,

Attached is the substitution of counsel for the OATH harassment application. Please sign it in the line indicated with your name before a notary public. The notary should then complete, sign and stamp the acknowledgment at the bottom of page 2 or the last page.

You can each have it signed and notarized and pass the document along, or sign separate versions I can put together in one pdf later.

You can print this document and bring it to sign before a notary or any local bank may have a notary on staff and do it for free or for a small charge, just need to call them and ask what time the notary is in.

We can also set up appointments for video notarization (but this is billable time which is less cost effective). For video notarization, you should have your ID, and be able to either print the affidavit and sign it in front of me via video meeting or have the ability to electronically sign with adobe or other programs, and share your screen so I can "watch" you sign.

Let me know how you want to proceed with notarizations.

Best,

Nina

It is important to get this done before you leave, as we need to step into these cases asap. What time do you leave tomorrow morning? I could meet with you for a virtual notarization if you have access to a printer in the morning.
