Hi Violet,

Marty told me that I can use the spaces until the renovations were complete. I sent an email for specification of the scope of work to Marty and the mold inspection company and never heard anything back. This was a continuation of an existing email thread. The COVID lock down happened right around then so I assumed I would get a reply once the situation had settled and people were back to work. I still have not gotten a reply.

It is unreasonable to ask me to move my stuff out of storage and it goes against our original agreement.

How do you recommend that I move three storage rooms of stuff out by myself during a pandemic when people are sheltering in place? You would need to give me more time to even make arrangements for a move.

Chris

Violet,

Where would your people move my things? How can you have people move things when we are supposed to be staying 6 feet away from each other? American Package is putting people's health at risk by even asking such a thing.

Dear Chris

We need at least two of the storage rooms

We can give you help moving it or throwing away the things that you don't want

There are no more explanations of the expert reports

The report says what needs to be done despite your different opinion.

When we can the remediation team is going to follow this report and remove the mold. The space will then be retested to insure there is no mold

As soon as we can we need to move forward according to the approved plans
